ELIGIBILITY / EXCLUSIONS FOR THE BOEING COMPANY CORPORATE GRANTS

ELIGIBILITY: U.S. GRANT SEEKERS

• Your nonprofit must be a U.S.-based IRS 501(c)(3) qualified charitable or educational organization or an accredited K-12 educational institution to apply for a Boeing Company Charitable or Employees Community Fund grant.

• U.S. organizations will need a 501(c)(3)-qualified tax ID number or NCES (K-12 schools/ districts) ID number to apply. Individual K-12 schools need to provide both their NCES district ID number (seven digits) and school ID number (five digits).

• Most public U.S. universities or colleges will need to apply using the tax ID number for their 501(c)(3) charitable foundation or development office http://nces.ed.gov/globallocator/index.asp

• It is strongly advised to check local grant-making guidelines before you submit a grant request.

ELIGIBILITY: INTERNATIONAL GRANT SEEKERS

• Only nonprofit, non-governmental charitable organizations and educational institutions are eligible for Boeing Company Charitable grants. Your organization must include a copy of the government charity license, registration or other official evidence of tax-exempt charitable status and include the name of the issuing government body, registrar or bureau. Other documentation also may be required, such as a constitution or governing documents.

• It is strongly advised to check local grant-making guidelines (where available) before you submit a grant request.
