Section 1. Qualifications for Board-Approved Supervisors. (1) Effective January 1, 2010, the following qualifications shall be necessary to become a board-approved supervisor:
   (a) AAMFT approved supervisor in good standing; or
   (b) AAMFT supervisor candidate; or
   (c) A marriage and family therapist licensed in Kentucky and in good standing with a minimum of five (5) years of experience in the practice of marriage and family therapy; or
   (d) A person licensed and in good standing with a minimum of five (5) years of experience as a marriage and family therapist in another state, and who meets the licensure requirements for Kentucky.

(2) In order to obtain initial board-approved supervisor status, all applicants who are not American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists (AAMFT) supervisors in good standing, shall provide proof of completion of six (6) hours of licensure board-approved continuing education courses in supervision. The courses must be taken within the two (2) years preceding the date of application to become a board-approved supervisor.

(a) This requirement shall be in addition to the fifteen (15) hours of continuing education required by 201 KAR 32:060.

(b) Said approved courses shall include, but not be limited to, Kentucky law governing the practice of marriage and family therapy, both administrative regulations and statutes, theories of supervision, ethical issues involved in supervision, supervisor responsibilities such as logs, treatment, planning and recording. Courses may be attended live or online.

(3) Board-approved supervisor annual renewal requirements.

(a) AAMFT approved supervisors shall complete one (1) hour of continuing education every year in Kentucky law governing the practice of marriage and family therapy. Courses may be attended live or online. This requirement shall be included in the fifteen (15) hours of continuing education required by 201 KAR 32:060.

(b) Non-AAMFT approved supervisors shall complete two (2) hours of continuing education in supervision every year, to maintain board-approved supervisor status. This requirement shall be included in the fifteen (15) hours of continuing education required by 201 KAR 32:060. Said approved courses shall include, but not be limited to, Kentucky law governing the practice of marriage and family therapy, both administrative regulations and statutes, theories of supervision, ethical issues involved in supervision, supervisor responsibilities such as logs, treatment, planning and recording. Courses may be attended live or online.

Section 2. Clinical Supervision. (1) Clinical supervision shall:
   (a) Be equally distributed throughout the qualifying period. Supervision shall average at least four (4) hours per month as specified in the supervision contract;
   (b) Be clearly distinguishable from psychotherapy, didactic enrichment or training activities;
   (c) Focus on raw data from the supervisee’s current clinical work; and
   (d) Be direct, face-to-face contact between the supervisor and supervisee. Any alternative format of direct, face-to-face clinical supervision shall receive prior approval of the board.

(2) The supervision process shall focus on:
   (a) Accurate diagnosis of client problems leading to proficiency in applying professionally recognized nomenclature and developing a plan for treatment as set forth in the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders;
   (b) Development of treatment skills appropriate to the therapeutic process;
   (c) Development of sensitivity to context and issues relating specifically to the family or individual being counseled;
   (d) Acknowledgment of an awareness of the use of the professional self of the therapist in the process of therapy;
   (e) Increased theoretical and applied knowledge for the therapist;
   (f) Acquisition of a greater depth of knowledge and range of techniques in the provision of marriage and family therapy; and
   (g) Awareness of ethical issues in practice, in order to safeguard and enhance the quality of care available to marriage and family therapy clients.

Section 3. Standards for raw data used for supervision. For purposes of this section raw data shall be defined as the use of video-taped sessions, live observation, or co-therapy with a board-approved supervisor. The use of raw data in a supervision session shall constitute a minimum of fifty (50) hours of the 200 hours of required supervision.

Section 4. In a therapy session involving a board-approved supervisor and supervisee:
   (1) The role of the board-approved supervisor as a supervisor or co-therapist shall be clearly defined prior to beginning a therapy session; and
   (2) The supervisees may receive credit for client contact hours and supervision hours.
Section 5. Documentation Requirements. (1) The board-approved supervisor and marriage and family therapist associates shall maintain a supervision log which shall document:
   (a) The frequency and type of supervision provided; and
   (b) The method of supervision utilized, such as observation, dialogue and discussion, and instructional techniques employed.

   (2) No more than 100 hours of supervision hours may take place in group supervision. For purposes of this administrative regulation, individual supervision consists of one (1) or two (2) supervisees with a supervisor.

Section 6. Number of Supervisees. A board-approved supervisor shall not have more than six (6) marriage and family therapist associates under supervision at any one time. Requests to supervise marriage and family therapist associates in excess of six (6) shall be submitted to the board for approval and shall demonstrate in writing the supervisor’s plan and ability to add to the current supervisory load.

Section 7. Temporary Supervision. (1) In extenuating circumstances, when a marriage and family therapist associate is without supervision, the associate may continue working up to thirty (30) calendar days under agency supervision while appropriate board-approved supervision is sought and a new supervision contract is submitted to the board. Qualified mental health professional for purposes of this administrative regulation is defined as a licensed marriage and family therapist, licensed psychologist, licensed psychiatrist, licensed professional clinical counselor, or licensed clinical social worker. For purposes of this administrative regulation extenuating circumstances include, but are not limited to, death or serious illness of the board-approved supervisor, a leave of absence by the supervisor or the termination of the supervisor’s employment.

   (2) It shall be the responsibility of the supervisee to notify the board and supervisee of these circumstances and to submit in writing a plan for resolution of the situation when a supervision contract is terminated. The supervisor shall notify the board and supervisee within thirty (30) days in writing.

Section 8. Board-approved Supervisor’s Responsibilities to Clients and Supervisees. (1) A board-approved supervisor shall be responsible for ensuring the proper and appropriate delivery of marriage and family therapy services to clients.

   (2) A board-approved supervisor shall be responsible for fostering the professional competence and development of the marriage and family therapist associates under his supervision.

   (3) A board-approved supervisor shall be responsible for compliance with the code of ethics set forth in 201 KAR 32:050 and take steps to ensure that his supervisees comply with the code of ethics as well.

This is to certify that the Chair of the Kentucky State Board of Licensure for Marriage and Family Therapists executes this administrative regulation prior to filing, pursuant to the authority granted by statute, and following a vote of approval by the Board as reflected in the Board’s minutes. This administrative regulation is filed with the Legislative Research Commission as required by KRS Chapter 13A to carry out and enforce the provisions of KRS Chapter 335.
