To score 100 marks in English – carefully follow the tips given below:

SECTION – I

Vocabulary – 20 marks

PART-1: (10 MARKS)

Q.1. Synonyms – 5 marks (Book Page No: 5,52,72)

Give importance to the words given in the “glossary column” of each and every lesson. Understand the contextual meaning. Some words have two or more meanings. For Example: ‘soaring’ – there are two synonyms namely ‘increasing’ and ‘rising’ – given in your text.

a. He would place one on top of the other and make a soaring tower.
   (Here, you select the synonym rising)

b. Day by day, the price of gold is soaring high (Here, you select the synonym increasing).

So, it is important to read & understand the meaning of the passage before selecting the option. Don’t be hasty.
Q.2. Antonyms – 5 marks (Book Page Nos: 73,151)

You must be very conscious while attending antonyms. Remember that you are answering the questions on antonyms. Very often, a synonym of the underlined word given in the options may distract you. It may tempt you to answer synonyms instead of antonyms. Give importance to the antonyms given in the book, public & PTA model question papers.

PART-2: (10 MARKS)

Q.3. Abbreviation: (Book Page No:28)

Familiarise with minimum 50 nos. of abbreviations. Have a practice of frequent learning of abbreviations. For e.g. Write your answer as below:

ATM – Automated Teller Machine.

Q.4. Homophone: (Page No:6)

Understand the meaning of words which sounds similar in pronunciation and differ in meaning. For e.g. It is one’s ........... that can pull a man out of despair (metal / mettle)

Q.5. American English: (Page No:26)

Be familiar with 50 nos., of British English words and their relevant American English. e.g. The grilled fish was topped with tomato slices before it was served. (AE: for grilled is broiled)

Q.6. Compound Words: (Page No:130)

Read carefully, what you are asked to form a compound word by placing before or after a word. (Example: workshop / software).

Q.7. Plural Forms: (Page No:104)

Give importance to the book exercises and learn them carefully.

Q.8. Prefix / Suffix: (Page Nos: 31,150)

Be conscious regarding the question you are answering for prefix / suffix. Write the full answer. Don’t write half answer. (Example: If you attach a prefix to the word ...........taken. Write ‘mistaken’ Don’t write ‘mis’ alone. It is an improper way of answering.)
Q.9. Phrasal Verb: (Page No:53)

Try to know the phrasal verbs for the works like tolerate, search, wear, postponed, cancelled, stopped suddenly, yield, cope with etc., - give importance to the phrasal verbs in “Golden Path” lesson. Prepare a list of phrasal verbs and their meanings selected from the pros lessons and model question papers. Read repeatedly & learn properly. e.g. Examine - go through.

Q.10. Syllabification: (Page No:29)

Syllable is the unit of a word. So spell the word correctly & syllabify. Syllabification is splitting of words according to vowel sounds.

E.g. mi-llio-naire (tri-syllabic word). In-ne-fec-tive-ly (poly-syllabic word)

Q.11. Appropriate Word: (Page No:74)

Select the appropriate word. Try to understand the usage of words which gives appropriate meaning. (Example: Look / see / watch

i) I look at the strange man ( with an intention)

ii) I see the bird ( something that comes into your sight)

iii) I watch TV (looking carefully)

Q.12. Construct a sentence using one of the given words:

Practice it with the help of work book. (Page No: 151). e.g. Construct a sentence using; (a) exhaust, OR (b) exhaustive, OR (c) exhaustion.

(a) We have an exhaust fan in the kitchen.

(b) Breaking stones in the quarry is an exhaustive work.

(c) We sat down with exhaustion after taking three rounds around the field.

Q.13. Reframing sentence:

You have to change the noun form into verb OR verb form into noun OR adjective into noun OR adjective into verb. It is better to know the verb forms for the noun forms like construction / description/ definition / cultivation / courageous. Besides, know the adjective and adverbial form of the noun forms. Refer a good dictionary to know the derivatives of the words. e.g. This is a proud (adjective) moment. This is a moment of pride (noun).

Q.14. Choose the correct sentence:

You have to choose a sentence which coveys the same meaning. It can be acquired only by practice. e.g. Some children are exceptionally talented.

(a) Not many children are exceptionally talented.

(b) Only a few children are talented.

Answer: (a) Not many children are exceptionally talented.

Q-51. Spotting the error: (5 marks) - (book page:111,171)

We generally make mistakes in the following areas namely articles, prepositions, concord, number and tense. Give importance to these areas elaborately.

[Ref grammar Qns 15 to 29]

Some common errors are given below.

1. He is an university professor – Here the error is an. The correct form is ‘He is a university professor’. An should be followed only after vowel sounds. University, Useful, European are the words started with consonant sounds.

2. He is a M.A. Here the error is a. The correct sentence should be He is an M.A. The abbreviations M.A., M.Sc., M.L.A., M.P. are vowel sounds.

3. Suresh is inferior than Ramu. Here the error is than. Instead of than to should be used. The words such as prefer, senior, junior, inferior, superior are followed by to not than.

4. He is one of the tallest boy in the class. Here the noun in plural should be used. One of the should be followed by plural nouns and singular verb. ‘He is one of the tallest boys in the class’.

5. The price of the fruits are high. Here the subject is price. So the singular verb should be used. The correct sentence is ‘The price of the fruits is high’.

6. Physics are my favourite subject. Here the error is verb. The words such as Physics, Economics, Scissors are singular in number. The correct form is ‘Physics is my favourite subject’.

7. Each one of the girls are responsible. Here the error is ‘are’. Each, either, every, neither should be followed by a singular verb. The correct form is ‘Each one of the girls is responsible’.

8. Many a boys have done so. Many a should be followed by a singular noun and singular verb. The answer is Many a boy has done so.

9. The Minister with his secretaries have come. Here the Minister is the actual subject. Any singular subject joined to a plural word by ‘with’ will take a singular verb. Here has should be used as the subject is III person singular. ‘The Minister with his Secretaries has come’.

10. Five hundred rupees are a big sum. The amount is always singular.

11. He gave me a ten rupees note. Rupees should not come. He gave me a ten rupee note.

12. Cauvery is a holy river. Name of famous places such as rivers, mountains and buildings are preceded by ‘the’. The Cauvery.

13. If you had come to me, I would help you. The If clause has the past perfect tense. So the main clause should have would have + PP. The answer is ‘If you had come to me, I would have helped you’.
14. Though he came late but he was allowed. In complex sentences the co-ordinating conjunctions cannot be used. Answer: Though he came late, he was allowed. In compound sentences the sub-ordinating conjunctions cannot be used. Answer: He came late but he was allowed.

15. He, I and You are going to the market.

   The order of pronouns is wrong. At first Second person (You) should come, then third person (He, She, It) should come and finally first person (I, We) should come. Answer: You, he and I are going to the market.

16. I want to know why did you come late. The sentence is assertive, it is not an interrogative. Answer: I want to know why you came late.

17. He bought stationeries. Some words are collective noun and there is no plural for them. Eg: cattle, furniture, stationary, information, sheep, aircraft. Answer: He bought some stationary.

18. He asked me why I am crying. Tense form should be the same. Answer: He asked me why I was crying.

19. He asked me that when I returned home. It is the Interrogative form of indirect speech. ‘that’ should be removed. Answer: He asked me when I returned home.

20. Ram is taller than many other boy in the class. Many other should be followed by plural. Answer: ram is taller than many other boys in the class.

21. Ram and Raja fought among themselves. When two nouns are given the preposition ‘between’ should be used. ‘among’ is used for more than two nouns. Answer: Ram and Raja fought between themselves.

22. I have met him yesterday. ‘Yesterday’ denotes past tense. Present perfect Tense should not be used. Answer: I met him yesterday.

23. I want your advise. Advise is a verb. The noun form is advice. Answer: I want your advice.
