Positive Relationships = Less Behavior Challenges – Part 1
Presenters: Mary Hirsch, MFT, JFCS & Kathleen Kelley, MA  Learn how to implement Center for the Social and Emotional Foundations of Early Learning (CSEFEL) Pyramid Model. This hands on workshop will give you ideas to improve your relationships with children, families and coworkers.  Thurs, April 30 6:30-9:00

Effective Environments = Less Behavior Challenges – Part 2
Presenters: Megan Hede, Mentor Teacher, Owner Peek-A-Boo Playhouse and Kathleen Kelley, MA  Relationships are the foundation on which you build your program, now come learn how to improve transitions, circle times, small groups, all the places where things can fall apart using ideas from the CSEFEL Pyramid Model and Visual Strategies. We will make materials for you to use immediately.  Thursday, May 14th  6:30-9:00

Teaching Social and Emotional Skills=Less Behavior Challenges – Part 3
Presenters:  Tara Bailey, Early Intervention Specialist, BCP Consultant, ELI & Kathleen Kelley, MA  Now that you have strengthened the relationships in your program and improved your environment, your students are eager to learn how to problem-solve, handle strong feelings, and recognize and express their own feelings and those of others. You will learn tools from the Pyramid Model as well as Zones of Regulation. We will make materials for you to use immediately.  May 21st  6:30 – 9:00

To reserve a space go to www.sonoma4cs.org click “Providers” click “Provider Training Calendar” or call Sheila at 4Cs:  522-1413 x 156

Workshops include light refreshments, opportunity to network and connect.