Conference Information
The sponsors are pleased to present the Twenty-Sixth Annual Threat Management Conference, designed to address major issues surrounding stalking and threatening behavior. A variety of nationally recognized speakers will give presentations on current information, research and techniques relating to the industry.

Security procedures at the conference will require a picture I.D. for picking up conference materials, and visible display of the conference badge at all sessions and events. By registering and attending the conference, attendees agree that they and their personal property will be subject to search, as requested, before or during attendance at any conference session or event. Refusal to allow the requested search will be grounds for uncompensated revocation of access to all conference sessions and events.

ATAP™ retains the right to refuse and/or revoke admission to any and all conference events to any person who, in ATAP’s™ sole discretion, presents a threat of harm to themselves or others, and/or whose conduct or presence has or will cause disruption to the conference.
The purpose of this conference is to:

Educate you regarding the nature of stalking and threatening behavior
Provide you with practical methods for managing threatening situations
Provide current research data

Who should attend:
Law enforcement
Prosecutors
Victim/witness coordinators
Corporate security
Mental health professionals
Human resources managers
Executive protection professionals

Professional credits:
American Psychological Association (APA)
Licensed psychologists
Certified Protection Professionals (CPP)
