178 - NAVAL LUGER PISTOL
A scarce and desirable Imperial German model 1908 Naval Luger, 6" 9mm cal. barrel without serial number or proof marks. The foresight has imperial crown proof mark. The chamber is without date and marked on the side with correct double crown over M proof marks and single pentagon crown. The toggle is marked DWM and the rear section 100 for the correct adjustable to 200m rear sight. The frame with serial number with L suffix and marked M/324 (Naval Unit mark) on the rear of the frame above the lanyard ring. The side plate and take down lever are correctly numbered on the underside and match the main number. The rear bar and magazine are mismatching numbers. The magazine is the correct Naval type with concentric circles on the edges. Metalwork is retaining most blue finish thinning on the edges and grip straps. Straw colours are still present. VGC checkered wooden grips, includes its correct Naval black leather holster with Naval mark on the inside of the flap as well as makers mark below and missing the straps. The inside of the frame has a 1921 DWM inspection mark on the inside, this leads us to believe this gun has most likely been reworked during the Weimar Republic period. VGO&W&C B/CLR

179 - ARTILLERY LUGER PISTOL AND RIG
A very fine example of a WWI Imperial German Artillery model LP08 semi automatic pistol with rig, 8" 9mm cal. barrel with fine tuning adjustments on both the front and fully adjustable rear sight. The chamber is dated 1917 and the toggle marked DWM. Metalwork retains near all of the original bright blue over the gun with only slight wear on the side plate and stock lugs. Straw and fire blue colours are also bright. Right hand side of the receiver marked with acceptance marks and testing proof which is also on the barrel. All external numbers on the gun are matching except the magazine which is the correct type and in ExC. Original chequered wooden grips in ExC and the wooden board stock is correct type but with non matching number to the gun. The left hand side bears an "A" gothic letter inspection stamp and also is inscribed with the German soldiers name. The stock is complete with its original leather shoulder strap and toe cover. The holster is in ExC and is marked POSE BERLIN 1917. The original leather magazine pouch's markings are difficult to make out but appear to be 'RICHTER????S??? 1916. Also included is its type two 'snail drum' magazine with near all original blue finish plus the original cleaning rod & stripping tool. The artillery lugers were the most sought after trophies of our soldiers during The Great War and are seldom found in this top condition and complete form. ExWO&C B/CLR
