About DOE

The Department of Energy's overarching mission is to advance the national, economic, and energy security of the United States; to promote scientific and technological innovation in support of that mission; and to ensure the environmental cleanup of the national nuclear weapons complex. The Department's strategic goals to achieve the mission are designed to deliver results along five strategic themes:

Energy Security: Promoting America's energy security through reliable, clean, and affordable energy

Nuclear Security: Ensuring America's nuclear security

Scientific Discovery and Innovation: Strengthening U.S. scientific discovery, economic competitiveness, and improving quality of life through innovations in science and technology

Environmental Responsibility: Protecting the environment by providing a responsible resolution to the environmental legacy of nuclear weapons production

Management Excellence: Enabling the mission through sound management

Within these themes there are sixteen strategic goals which are designed to help DOE successfully achieve its mission and vision.

DOE Job Search

Instead of filling out piles of paperwork, you now apply on-line through USAJOBS.gov. USAJOBS is your one-stop solution for applying and is available 24/7. The system will even email you notices when new DOE vacancies open.

How to Apply

If you have never applied for a federal job before, the following steps can make the application process easier and quicker. This process is for our regularly posted jobs.

Nine Steps to Applying

1. Go to www.usajobs.gov

2. Click on the "My USAJOBS" tab

3. Log in if you’re already registered with a USAJobs username and password. Or, click "Create your account now!"

4. Click "Resume and Create a New Resume" to input your job experience and other information. Then click "Save for Later".

5. Click "Search Jobs" tab.

6. Click on the link "Energy, Department of " (DOE) in the "Browse Careers by Agency" section to search all DOE jobs nationwide. Click on the "WA-Richland" in the Browse by Location" section to narrow the search to your local area.

7. On this same page scroll down to “Applicant Eligibility”. The radial button is defaulted to no. If you continue your search with the radial button to no, you will only see jobs that are open to the general public. Change the radial button to yes and you will see all vacancies open to current and or former federal employees as well as those open to the general public.

8. Click on a Job Announcement to learn about its duties, qualification requirements, and available locations. Pay close attention to the Who May Apply section of the Job Announcement.

9. When you’re ready to apply, scroll to the bottom of the Job Announcement and click "Apply Online". Select your saved resume and follow the prompts to complete the formal application.

Which Job to Apply For

Compensation for most federal jobs are based on the General Schedule (GS) level. There are 15 GS levels. You may view the Federal Government’s Salary ranges at http://www.opm.gov/oca/09tables/indexGS.asp

If you are looking for a vacancy with DOE in Richland, WA, the following is a description on how our vacancy announcements are named.

HANFORD-2011-01 (MP) or HANFORD-2011-01 (DEU)

- HANFORD = location
- 2011 = fiscal year
- 01 = vacancy number

MP = Job Announcement open to current or former federal employees, CTAP/ICTAP eligibles, Veteran Equal Opportunity Act (VEOA) eligibles, and 30% or more disabled veterans.

DEU = Job Announcement open to all U.S. Citizens, and those with Veterans Preference.

If you are a current or former federal employee or a CTAP/ICTAP eligible and you apply under the DEU vacancy, you will be considered for the position, however, veteran’s preference is applied to DEU job announcements, if veterans apply they receive preference over all other candidates. It is highly recommended that all current or former federal employees or CTAP/ICTAP eligible candidates apply under the MP Job Announcement.

If you have any questions regarding which job announcements to apply for, please contact the HR Office at 376-7380. We will be happy to assist you and provide further information.

How long it takes and how to check the status of applications

The actual time to hire differs with each vacancy, depending on the number of candidates who have applied to it. You can check on the status of your application by following these steps:

1. Log on to your USAJobs profile at www.usajobs.gov

2. Click on the MY USAJOBS tab

3. Once logged in, click on the tab MY APPLICATIONS and you will find all of your applications currently in process. You can see the application status on the far right for each job.

4. You can call the point of contact listed on the original vacancy announcement directly for specific information.

Since the volume of applying for government jobs is very high, we appreciate your patience as we take the necessary time to review all of our applications. As a general rule, you should allow a few weeks to pass after the closing date stated on the vacancy announcement, before initiating contact to discuss your status.

VERY IMPORTANT: Remember to keep a copy of the point of contact listed on the first page of the announcement for all jobs to which you apply. This will allow you to speak directly with someone about the status of your application.
