The Quest

You are going to read the beginning of a mystery story called The Quest.

A mystery story keeps the reader guessing. What will happen next?

The characters

Daeng is a fisherman. Lek is the boy who helps him.

The setting

The story is set in the Gulf of Thailand.

The beginning of the story is very mysterious. There are lots of things we do not know.

Daeng is a good fisherman but he does not want to go far out to sea to fish. He is worried.

What is he worried about?

Lek and Daeng go fishing. The net gets caught on something.

What is the net caught on? What will Daeng and Lek do?

Vocabulary

nouns: engine, monsoon, fortune-teller

verbs: sink, bought, caught adjectives: perfect, rough, expensive

The Water Cycle

You are going to read an explanation. It explains how water from rivers, lakes and seas:
• forms clouds. • falls as rain. • flows back to the sea.

The Water Cycle is a process. A process is how something happens.
When we explain a process we:
1. write things in the order they happen.
2. use the present tense.

Step 1: The sun heats up the water in rivers, lakes and the sea.
Step 2: When the water gets warm enough, it becomes water vapour. This is called evaporation.
Step 3: The water vapour is very light and it rises into the sky.
Step 4: When it is high in the sky, the water vapour meets cooler air.

Vocabulary
nouns: water vapour, evaporation, droplets verbs: condenses, forms, flows adjectives: warm, cooler, wispy
You are going to read the beginning of a story called Cliffhanger.

It is written in the first person.

A first person story is when the person who is writing the story is a character in the story. Tim is writing about when his father sent him on an adventure holiday.

The characters

- I knew I’d hate it.

  Tim is the person telling the story. He is in the story. He is nine years old. He likes watching television, drawing, reading and doing puzzles. He is very good at all his lessons. He doesn’t want to go on the adventure holiday.

- You can’t be serious!

  Tim’s Mum doesn’t want Tim to go on the adventure holiday. She thinks Tim is too young and it is dangerous.

- It will do him the world of good.

  Tim’s Dad was very good at cricket and football when he was a boy. He wants Tim to go on an adventure holiday.

- My heart had started thumping.

- He wouldn’t listen to me.

  In first person stories, the writer uses first person pronouns.

  - I didn’t say anything.

Vocabulary

- nouns: advert, screen, captain
- verbs: abseil, snorted, whiz
- adjectives: hopeless, tough, dusty
You are going to read a leaflet about an adventure park.

The leaflet:

- gives information.
- tries to persuade you to go.

The leaflet gives you information and tells you:

- what you can do.
- that the park is safe.
- about other facilities.

- mountain biking
- canoeing
- nature trails
- trained instructors
- safety equipment provided
- water-side cafe
- souvenir shop

The leaflet uses language to persuade you to visit.

amazing day out exciting activities something for everyone to enjoy

People have written to the Adventure Park to say how much they enjoyed it. The leaflet has some of these letters.

Thank you for a wonderful day at Woodland Adventure Park.

This was the best adventure day I have ever been on.

Vocabulary

nouns: facilities, activities, souvenir verbs: provided, canoed, contact adjectives: amazing, suitable, marvellous adverbs: certainly, heavily
5 The Mysterious Cupboard

You are going to read the beginning of a mystery story.

The setting of a story is where the story happens. Stories can have more than one setting.

In this story there are three settings.

Setting 1
Tina’s bedroom

Tina’s bedroom has …
- a bed
- a bookshelf
- a cupboard
- lots of boxes
It is painted ‘a cheerful yellow colour’.

Setting 2
In the cupboard/cave

In the cupboard it is very dark.
There are cobwebs.
At first the floor is hard and cold.
The floor becomes sandy.
It begins to get light.
The cupboard is now a cave!

Setting 3
On the beach

Outside the cave is a beach.
The sand is golden.
The sea is blue.
There are palm trees.

Vocabulary

nouns: muddle, cave, palm trees verbs: stack, knelt, propped open adjectives: battered, powdery
The Mystery of the Mary Celeste

You are going to read an interview. One person asks questions. Another person answers them.

The person asking the questions is the interviewer. John Brown is the interviewer. He asks the questions. He interviews interesting people on his radio programme.

The person who is interviewed is the interviewee. In this Unit, Professor Dent is the interviewee. He knows a lot about mysteries. He is answering questions about the Mary Celeste.

The Mary Celeste was a ship. It sailed on the Atlantic Ocean in the 19th century. It was found in the middle of the ocean. There was no one on board. Nobody really knows what happened.

When we write an interview, we set it out like a play.

John: Welcome, Professor Dent. You are here today to talk about the mystery of the Mary Celeste.

Professor: Yes, John. People have tried to guess what happened but nobody has ever solved the mystery. It is very interesting.

Vocabulary

nouns: masts, voyage, crew verbs: solved, signalled, discovered adjectives: interesting, unsolved
Daedalus and Icarus

You are going to read a short play.

The characters

Daedalus is a famous builder  Icarus is his son  the story teller

The plot

The narrator tells us that:

• the King of Crete asks Daedalus to build him a huge maze.
• when Daedalus finishes the maze, he wants to go home.
• the King will not let him.
• Daedalus and Icarus live in a tower and are watched when they go outside.

Scene 1  A room in the Tower

Icarus watches the birds flying. He wants to go home. Daedalus has an idea. He will make wings and they can fly away.

Scene 2  At the tower window and into the sky

Daedalus and Icarus make wings out of wax and birds’ feathers. They fly out of the tower. Icarus flies too near the sun. The wax melts and he falls out of the sky.

Stage directions

These are in brackets and italics.

(Daedalus: Putting his arm round the boy). They tell the actors what to do.

Vocabulary

nouns: maze, wax, spray verbs: solve, escape, soaring adjectives: famous, free, dangerous
8 Man on the Moon

You are going to read a newspaper report. It is a report about the first men to land on the Moon.

A newspaper report:
• uses the past tense. It is reporting what has happened.
  ‘Two American astronauts landed on the Moon …’
• has a good headline. It ‘grabs’ the reader’s attention.
• has the name of the person who wrote it. This is called a by line.
• has an opening paragraph which lets the reader know what the report is about.
• uses an illustration – drawing/photograph – to help readers see what the report is about.
• uses quotes. These are what people say.
  On the Moon one astronaut said: ‘The surface is fine and powdered.’

Man on the Moon
by John Barber

At 3.56 am today, July 21st, 1969, something that scientists once only dreamed about came true. Two American astronauts landed on the Moon in the spacecraft called the Eagle. They planted a flag and talked to the President by radio-telephone. Millions of people watched on television as the astronauts walked on the Moon’s surface, 240,000 miles away.

Vocabulary

nouns: astronaut, mankind, landscape verbs: shuffling, weighed, study adjectives: amazing, hazardous, courageous
You are going to read some poems about space.

Three of the poems are haikus. Haikus first came from Japan. A haiku is a poem which describes one thing. It does not rhyme. It has three lines.

Here is one of the haikus you will read in this unit.

Moonlight

Watch the shining moon
So bright in the midnight sky
A yellow round ball.

A haiku uses lots of adjectives.

- shining
- bright
- yellow
- round

Vocabulary

- nouns: space-man, wake, mission
- verbs: cruising, scorching
- adjectives: swifter, fiery, midnight
You are going to read part of a longer story.
The story is divided into chapters. You are going to read the first three chapters.

Main character
Jim was an explorer.
He left England to look for adventure.
He went to sea in a ship.

Setting
The story takes place on a mysterious, unknown island.

Plot

Chapter 1
The ship sank in a terrible storm.
Jim swam to a mysterious island.
He was exhausted when he reached it.

Chapter 2
Jim was the only survivor from the shipwreck!
He collected some things from the beach.

Chapter 3
Jim built a shelter.
Later, he found a map of the island.

Chapter 4
Next, Jim decided to explore the island!
You can decide how you want the story to continue!

Vocabulary

- nouns: shipwreck, panic, explorer, survivor
- verbs: staggered, shivering
- adjectives: mysterious, exhausted
You are going to read a report about Greece.

A report is a non-fiction text. It gives information or describes something.

First I collected some information from books. Next I wrote some short notes under different headings. Then I wrote my report from my notes.

I wrote the information in four paragraphs in my report.

Paragraph 1: Introduction
This contains some facts about Greece:

- its location
- its population
- its capital city

Do you know where Greece is? Guess how many people live in Greece. Do you know its name?

Paragraph 2: Landscape
This tells you what the land is like.

Did you know that about twenty per cent of Greece is made up of islands?

Paragraph 3: Industries
This contains some information about:

- tourism
- fishing
- farming

Paragraph 4: History
This contains some interesting facts about the history of Greece.

The Ancient Greek civilisation began 4,000 years ago. Do you know any historical places near you?

Vocabulary

nouns: report, headings, location, population

adjectives: ancient
Hello. My name is Kofi. I live in a small village in Uganda in Africa. The stream in my village is polluted. We can't drink the water.

Every morning, my friends and I walk a long way to a standpipe to fetch clean water.

One day my teacher asked me to invite Old man Awam to our school play. Old Man Awam is a tanner. He works in a tannery in the forest. He is bad-tempered. He doesn't like children. I saw him tipping some dirty liquid out of an oil drum into the stream. The smell was very nasty!

Vocabulary

nouns: stream, standpipe, tanner, tannery verbs: fetch, frowned, struggling, mumbling adjectives: polluted, bad-tempered, gloomy
Join World Watch

You are going to read a leaflet from World Watch. World Watch has worked for thirty years to make the world a better place. The leaflet gives you information about World Watch and tries to persuade you to join it.

First I list some of the problems of the world:

- pollution
- disappearing forests
- unclean water
- animals in danger

Next I tell you some things World Watch has done.

- prevented oil spills
- encouraged people to recycle
- protected wildlife
- reduced pollution

Then I tell you some things you get when you join World Watch.

We promise to make the world a better place. Have I persuaded you to join World Watch?

Vocabulary

nouns: leaflet, advice
verbs: persuade, recycle, prevented, reduced, encouraged, protected, promise
You are going to read part of a longer story. When you read a story, it can give you ideas for writing your own stories!

The main characters

Kate

her older brother, James

The plot

James made a fantastic machine - a three-dimensional enlarger.

It made things bigger, and it made things smaller, too.

James told Kate not to touch the machine.

Kate showed her friend Sara how the machine worked. Can you guess what happened? It made Kate very small!

What adventures do you think Kate will have? You can write a story about some of her adventures!

Vocabulary

nouns: shuddered, realised

adverbs: immediately

verbs: fantastic, three-dimensional, anxious
You are going to read information about television in two parts. The first part is a biography about John Logie Baird.

John Logie Baird loved experimenting. He invented the television.

Do you think television is good or bad? In the second part I give my opinion of television.

I give you my point of view and tell you what I believe.

Vocabulary

- nouns: opinion, point of view, advantages, disadvantages
- pronouns: several
- verbs: experimenting, blow up, believe
- adjectives: positive, fascinated
A night in the jungle

You are going to read part of a longer story. We can learn a lot about a person in a story:
• by what the author tells us about the character.
• by the way the author describes the character.
• by the things the character says.
• by the way the character behaves.

In the story there are two main characters:

Jeff

Old Mali, the guide

In the story, Old Mali and I spent a night in the jungle. We stopped for the night in a clearing.

We collected some soft moss and made our beds out of it.

We collected a pile of wood for a fire.

After supper, I tried to sleep. I felt very lonely. I was very frightened.

I thought that there were animals all around me. I jumped up with my knife and …

What have you learnt from this poster about Jeff? Read the story and find out more … and find out what happens at the end!

Vocabulary
nouns: guide, clearing, moss, supper, loneliness verbs: preceded adjectives: ashamed
How your ear works

You are going to read an explanation of how your ears work. When we write information it is important to explain things clearly. We can also use pictures and diagrams to help.

Look at the picture diagram of an ear. Can you work out where each word goes?

Vocabulary
nouns: nerve, balance, sound wave verbs: travel, vibrate, pluck adjectives: dizzy

Can you work out how your ear works? Try to explain it. Then read Unit 17 and check if you are right!
You are going to read some list poems. In a list poem you think of a subject and then write your ideas.

There are two list poems.

• The first list poem does not rhyme. Do you like the way it begins?

The Five Sense Shop

Do you know a shop that sells these things?

The smell of:
- pine trees in a forest,
- spices on a market stall.

Think of some more interesting things for the shop:

- the taste of …
- the sight of …
- the sound of …
- the feel of …

• The second list poem does rhyme. Do you like the way it begins?

The Sounds of the Night

Jump in bed,
Turn out the light,
Shut your eyes
Really tight.
Listen to the Sounds of the night.

A clinking noise – what can that be? someone making a cup of tea? My sister splashing about in the bath, Mum and Dad downstairs enjoying a laugh.

Which words rhyme in ‘The Sounds of the Night’ poem above?

Vocabulary

- nouns: bristles, window-pane
- verbs: sigh
- adjective: distant