1. Go to http://www.harcourtschool.com
2. Double click on the “The Learning Site” (red box on left).
3. Select “Math.”
4. Use the mouse to highlight “Harcourt Math” in the box on the left.
5. This will present you with two options in the box on the right. Choose the bottom option.
6. Use “Andrews” as the password and “Rockwell Elementary” as the school.
7. Select the state (Maryland) and where you will be using the website (home, school or both). Choosing to save the password will eliminate the log-in procedure the next time you visit this site on your computer.
8. Click on the “Explore” button on the bottom.
9. Select grade “3”.
10. Choose the appropriate chapter and section.
   a. Chapters 1–4
   b. Chapters 14–16
Harcourt Spelling Online: Using the Website

11. Go to http://www.harcourtschool.com
12. Double click on the “The Learning Site” (red box on left).
13. Select “Spelling.”
14. Use the mouse to highlight “Harcourt Spelling” in the box on the left.
15. Spelling group click the number 3. Vocabulary group click the number 4.
16. Click on “Unit 1” then click “go.”
Harcourt Writing Online: Using the Website

17. Go to http://www.harcourtschool.com
18. Double click on the “The Learning Site” (red box on left).
19. Select “Reading.”
20. Use the mouse to click on “Story Town.”
21. Click on “Ideas for Writers” on the left sign.
22. Click on grade 3.
23. Choose “Ideas for Personal Narratives,” then click on “Picture Prompts.”
24. Day One: Choose set 2 and write a personal narrative about one of the topics.
25. Day Two: Click on “Title Ideas”, choose a title and write.
Raz-Kids Reading Online: Using the Website

26. Go to http://www.raz-kids.com
27. Click on the “Login” tab and use your login directions on your student planner.
28. Go to the “Bookroom” tab and choose one book and activity/quiz each day.