Pastor’s Corner: Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Have you competed well; have you finished the race; have you kept the faith.”

- St. Paul’s Second Letter to Timothy (2TM 4:7)

“Quitters never win and winners never quit!”

- Every coach in America.

St. Paul urges Timothy to keep up the fight of faith in our second reading today. In the verse right before our reading, Paul tells Timothy: “Be self-possessed in all circumstances; put up with hardship; perform the work of an evangelist; fulfill your ministry.” In other words: Don’t Quit. Never stop trying. Souls are counting on you.

This verse is left out of our reading today. Its absence changes the meaning of the reading. It gives the impression that Paul’s race is an activity he does by himself, just between he and God. But Paul’s faith is not a private matter. Other people are depending on Paul to run the race: the faithful he supports, the unbelievers he preaches to, and fellow preachers like Timothy to whom he is writing. If Paul quits the race, he quits not only on God and himself, but on a whole lot of other people who need him to be the Apostle to the Gentiles.

People depend on us to stay in the race of faith. To live faithfully, charitably and courageously in Jesus is to have a positive effect on one’s environment, be it through the explicit Christian virtue that elevates our dignity and quality of life. Goodness cannot oppose itself. What is good for the individual in the eyes of God is good for the Church and vice versa. Therefore, what good we do as individuals always has an effect on the common good of the Church and humanity.

This week, remember not to quit on those who need you to run the race of faith. We run the race with total commitment and zeal, “So as to Win” (1Cor 9:24) so that others may be encouraged, by word and example to bring the faith more closely to Jesus Christ in the Most Blessed Sacrament and to Our Lady’s Rosary.

Fr. Steve Maekawa, OP – Pastor

AFTER MASS MINISTRY TALKS
Holy Family Cathedral invites community members to live their faith by participating in our ministry and fellowship groups. A presentation will follow the 7:30, 9:30 and 12 noon Masses in the Ministry Center. There will be a 10-minute theological presentation by one of the priests and a 5-minute presentation of how the particular topic is manifested in the parish. In the remaining 15-minutes, ministry groups associated with the Sunday topic will introduce themselves and say a few words about their ministry. The topic of the week will be briefly addressed in the homily at all the other Masses.

MINISTRY FAIR
October 29 and 30
Over the past six weeks, you have been learning about the theological and practical aspects of the more than 37 ministries at the Cathedral.

Come to the Parish Hall after all Masses next weekend, except the 6PM Mass. Visit with ministry heads and find one or more ministries that fit your interest and talents and GET INVOLVED! Your commitment is only as long as it works for you! You might decide to change to another ministry after a few months.

The Fair includes food and door prizes. The Knights of Columbus will offer a free breakfast after the 9:30AM and noon Masses.
