A warm welcome.
We are delighted you’ve found Trinity and invite you to worship, explore, ask questions, and help yourself to all our parish has to offer. In the pew rack is an information card to fill out and place in the offering plate, mail to the church office, or hand to an usher, greeter, or member of the clergy.
We welcome the full participation of children in our worship. If you feel it is more appropriate for your child to be in childcare, we offer loving care for our youngest members in the nursery during the service.

Our Mission As a worshipping community of diverse Christians, we accept, nourish, and send all to do God’s work.

Our Vision To build and enhance connections with God, with one another, and with communities around and beyond us; to be an urban center of Christian ministry sought after by anyone on a quest for a deepened relationship with God.

UPDATE from the Newcomer Ministry: New name tags are coming!
The Newcomer Ministry is pleased to announce that we will be purchasing new magnetic name tags for each member of our parish. Not only will this help our new rector get to know us, it will create an even friendlier experience for visitors and newcomers.

Beginning March 6, member lists will be available at the back of the church. Please take a moment to review them: what we have on file is what we will print on your name tag. If you want to make a change (e.g., your name is Robert, but you prefer that your name tag say Bob), this will be your opportunity.

If for some reason your name is not on the list, please add it and include a contact number or e-mail address so we may follow up with you. The lists will be available until March 27.
If you have questions, please contact Jodi Ammons at (317) 926-7008 or jodimammons@gmail.com.

BCP, p. 351

Lord, have mercy Kyrie

Richard Felciano

The Collect of the Day

The Lord be with you. And also with you. Let us pray. Almighty God, you alone can bring into order the unruly wills and affections of sinners: Grant your people grace to love what you command and desire what you promise; that, among the swift and varied changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.Amen.

The Lesson

Isaiah 43:16-21

Thus says the Lord, who makes a way in the sea, a path in the mighty waters, who brings out chariot and horse, army and warrior; they lie down, they cannot rise, they are extinguished, quenched like a wick: Do not remember the former things, or consider the things of old. I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert. The wild animals will honour me, the jackals and the ostriches; for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people, the people whom I formed for myself so that they might declare my praise.

After the reading The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.
Psalm 126 congregation sings refrain

Refrain

The Lord has done great things for us, and we are glad indeed.

1 When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion, * then were we like those who dream.
2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter, * and our tongue with shouts of joy. REFRAIN
3 Then they said among the nations, * "The Lord has done great things for them."
4 The Lord has done great things for us, * and we are glad indeed. REFRAIN
5 Restore our fortunes, O Lord, * like the watercourses of the Negev.
6 Those who sowed with tears * will reap with songs of joy.
7 Those who go out weeping, carrying the seed, * will come again with joy, shouldering their sheaves. REFRAIN

The Epistle Philippians 3:4b-14

If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless.

Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith. I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

After the reading The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Tract and Verse

O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever.
The Gospel

After the Gospel is announced, the congregation says, Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him. Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus’ feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said, "Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?" (He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.) Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me."

After the reading, Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev’d Mary Bargiel
Trinity Deacon

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Book of Common Prayer, p. 360

Welcome

The Offertory

O Deus, Ego Amo Té

O God, I love thee, I love thee—Not out of hope of heaven for me Nor fearing not to love and be

In the everlasting burning.

Thou, thou, my Jesus, after me Didst reach thine arms out dying,
For my sake suffered nails and lance, Mocked and marrèd countenance, Sorrows passing number, Sweat and care and cumber,

Yea and death, and this for me, And thou couldst see me sinning:

Then I, why should not I love thee, Jesu, so much in love with me? Not for heaven’s sake; not to be Out of hell by loving thee; Nor for any gains I see; But just the way that thou didst me I do love and I will love thee: What must I love thee, Lord, for then? For being my king and God. Amen. [Gerard Manley Hopkins]

Hymn 598 – Lord Christ, when first thou cam’st to earth

Mit Freuden zart
The Great Thanksgiving: Prayer C

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Then, facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds
God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.

Glory to you for ever and ever.
At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

By your will they were created and have their being.
From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.
Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

By his blood, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.
And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

Sanctus and Benedictus

Sanctus and Benedictus Richard Felciano
The Celebrant continues

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord. On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Lord God of our Fathers; God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction anthem, Agnus Dei
Richard Felciano
During the Communion of the People

Receiving communion: The consecrated bread and wine are living signs of the presence of Christ in this gathering. All who seek God and are drawn to Christ are welcome to receive the bread and wine. If it is not your custom to receive communion, you are welcome to come to the altar rail for a blessing. Please indicate your desire for a blessing by placing both hands on your shoulders in a crossed position.

Hymn 471 – We sing the praise of him who died
Hymn 474 – When I survey the wondrous cross

Sending Forth Lay Eucharistic Visitors

Celebrant  In the name of this congregation, I send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ body and blood.

People  We who are many are one body, because we all share one bread, one cup.

The Postcommunion Prayer

Adult Education at Trinity

Coffee & Theology | Sundays at 9:00AM in the Fortune Room

Crossings: a parish conversation on living and dying well. This Lenten series is based on the premise that death informs life. It provides perspective on what is important and how we might live more fully. Runs through April 10.

CEED Presentation: | April 17

Trinity members who recently attended the Consortium of Endowed Episcopal Parishes (CEED) will give reports on the conference. Much to hear about growth ideas from welcoming others to raising money.

St. Richard’s Episcopal School (SRES) - Campus Plans | April 24

David Amstutz, SRES Headmaster and John Mainella, SRES Director of Development & Major Gifts, will be here to discuss the St. Richard’s capital campaign.

Pastoral Care at Trinity

Emergency Pastoral Calls

The clergy of Trinity Church expect to be called to the side of our parishioners during times of crises, sudden illness, or death - any time of the day or night. We will be there to offer prayers, be a spiritual support and, if need be, offer last rites and prayers for the dying.

During the week beginning Sunday, March 13 - Saturday, March 19, if such an emergency arises and you need to contact a member of the clergy, please call Mother LaRae at 901-201-8968.

Grief support | Next gathering, Wednesday, March 16

For those are grieving the loss of a loved one, the grief support group meets at Trinity on the 1st and 3rd Wednesday of every month. Dinner at 5:30pm, gather for the support group in the Trinity library at 6:00pm.

Trinity Caregivers’ Support Group | Thursday, March 17 at 3:30 pm

The group meets on the 3rd Thursday of every month in the library. The group exists to provide support and spiritual encouragement to individuals who are providing long-term care to spouses or other loved ones suffering from long-term chronic illnesses such as dementia or Parkinson’s disease. The group is open to members and friends of Trinity Church.

Baptism at Trinity

Next opportunity for baptism is the Easter Vigil, Saturday, March 26. Interested? Contact the church office to speak with a clergy member: 317-926-1346.
Yogadevotion at Trinity

Yogadevotion new session begins March 15. Come to the first class for free! 8-week session $55.

- Tuesdays 9:00 am: Seated in the Presence: Getting up and down off the floor can be difficult for many reasons. This class incorporates poses that increase range of motion, improve balance and bring attention to the breath, all using a chair as yoga props.
- Tuesdays 5:30 pm: Practicing in the Presence: The body of the class is a combination of standing poses, balance poses and floor poses. This class is for all levels as Yogadevotion LLC teaches that the primary teacher is your own body and that voice is the important one. Modifications are offered for all poses.

Register with the Rev’d Karen King, 317-926-1346 x 403.
For more info on the classes, contact Heidi Green, heidi@yogadevotion.com.

Stewardship at Trinity | Matching Funds Proposals due by April 1

The Stewardship Committee proposed a one-time challenge to increase existing pledges (and encourage new pledges) by 10%. The pledge campaign was successful and the additional pledges for 2016 has resulted in $60,891. This money is available for projects that benefit Trinity or its outreach partners. We invite you to submit ideas about how to use this money. In order to do so, please fill out a project proposal form which is available for download on the home page of the Trinity website. Proposals are due by April 1, 2016. trinitychurchindy.org.

Outreach at Trinity

Mid-North Food Pantry Garden Shower and Open House | Sunday March 13 12:15-2:00 pm at the pantry
CELEBRATE spring and GROW with us at the Mid-North Food Pantry’s Garden Shower! Take a tour of the pantry, feast on some healthy treats, and check out our plans for GROWING the garden space at this year! With your help, this year we will expand production with 2 new raised beds and install flat soaker hoses to minimize water waste and labor hours. We’d LOVE to receive gifts of garden soil or monetary gifts for the purchase of tomato and pepper plants and other supplies. Mid-North Food Pantry is located in the Trinity Outreach Center, 3333 N. Meridian. For more information about the garden and a detailed supply wishlist, please see midnorthfoodpantry.org/about/garden/

Trinity Outreach reaches out to help Exodus Refugee Immigration, Inc.
Exodus Refugee Immigration, is a non-profit organization that works with refugees – worldwide victims of persecution, injustice and war – to establish self-sufficient lives in freedom and sanctuary for themselves and their families in Indiana. Exodus is in need of churches to join them in supporting an immigrant family by establishing a Welcome Team. Trinity Outreach wants to support Exodus in this work and we hope you will help by becoming a member of Trinity’s Welcome Team!

A Welcome Team is a partnership with Exodus. It is an opportunity in which church members can share their blessings with those seeking renewed hope. It involves helping refugees become self-sufficient, contributing members of their new communities by providing the initial resources and support they need to rebuild their lives. Typically the needs require a minimum of 6-8 people dedicated to the resettlement effort for at least a 3-month period. Welcome Team members share time, transportation assistance, donated goods and, if available, financial support. The benefits of befriending our new neighbors go well beyond the material and emotional benefits to the receiving refugee family. In return, the church gains a better sense of community and Christian service as well as a clearer understanding of the world and the need for acceptance.

If you would like to learn more about becoming a member of Trinity’s Welcome Team, please contact Elsa Sands, elsa-sands@yahoo.com or call 842-6199 or Mother Karen at 926-1346 ext. 403 or kking@trinitychurchindy.org.

TRINITY EPISCOPAL CHURCH & PARTNERS

Sunday, March 13 | Crossings: a parish conversation
9:00 AM | TRINITY EPISCOPAL CHURCH, Fortune Room
How do we want to be remembered? What will your legacy be? Legacy is fundamental to what it means to be human. Without a sense of working to create a legacy, adults lose meaning in their lives. The idea of legacy may cause us to think about death and the end of our lives but it is actually about living and dying with purpose. Presenters will provide lots of tools to use for this reflection.

What kinds of legal steps do we need to take now to insure that our death and our affairs will be managed as we wish in the future? As stewards of God's bounty and caretakers, what we do with these gifts ultimately defines our lives and faith. Introduction on what does it mean to be a member of the Trinity Tree of Life Society.

Prayers

The Larger Church
For Michael Curry, our Presiding Bishop, Cate Waynick, our Bishop; for the worldwide Anglican Communion, particularly the Most Revd. Dr. Paul Kwong Archbishop of Hong Kong Sheng Kung Hui and for our Diocese of Indianapolis, and especially for St. Paul’s, Jeffersonville and the Rev. Don Hill and the Rev. Dr. Nancy Woodworth-Hill, Co-Pastors, The Rev. Jim Stanton, Deacon. For congregations everywhere, particularly our own parish, and for all clergy and people. We pray for St. Andre Parish, Mithon, Haiti; and for our companion diocese in Brazil and their bishop Maurice, let us pray to the Lord.

We pray for the Diocesan Search and Transition Committees, for all who are nominated, and for all those who shall choose the next bishop of this diocese, that we may receive a faithful pastor who will care for your people and equip us for our ministries.

Trinity Transition
We pray for our parish during this time of transition, giving thanks for those who have submitted their names as candidates for rector, and asking for the Holy Spirit’s guidance in the continuing work of our Search Committee, especially as they continue the task of interviewing candidates and discerning who will be called as our new rector.

Thanksgivings
For all our blessings, giving thanks in particular for the Lenten session last Wednesday, “Neighborhood Table Talks” and neighborhood participants, and for other blessings which we now name, either silently or aloud.

We pray for those who are suffering, feeling lonely, and abandoned, and for parents, siblings and spouses of those who have died. We pray for all the people of the Middle East, especially for the people of Iraq and Syria, for all religious minorities who are suffering there, for those who have died, and for the many refugees. We pray for all the victims of terror in Europe, the Middle East and around the world.

Our Leaders and the Military
We pray for our nation and world: for Barack Obama, our President, Mike Pence our Governor, Joe Hogsett, our Mayor and for leaders everywhere; for peace in places of conflict; for the protection of military personnel who help to defend justice and peace, especially those known to us: Nicole Pinkman; John Parker; Warren York; Craig McLaren; Jason Daily; Edward Mallet; Tyler Willing; Christopher Kempf; Ryan Hackett; Adam; Bryce Weathers; Steve MID; Jon Meeker; Luke Pepenmeier; and Keegan Pierson, and for others we name, either silently or aloud.

Those Who Have Died
We offer our prayers for those who have died: Nell Boards; and Elizabeth “Cristy” Nicholson.
