Then God said to Noah and to his sons with him, ‘As for me, I am establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you, and with every living creature that is with you, the birds, the domestic animals, and every animal of the earth with you, as many as came out of the ark.

- Genesis 9:8-18
Welcome to this place of Christian worship

Do not wait for someone else to begin worship. Pray silently for yourself, for those about you, for the poor and the oppressed, for those unable to be present, and for those who will shortly lead our common worship. Latecomers may enter the Sanctuary during the singing of the first hymn or during the Response to the Assurance. Ushers are available for assistance. Please turn off all cell phones.

Chiming of the Trinity

The sounding of the chimes, invoking Creator, Son, and Holy Spirit, is an invitation to prepare for worship through a time of silent reflection. Please be respectful of those who are praying.

Introit

Psalm 25:1-9
Plainchant Tone I.2

To you, O Lord, I lift up my soul; my God, I put my trust in you; let me not be humiliated, nor let my enemies triumph over me.
Let none who look to you be put to shame; let the treacherous be disappointed in their schemes.
Show me your ways, O Lord, and teach me your paths.
Lead me in your truth and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation; in you have I trusted all the day long.
Remember, O Lord, your compassion and love, for they are from everlasting.
Remember not the sins of my youth and my transgressions; remember me according to your love and for the sake of your goodness, O Lord.
Gracious and upright is the Lord; therefore he teaches sinners in his way.
He guides the humble in doing right and teaches his way to the lowly.
All the paths of the Lord are love and faithfulness to those who keep his covenant and his testimonies.

Call to Confession

God of mercy, we begin this Lenten season in confession.
We do not live according to your ways, but according to our own.
We condone violence, participate in systems of injustice,
and use power to our own advantage at the expense of others.
Forgive us, we pray, when we are tempted to follow paths
other than those you set before us.
Teach us your commandments; help us to turn from evil in its many guises,
and turn us toward your kingdom drawing near.
In covenantal love, remember us, we pray, and be for us, once more and always,
an ark of safety and new life.
In Christ’s name we pray. Amen.

Passing the Peace of Christ

The peace of Christ be with you.
And also with you.

Please turn to your neighbor and share the peace of Christ. It is appropriate to say, “The peace of Christ be with you,” and to respond, “And also with you.” The gesture is simple, but the meaning is profound. When we extend our hand to another, we identify with Jesus, who extended his life to the point of death to make peace with humanity (Col. 1:20-21).
What’s more, in the midst of divisions we symbolize our unity through handshakes and hugs (Eph. 2:14-21). Likewise, when we regularly pass the peace we practice God’s call to make every effort to maintain the bond of peace (Eph. 4:3).
Time with Children

At this time, parents may decide to have their children 3 years and older leave with their teachers. When the children leave, please make sure they take their belongings with them.

Prayer

René Clausen (b. 1953)

Text: Mother Teresa of Calcutta (1910-1997)

Help me spread your fragrance where I go. Flood my soul with your spirit and life. Penetrate and possess my whole being so utterly that my life may be only a radiance of Yours. Shine through me and be so in me that every soul I know will feel Your presence in my soul. Let them look up and see no longer me, but only You. Amen.

Prayer of Dedication

God of steadfast love and faithfulness,
we are humbled as we try to do what is right
and to walk in your ways.
Receive, we ask, these offerings,
and use them for your own good purposes
in the church and in all creation.
We pray in Jesus Christ. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil;
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Notes on Today’s Music...

During Black History Month (February), many of our Voluntaries and Choral Offerings are taken from the African-American tradition.

Agnus Dei, credited to Georges Bizet, is based on the Intermezzo from his L’Arlésienne Suite No. 2 (taken from Bizet’s 1872 incidental music to Alphonse Daudet’s play). Bizet had made one suite of his L’Arlésienne, but with the tremendous popularity of his opera, Carmen, in the years immediately following Bizet’s death, the publisher commissioned Bizet’s close friend, Ernest Guirard, to compile a second L’Arlésienne. After the second suite was completed, Guirard extracted the Intermezzo movement, added the sacred Latin text of the Agnus Dei, and published it as a “new” work by Bizet. The original Intermezzo begins with an incipit of Gregorian chant which may have given Guirard the inspiration for adding the Agnus Dei text.

Born in London, Samuel Sebastian Wesley was the eldest child in the composer Samuel Wesley’s second family, which he formed with Sarah Suter having separated from his wife Charlotte. Samuel Sebastian was the grandson of Charles Wesley. His middle name derived from his father’s lifelong admiration for the music of Bach. After singing in the choir of the Chapel Royal as a boy, Samuel Sebastian embarked on a career as a musician, and was appointed organist at Hereford Cathedral in 1832. He moved to Exeter Cathedral three years later, and subsequently held appointments at Leeds Parish Church (from 1842), Winchester Cathedral (from 1849) and Gloucester Cathedral (1865–1876).

Famous in his lifetime as one of his country’s leading organists and choirmasters, he composed almost exclusively for the Church of England, which continues to cherish his memory. His better-known anthems include Thou Wilt Keep Him in Perfect Peace and Wash Me Throughly. He also wrote several rather late examples of verse anthems, which contrast unison and contrapuntal sections with smaller, more intimate passages for solo voice or voices. Several of his compositions for solo organ have enduring value and continue to be played in recitals. One notable feature of his career is his aversion to equal temperament, an aversion he kept for decades after this tuning method had been accepted on the Continent and even in most of England.

Austin C. Lovelace was called by many the Dean of American Church Music. Over many years he worked at a number of Methodist and Presbyterian churches in Colorado, North Carolina, Illinois, and Nebraska. He also worked at Union Theological Seminary in N.Y.C. and Garrett Theological Seminary in Evanston, Ill. He was a prolific writer and composer with over 700 compositions for church in print, as well as numerous articles and books on church hymnody.

D. L. White is a native of Los Angeles, where he served as organist for New Hope Baptist Church for twelve years before his five-year appointment as Organist and Instructor of Music at Prairie View A&M. He returned to Los Angeles to be the Accompanist for the City Colleges, USC, and Cal State-L.A. He has served the AME Church for decades in several capacities, including Music Director for Grant AME Church, Annual Conference Director, First District Director of Music, and Associate Director for the Connectional Music Department of the General Conference of the AME Church. Among his many academic degrees, he received an honorary doctorate in 1984 from the University of Monrovia in West Africa.

One a rendering of the Positiv division that hangs in the center of the gallery (with an interesting allowance made for a rose window); one a schematic of the wind lines from the blower room in the attic to various parts of the church (including the Holmes chapel); one an illustration of you will find four renderings of the Aeolian-Skinner organ in the sanctuary from the early 1950’s as plans were being discussed between the Boston firm and Hans Vigeland. This year, we will look at two issues that have high stakes value for Buffalo and Westminster: immigration and restorative justice. What are the issues/needs locally? And, are there ways we can respond individually or as a congregation?

While our federal government struggles to craft an immigration policy that will serve the nation and those who come to it from other lands, we want to engage in a conversation at Westminster that will equip us to better understand the issues and the people affected, if not encourage our legislators to adopt specific reforms.

On Wednesday March 4, Eva Hassett, Executive Director of the International Institute (our neighbor on Delaware Ave.) will talk to us about Buffalo’s history of immigration and our current burgeoning population of new immigrants and refugees (many of whom we work with on the West Side through the Westminster Economic Development Initiative).

On Wednesday March 11, Citizen Action and on Wednesday March 25, VOICE-Buffalo will explore local efforts to implement a restorative justice approach to discipline in our schools as well as with first offenders. Citizen Action will describe what a restorative justice approach is all about, and how it can bring positive results in our Buffalo Public Schools. VOICE-Buffalo will show how restorative justice can be applied in the criminal justice system.

On Wednesday March 18, Professor Rick Su of the UB Law School, an immigration expert, will give us an overview of US immigration policy historically and what the issues are today that lawmakers find so challenging to address. Professor Su will offer his suggestions for cogent, fair immigration reform. He is a new young faculty member who our own UB Distinguished Professor Claude Welch describes as one of the new bright lights of the University.

Our goal is to examine these issues using a “justice lens” to help us understand the problem and lead us to solutions. Each of these presentations will not only provide new knowledge, but will suggest ways we can participate in the solutions as individuals and as a congregation.

PREACHING SCHEDULE

A Lenten Worship, Study, Art Experience – “The Body of Christ”

Dr. Yorty will preach through Lent on the theme of The Body of Christ, otherwise known as the Church. We are the hands and feet, the mind and heart of Christ in the world after the Resurrection and Pentecost when the Holy Spirit formed the Church.

The Scripture lessons for Lent trace the development of God’s people from the beginning of God’s promise to Noah to never again destroy creation, through the setting apart of the work of God’s people in the world, through the invitation to become new and whole people through our encounter today in real time with the Risen Christ.

During the weeks of Lent, we will invite all who join us in worship to complete a rose colored prayer/service slip, filled out during morning prayers on Sunday, for placement in the Christ figure on the cross. This sculpture, created by WNY artist, Rose Popper, will be placed by the Lectern and we will witness the body of Christ literally forming before our eyes as it takes shape from the pledges of service and ministry we make.

The Reverend Dr. Lance Brown will be leading Bible Study each Sunday morning during Adult Education in the Case Library focusing on the sermon texts for each week. Dr. Brown is a gifted Biblical scholar and teacher. Join him and others as he leads study on the Body of Christ in the selected readings for each Sunday.

in the Case Library

The Case Library, Spiritual Life and Adult Bible Study will join together for these small-group conversation style sessions led by Dr. Brown, who will be following the lectionary – so his topics will follow what Rev. Yorty will be preaching.
Dr Brown is the retired pastor from First Presbyterian Church, Tonawanda and a favorite teacher at the Lay Academy of Western
New York where he has taught Old Testament, Reformed Theology and New Testament courses. Dr. Brown brings a wealth of experience to this study. Besides his years in parish ministry, Lance served as a member and Chair of the General Assembly’s Advisory Council on Discipleship and Worship during the creation of our current Book of Common Worship, the Presbyterian Hymnal, and the Directory of Worship in our Book of Order.

Please join us for this series during the
