CMS Announces Performance-Based Payment Options for Employment Services - States have the option to pay for employment outcomes based on averaged amount of time expected to take to complete the service and the cost per hour of service determined by the state. CMS would accept a payment structure that includes outcome payments for Discovery or Supported Employment Assessment Service and Report, or Job Development, Placement, Customized Employment Position, as a single unit of service as long as the service is time-limited, has a defined tangible outcome (such as a report or career plan in the first instance, or an actual job in the second).

FMI: CMS officials promised that formal guidance on these options will be issued soon. In the meantime, the presentation from the HCBS conference is available at http://www.nasddds.org/uploads/files/73c60c33-86aa-

National Council on Disability (NCD) paper entitled “Home and Community-Based Services: Creating Systems for Success at Home, at Work and in the Community” – this paper provides a literature review of research related to the size and nature of settings in which individuals with disabilities receive HCBS and the implications of those settings on individual outcomes. In addition, the paper reviews the broader context for HCBS policy and practice, examining developments stemming from civil rights litigation, federal legislative and regulatory changes and self-advocate perspectives.

As noted in the paper, “[s]etting size is but one of several variables that must be taken into consideration in any assessment and analysis of an individual’s quality of life. However, the data make it clear that individual and family-scale settings are significantly more likely to be community-based, while larger and congregate settings are likely to be institutional in nature.” The paper also notes that “[s]mall, personalized, settings increase opportunities for personal satisfaction, choice, self-determination, community participation, and feelings of well-being. Small settings are similarly associated with decreases in (1) the use of services, (2) feelings of loneliness, and (3) service-related personnel and other costs.”

The paper, attached, will be available on the NASDDDS website in addition to the NCD website at http://www.ncd.gov/publications/2015/02242015.
