“Along the Trails”: A Montage

Examples of interpretive markers and roadway “trailblazer”...

Honor Your Ancestors and Help Tell Their Story

Upcoming Civil War Events in Alabama, Georgia, South Carolina

AL - “Reconstruction Tuscaloosa”
GA - Battle of Griswoldville
151st Anniversary
SC - Annual Symposium on Civil War History

Atlanta Campaign and March to the Sea Brochures
“Along the Trails…”

Examples of interpretive markers and roadway “trailblazer” signage in Georgia

Rome

Milledgeville

Macon

Jonesboro

Ringgold

near Swainsboro

Marietta

Decatur

Trenton
“…Along the Trails…”

Atlanta
Calhoun
Hillsboro

Louisville
near Gray
Madison

Covington
New Hope
Augusta
New interpretive markers on the Atlanta Campaign and/or March to the Sea Heritage Trails will be installed very soon at:

- Ogeechee Crossing (L20), Louisville
- Ivanhoe Plantation (L24), near Waynesboro
- Roberts House (L25), Waynesboro
- Big Buckhead Church (L26), near Millen
- Guyton General Hospital (R21)

...and MANY more! 😊
Many thanks to the following contributors who have recently donated to Civil War Heritage Trails℠ in order to honor their ancestors and help tell their story.

Deanna G. Craig:
Sergeant James Madison Malone, Company G ("Camden Knights"), 11th & 17th Consolidated Arkansas Infantry Regiment

Laura Mitchell:
Private Andrew J. Autry, Company E, 12th Georgia Infantry

Dr. Marshall P. Waters III:
Sergeant John Nicholas Waters, Company E, 27th Georgia Infantry

Beverly Moody:
Private John L. T. Morgan, Company E, 8th Georgia Cavalry

---

Honor Your Ancestors and Help Tell Their Story

Civil War Heritage Trails is a 501c3 non-profit organization supported through the generosity of many individuals, organizations and communities. This support is essential to telling the stories of the Civil War era throughout Georgia, Alabama and South Carolina. Now you have the opportunity to add your support and at the same time honor your Civil War era ancestor(s) who served and sacrificed so much.

For each $25 tax deductible donation, your name along with the name, rank and unit (if known) of one of your ancestors will be displayed in a future newsletter issue, and on our website for an entire year. You will also have the satisfaction of knowing the Civil War era history they helped to make will be told for present and future generations to discover throughout Georgia, Alabama and South Carolina.

To donate, go to our donor webpage. Please be sure to provide us with the name(s) and unit(s) of your ancestor(s).

If you prefer to donate by mail, please include your check and ancestor’s information, and address your envelope to:

Civil War Heritage Trails
POB 1864
Evans, GA 30809

Your name plus that of your ancestor(s) will appear in a future issue of our newsletter, and on our website for an entire year. A donation receipt will also be mailed to you for your tax purposes.

To send us this information by donating through Paypal or Credit Card, go to Civil War Heritage Trails

Questions: ContactUs@CivilWarHeritageTrails.org
Upcoming Events

Details about these and more Civil War era events can be found at www.CivilWarHeritageTrails.org

Alabama: “Reconstruction Tuscaloosa” - Thursday, November 12, 5:00 pm, Stillman College, 3601 Stillman Boulevard, Tuscaloosa AL. Dr. Guy Hubbs of Birmingham-Southern College will present a lecture on his recent publication, “Searching for Freedom after the Civil War: Klansman, Carpetbagger, Scalawag, and Freedman.” Admission: $5.00. 205-758-2238, www.historictuscaloosa.org/index.php?page=events

Georgia: Battle of Griswoldville 151st Anniversary Commemoration - Saturday, November 21, 10:00 am to 1:00 pm, Griswoldville Battlefield State Historic Site, near Macon GA. Learn about the hastily planned attempt by Georgia militia to halt Union General Sherman's March to the Sea in November 1864. Civil War soldier life portrayals and Union and Confederate encampments followed with a noon memorial service and battlefield tours. Directions: The battlefield is 10 miles east of Macon, and two mile southeast of the small community of Griswoldville. Follow brown directional signs or the Georgia Civil War Heritage Trails logoed “trailblazer” signs to the site. FREE admission; donations appreciated to help preserve this historic site. 478-986-5172, http://gastateparks.org/info/218354

South Carolina: The Annual Symposium on South Carolina Civil War History - Friday & Saturday, November 6 & 7, South Carolina Archives and History Center, 8301 Parklane Road, Columbia SC. You are invited to join us as we try to understand the role South Carolina and its citizens played in this tragic period of our history, the Civil War. This year's featured speaker is Dr. Lawrence S. Rowland on the topic “Where Reconstruction Began: Beaufort and the Civil War.” Other speakers and the title of their presentations are retired NPS historian Rick Hatcher on “Fort Sumter,” Allen Roberson and W. C. Smith on “The English Connection: The McRae Papers and the C. A. Huey Arms and Equipment Collection,” Karen Stokes on “Contemplating Desolation: Observations on Occupied Charleston,” Neil Baxley on “From Bay Point to Bentonville: The Military Career of Brigadier General Stephen Elliott,” Tom Elmore on “Potter's Raid” and Glenn Swain on “A Fine Looking Set of Men: the 7th SC Volunteers in the Maryland Campaign.” Following all speakers there will be private showing of Civil War arms and equipment. Registration (for both days): $60, Friday only $30, Saturday only $40. 803-896-6203, http://civilwarsymposium.palmettohistory.org/index.html