Valentines Day Creative Writing #2

A. What’s the story? What story do you see in your mind when you look at the picture?

B. Let’s organize. Fill in the bubbles with your ideas for the story.

First

Next

Main Characters

Then

Finally

C. Now write your story. Use the ideas from your organizer.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________