The Confession of Sin and Supplication for Grace

Minister and People

Almighty Father, You are the source of every good and perfect gift. We praise Your name for the greatest and most perfect gift: Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. But in lifting Him up, we humble ourselves before You. We confess to You, not only our sins of omission in failing to do what we know is right, but also our sins of commission in doing what You forbid. O Lord, we are weak and feeble, slow to confess our sins and prone to wander from the path of righteousness. Do not deal with us as our sins deserve, but wash us clean in the blood of the Lamb and empower us by Your Spirit to live to honor and serve our Savior King. We praise You that He was born like us that we might become like Him.

The Scriptural Assurance of Pardon

Luke 1:68, 69; Matt. 1:21

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for He has visited us and accomplished redemption for His people. He has raised up a horn of salvation for us. You shall call His name Jesus, for it is He who will save His people from their sins.
The Receiving of Tithes and Offerings

The Offertory Anthem \(\text{STILL, STILL, STILL}\) arr. Ledger

Still, still, still, let all the world be still. For Mary lays her son to rest, sings to him softly at her breast, still, still, still, let all the world be still. Sleep, sleep, sleep, my dearest baby sleep. The angels all rejoice and sing, heav’n for your delight shall ring, sleep, sleep, sleep, my dearest baby sleep. Joy, joy, joy, my heart is filled with joy! The God of love has left his throne, made this humble world his own, joy, joy, joy, my heart is filled with joy!

And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be taxed. (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.) And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:) To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child. And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn. And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men. And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us. And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child. And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

Luke 2:1-20 (King James Version)
Christmas is a time for stories. When I was a boy, our family would gather on Christmas Eve by the fire’s warmth and hear the story of Santa’s coming with toys: “Twas the night before Christmas and all through the house / not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse.” I always liked that story, because I got its message: the sooner I got to bed the sooner I would be opening presents!

The Santa Claus story endures because its point is simple and attractive: be a good girl or boy and get ready for great toys on Christmas morning!

Christians tell a better story and receive a better gift. But is the basic story clear and simple in our minds? For all its profound and glorious depths, Christmas is the story of God fulfilling his promise to send a Savior from heaven to earth. Mary sang, “[The Lord] has helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy, as he spoke to our fathers, to Abraham and to his offspring forever” (Lk. 1:54-55). The story was clear in her mind: A faithful God’s most precious gift, a Savior who came from heaven to earth.

From heaven, to earth: this is the salvation message celebrated by Christmas. The biblical hope is not the ascent of man up to God. Rather, it is the story of God coming to man, God descending from heaven to earth, and God shining light into our darkness so that man on earth might receive a Savior from heaven. This is a simple message, but how revolutionary are its implications! All other religions work from earth to heaven. They are all attempts at “the ascent of man.” In glorious contrast, the Christmas gospel teaches the descent of God with saving grace. From heaven, to earth! This is the simple story of Christmas.

This Christmas, we should make every effort to tell others this simple Christmas story. Christmas says that God’s love came from heaven to earth in the person of His only begotten Son (Jn. 3:16). Christmas says that God has a most precious gift – the gift of heavenly life – as a free present to all who believe in Jesus. Christmas says that we are saved not because of what we have done for God – that would be a gift from earth to heaven – but because of what God has done for us. Christmas says there is a new beginning, a new life, for everyone who comes in faith to the child who was born, the Son who was given, the Savior who is Christ the Lord.

As I approach our first Christmas in South Carolina, I thank God for the wonderful gifts He has already given me. God has given me the free gift of His saving grace. God has given me His own Son, to die for my sins and to offer me resurrection life. God has given me the Holy Spirit and the Holy Scriptures, so that I can live in the light of His glory. Along with my entire family, I also thank God that He has given us the gift of serving and participating in the life of this dearly beloved church. What a gift you have all been to us! We praise the Lord for the love and support you have extended to us during these first months of my ministry at Second Church. We so look fortward to our first Christmas together with you, as we join in celebrating the greatest gift that came from heaven to earth, the Savior who delivers us from our sin (Mt. 1:21).

May the Lord bless you all this joyous Christmas week.

In Christ’s Love,
Pastor Rick Phillips

To Our Covenant Family

Year by year we see our Lord’s faithfulness to us displayed as an intricately woven tapestry. The threads of your lives and families are masterfully blended with ours under His sovereign hand. Different colors, different yarns, some long, some short, all chosen by the Master, follow His Divine plan. Sometimes we are so close to the pattern that we cannot see its beauty, but the Master never makes a mistake. Jenny and I and our family give praise often to our Lord for bringing us here and blessing us with your friendship and fellowship. We are joyful in excited anticipation of the things the Lord Jesus is doing in our midst. The scores of babies, young children, young adults, and all our older members are living testimony to God’s covenant faithfulness, generation upon generation. We are thankful for the many new members and families the Lord has brought into our fellowship in the past few years. But we are also grateful for those who have been a covenant family here for decades. We pray that our Lord will bless you and your family in old ways and new ways in the coming year.

In His Service,
Robert and Jenny

Make a joyful shout to the Lord, all you lands! Serve the Lord with gladness; come before His presence with singing. Know that the Lord, He is God; It is He who has made us, and not we ourselves; we are His people and the sheep of His pasture. Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise. Be thankful to Him, and bless His name. Psalm 100: 1-4
