The Pastoral Ministries Division is “Called by God, Sent to Serve”

Meet Mayra.
For her, CRS Rice Bowl means an education.

Mayra is 11 years old. She didn’t always like school. She was shy and didn’t always understand her math and reading lessons—or do her homework. Her teacher noticed, and invited Mayra to join a CRS-sponsored tutoring program. There, she could work with her classmate, Fabricio, to get a little extra help. Together, they practiced reading by writing stories. They made up games to practice math. And when they were done, they jumped rope and played in the neighborhood. Fabricio and Mayra became good friends. Now, Mayra is proud of her reading and math skills. She does her homework, comes to class on time and has new friends. One day, she wants to be a teacher. But first she will be a tutor so she can help her classmates—like Fabricio helped her. Visit crsricebowl.org to watch a video and learn more about Honduras.

For the last 30 years, the Social Action Summer Institute provides time for social justice ministers for learning, idea sharing, prayer, fellowship and action. Come to Chicago this July to hear national speakers from USCCB, CRS, Catholic Charities USA, JustFaith Ministries Roundtable and the Archdiocese of Chicago explore how Pope Francis calls us to Discipleship in the Year of Mercy and offer practical tips for parish social ministry. Join the delegation from the Archdiocese of Santa Fe! Scholarships available. For more information call Anne (see box) or go to www.catholicroundtable.org.

Quote of the Month from Pope Francis
"For all of us, then, the season of Lent in this Jubilee Year is a favorable time to overcome our existential alienation by listening to God’s word and by practicing the works of mercy. In the corporal works of mercy we touch the flesh of Christ in our brothers and sisters who need to be fed, clothed, sheltered, visited; in the spiritual works of mercy - counsel, instruction, forgiveness, admonishment and prayer - we touch more directly our own sinfulness."

Catholic Campaign for Human Development's Archdiocesan office in Albuquerque is looking for Catholics who have a passion for service and justice, to apply for a paid position, approx. 18-20 hours/week, $12/hr for Fall 2016 and Spring 2017. The internship is a great opportunity to learn more about social justice education, poverty relief, community development, economic development and Catholic social teaching. Job skills needed include bi-lingual, English/Spanish, good organizational skills, leadership experience, community service experience and effective writing and communication skills and computer skills. CCHD has a particular interest in helping low-income Catholics to participate in a practical learning experience that ordinarily would be out of their reach due to financial limitations. Applications can be requested by e-mail justice@archdiosf.org. Contact Anne (see box) for more information. Applications must be received by March 4. Don’t pass up this wonderful opportunity!

WORKING ON THE MARGINS

Thank you for participating in CRS Rice Bowl this Lent!
At the end of March, as we move into Holy Week and Easter, our Archdiocese has prayed, fasted and given alms with a special focus on the poorest members of our global community. Our lives were touched by stories from Columbia, Laos, Rwanda, Honduras, Madagascar, and the United States—the Archdiocese of Louisville’s project, “Centro Latino.” Through our Lenten prayers and donations, we have touched the lives of millions of people served by Catholic Relief Services, our representative to the poorest communities in the world. Remember, 25% of your contribution goes for local projects that alleviate hunger and homelessness in our Archdiocese.

Please return your Rice Bowl to your parish or school office immediately after Easter! Thank you for your generosity!

Catholic Care, Catholics Vote!
Every four years since 1976, the U.S. Catholic bishops have issued a major statement on political responsibility. In November of 2015, they approved “Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship: A Call to Political Responsibility.” You may be wondering, “What’s different about the 2015 statement? What’s the same?” In the words of the bishops, in the Introduction to the 2015 statement, the bishops write: “This document consists mainly of the statement adopted... in 2007, plus certain limited revisions by way of update...In particular, this version draws on the weight of papal teaching since the 2007 version of Faithful Citizenship, such as the later magisterium of Pope Benedict XVI and that of Pope Francis to date.” There are many resources to help you share the bishops’ statement available now, including the statement in English and Spanish; prayer and liturgy suggestions; handouts on conscience formation, civil dialogue, and contacting our elected officials; and a homily help. See www.faithfulcitizenship.org for more helpful tips!

Reflection for March 2016
“But to you who hear I say, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. Do to others as you would have them do to you... love your enemies and do good to them; then your reward will be great and you will be children of the Most High, for he himself is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.” Luke 6:27-28, 31, 35-36

“God’s mercy transforms human hearts; it enables us, through the experience of a faithful love, to become merciful in turn. In an ever new miracle, divine mercy shines forth in our lives, inspiring each of us to love our neighbor and to devote ourselves to what the Church’s tradition calls the spiritual and corporal works of mercy. These works remind us that faith finds expression in concrete everyday actions meant to help our neighbors in body and spirit: by feeding, visiting, comforting and instructing them. On such things will we be judged.” Pope Francis-Message for Lent 2016

Easter by Kovacs, Victoria. Little Bible Heroes, 2015—eBook
If your child loves hero stories, there's no better place to find them than the Bible! In these pages, learn about the first Easter and how Jesus died and rose again.

Lent with its intensified practices of prayer, self-denial, and almsgiving; provides us with the opportunity to "wash away the negligence of other times." But it is not a time to be dour and downcast. As Christians, we must keep in mind that Jesus was raised once and for all. St. Benedict reflects this point of view when he writes that while engaging in our Lenten practices, we should "look forward to holy Easter with joy and spiritual longing" and "with the joy of the Holy Spirit." The ageless wisdom of Benedict presented in this eBook will assist you in making your own Lenten practices less about "giving up" something, and more about "taking up" the good that God offers us in becoming more fully children of the Resurrection.

New Beginning, New Hope: Holy Week through Pentecost with Pope Francis by Francis, 2014—eBook
Pope Francis' first words as pope - his homilies and audiences from Holy Week through Pentecost - reflect his joy, compassion, and love for all people, which has captivated the world. The Pope's grace-filled perspective during this most hopeful season of the Church year will inspire and encourage you. But no matter what the season, the book will engage your spirit and help you live your Catholic faith, share the Good news, and make your own profound difference in the world.
