ARTICLE 1: PURPOSE

The Court of the Church next higher than the Session is the Presbytery. It is the essential court of the Presbyterian system in administering its general order. The higher courts, General Synod, etc. are constituted simply by a wider application of the general principles of the Presbytery. The precedent for this Court is found in the example of the Apostolic Church. The name is scriptural, derived from the Greek of the New Testament.

ARTICLE II: AUTHORITY AND RESPONSIBILITIES

A. The Presbytery shall have as its primary responsibility the initiation, planning, organization and administration of programs designed to enable it to carry on the mission of God in Christ’s Church by work and deed in the Presbytery and also in the local congregations, the General Synod and the whole world.

B. In order to carry out its responsibilities, the Presbytery has power: (a) To enforce the lawful injunctions of the higher courts, (b) To receive, hear, resolve, and decide references, appeals, and complaints according to constitutional procedures, including questions of doctrine or discipline. (c) To advise and to assume original jurisdiction for adjudication on matters from church sessions where their authority cannot be exercised. (d) To review and approve or censure the records of sessions and to require their correction, to redress anything contrary to order, and to take effectual care for the observance of the Constitution of the Church. (e) To unite, divide, organize, dissolve, receive, dismiss, and transfer congregations. (f) To hold, dispose, and supply the properties of dissolved congregations at its discretion. (g) To approve or disapprove the buying, selling, mortgaging, or leasing of any real property by a congregation over which the Presbytery may have control or jurisdiction. (h) To inquire into the condition of the congregations under its care, correcting, and advising in any matter and taking special oversight of congregations without pastors by appointing moderators of sessions, supplying preaching and other ordinances of worship for congregations without pastors. (i) To receive under its care students of theology as candidates for the ministry. (j) To examine and approve candidates for the ministry. (k) To ordain, install, receive, dismiss, remove, and try ministers of the Gospel, requiring ministers to devote themselves diligently to their sacred calling and censuring the delinquent. (l) To examine and approve calls and changes in terms of calls. (m) To establish the pastoral relation and to dissolve it at the request of one or both of the parties, or at its own discretion. (n) To direct the labors of ministers who have no pastoral charge. (o) To establish and direct mission work within its bounds. (p) To institute and superintend the agencies necessary for its work and to concert measures for the enlargement of the Church within its bounds. (q) To consider and pass upon all proposed measures referred to it by the General Synod which would change the established order of doctrine and government of the Church. (r) To propose to the General Synod such measures as may be of common advantage to the whole Church. (s) In general, to take whatever action may be necessary for the spiritual welfare of the congregations under its care and for the extension of the Kingdom of Christ.

C. The Presbytery shall: (a) Keep full and accurate records of its proceedings and submit annually such records to the General Synod for inspection and review. (b) Report annually its proceedings to the General Synod with details in reference to: (1) Students of theology received. (2) Ordinations, installations, and dissolutions, unions, and divisions of congregations, and the receiving and transferring of congregations within the General Synod. (3) Election, ordination, and installation of ruling elders. (4) Deaths of ministers, ruling elders, deacons, and members. (5) The receiving and dismissing or members. (6) Condition and progress of work within its bounds. (7) In general, all of the important business that has been transacted and changes that have taken place during the year. (c) Issue a certificate of standing to a minister upon valid application. Such certificate shall not be valid for more than one year.
ARTICLE III: ORGANIZATION

First Presbytery includes those Associate Reformed Presbyterian Churches within the geographical bounds of the Presbytery (at present in North Carolina). The membership shall consist of all ministers of the Presbytery and at least one Ruling Elder from the Session of each church. Every congregation whose active communicant membership exceeds four hundred in number shall be represented by two Ruling Elders and shall be entitled to one additional Ruling Elder for each additional four hundred active communicants.

b. It shall examine the credentials and standing of Ministers transferring into the Presbytery and shall report to the Presbytery whether or not they are in order. Ministers seeking transfer shall not be presented to the full presbytery until the Candidates and Examinations Committee believes them to be acceptable candidates.

c. If a minister wishes to transfer into First Presbytery who was ordained by a non-Presbyterian body, the Candidates and Examinations Committee shall make a determination as to whether to recommend the candidate for re-ordination or not, at which time the presbytery shall decide how to proceed.

d. The Stated Clerk shall provide a Manual of Procedure of First Presbytery for each minister transferring into the Presbytery.
3. CONCERNING MINISTERS TRANSFERRING WITHIN THE PRESBYTERY:

It shall examine the call to ensure that it meets the requirements of Appendix 3. It may act as a commission to approve a call from a congregation in First Presbytery or an agency of the General Synod to a member in good standing of First Presbytery, providing that the call meets all requirements set forth in Appendix 3.

4. CONCERNING CHURCHES AND MINISTERS ENTERING TENT-MAKING OR PART-TIME RELATIONSHIPS

a. Purpose:

To provide a procedure for ministers and churches desiring to enter into tent-making or part-time relationships.

b. Definitions:

i. Tent-making does not refer to a full-time minister who with the permission of his session spends only a minor part of his time in employment other than his church-related responsibilities.

ii. The term tent-making ministry includes part-time ministries.

iii. A tent-making minister is one whose working hours are more or less equally divided between serving a congregation in any ministerial capacity and working in another capacity of employment in order to obtain a total income necessary to provide a living for himself and his family.

iv. A tent-making ministry that is self-initiated by a minister and that does not involve a call from a church is to be considered labor outside the ecclesiastical bounds of the Presbytery and shall be excluded from these provisions.

c. Policies and Guidelines

i. Before a church and a minister may enter into any tent-making relationship, the call must be approved by the Presbytery.

ii. The terms of call for a tent-making relationship must specify the number of hours in which the minister is expected to labor in his church-related responsibilities and the total number of hours in which he may labor in any other capacity of employment. Any change in these terms must receive the approval of the Presbytery.

iii. In tent-making relationships, First Presbytery’s minimum compensation package shall be prorated according to the amount of time the minister is expected to labor in his church-related responsibilities. For example, if a minister is called for half-time work, one-half of the minimum terms shall apply.

iv. Insurance and retirement consideration:

(A). A tent-making minister must be employed by a church for at least thirty hours a week in order to be eligible for Synod’s insurance program. If it is available, and he so desires, he may seek coverage under a program carried by his non-church employer.

(B). A tent-making minister must be employed by a church for at least twenty hours a week in order to be eligible for Synod’s retirement program. If a minister qualifies for this program, the church should pay the required amount into Synod’s plan, and this should be included in the call.

v. Any reference in this policy to another employer should be understood to apply equally to self-employment.

vi. All provisions of this policy shall apply when conditions within a congregation make it necessary for a relationship to be changed from full-time to tent-making.

5. CONCERNING CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY:

COMING UNDER CARE

a. a. It shall examine men who ask to be taken under the care of the Presbytery as students of theology as to their Christian character, their conviction of being called of God to the ministry, their qualifications and their saving relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ. The candidate will normally be expected to give before Presbytery a testimony of his personal relationship to Christ and his reasons for desiring to be received, as a part of a recognition service. A candidate must be enrolled in or a recent graduate of a graduate program (Master of Divinity) at a school approved by the Presbytery.

It is expected that a student will seek to come under care by the end of his middler year of studies at the latest (roughly 2/3 through his program of studies) – preferably sooner. Should a student seek to come under care later in his studies, the Candidates and Examinations Committee may require that he remain under care for a minimum of six months prior to a licensure exam in order to allow the presbytery enough time to sufficiently evaluate his qualifications and call. Students under the care of another presbytery (ARP or other) may be received by transfer under the status of a student if the Committee approves them. Students from another presbytery (ARP or other) who have completed their studies and have been extended a call from a congregation in First Presbytery may simply be examined for licensure and ordination without coming under care if the Committee so desires.

b. It shall appoint annually (12-month term, July-June) a Student Liaison to work with students under care. The Student Liaison shall be a minister in good standing of the Presbytery; if he is not currently serving on this committee, he shall serve as a non-voting advisory member of the committee. The Student Liaison is meant to assist and facilitate the work of the committee and in particular the chairman in keeping up with students under care. The Student Liaison shall work with each student in coordination with the committee, and shall:

1. Contact them 3-4 times annually to stay up to date on their academic progress as well as their other needs and plans. Contact should be face to face when possible. A written report shall be given on each student to the committee 4 weeks prior to the spring and fall stated Presbytery meetings.

2. Help to arrange their preaching schedule in coordination with the chairman of this committee as needed.

3. Help to set up their written exam proctoring in coordination with the chairman of this committee as needed.

4. Help to arrange the grading of the written exam if requested by the committee.

c. It shall keep a careful check on the scholastic records of the candidates as needed and in keeping with privacy laws.

d. It shall report to the Presbytery the progress of each student at the spring stated meeting of Presbytery.

FIELD WORK

e. It shall cooperate with the seminary’s Director of Field Work (or similar position) in seeking field work for the students as fits the student’s schedule and also meets the requirements of the seminary they attend.

f. It shall be responsible for having each student preach twice for Presbytery. The committee shall work with the student on selecting a text for each sermon, and shall require the student to submit to the Committee the manuscript of his sermon at least 2 weeks before the meeting of presbytery at which he is to preach. One sermon shall be from an Old Testament text and the other from a New Testament text (in either order).

The middler sermon will give evidence of his developing gifts, and shall be preached before the Committee after the student has taken at least the first course in preaching or homiletics. The student shall submit to the committee (1) a 3-5 page exegetical study on the passage, and (2) a manuscript of the sermon itself. The Committee on Candidates and Exams shall function as a commission of Presbytery to decide whether the middler sermon is acceptable as evidence of their progress. If not, they may ask the student to preach again.

The senior sermon will be delivered at a stated meeting and will be considered by the Presbytery as part of the trial for licensure. The student shall submit (1) a 3-5 page exegetical study on the passage and (2) a manuscript of the sermon itself to the committee. The sermon should not exceed 20 minutes in length (though the presbytery may further limit the length as needed). After the sermon, a pastor designated by the committee will lead the suggestions and criticisms of the sermon. If the trials for licensure are sustained, the Moderator shall lead the service of licensure (FOG X C 8-9).

WRITTEN & ORAL EXAMINATION

g. When a student candidate is ready to be examined in the areas of English Bible, church history and government (polity), theology, and pastoral care, he will request examination by the committee. The student will take the written exam in the above subject areas, completing it at least one week prior to meeting with the committee (the committee shall arrange a proctor and schedule for the student to take the written exam as they deem best). A grade of 80% in each subject area shall be necessary to pass; if a student scores lower than that on any section, he may retake that section as arranged by the committee. A section may only be retaken once. He will then meet with the committee for an oral exam in which briefer questioning shall occur for clarification of his answers or views. Reasonable accommodations shall be made for those who do not speak English as their first language. If the committee passes the candidate, they will arrange for him to be examined briefly on the floor of Presbytery primarily in theological views and will lead the exam that is representative of the committee exam. (FOG X C 3; D 2 b (1-4)). If the committee does not think the student ready, they will not present him to Presbytery.

h. The Stated Clerk shall provide a Manual of Procedure of First Presbytery for each student in paper or electronically

6. CONCERNING EXCEPTIONS TO THE STANDARDS

a. Candidates for licensure and ministers seeking membership in the Presbytery will let it be known to the Candidates and Examinations Committee whether they hold to any exceptions to the Standards. They will then provide the Committee with a written statement on biblical and theological grounds upon which the exceptions are held and in what circumstances and manner the exceptions would be taught.

b. The Candidates and Examinations Committee shall inform the Presbytery as part of its presentation and written report: The exceptions taken by a candidate, and the exact reference in the Standards; the biblical and theological grounds on which the exceptions are held by the candidate; the Committee’s recommendation on whether or not the exception should be accepted and may be taught.

c. Presbytery then makes the final determination whether a man’s exceptions are acceptable or not. In any case, the candidate’s or minister’s statement shall be recorded in the minutes of Presbytery.

2. Candidates for the ministry under the care of the First Presbytery shall be graduates of an accredited college.

3. Candidates for the ministry under the care of First Presbytery who matriculate with the desire to be ordained by the Presbytery, i.e.,:
   a. candidates enrolled by the Presbytery,
   b. candidates who transfer to First Presbytery from other Presbyteries within the ARP Church, and
   c. candidates who transfer to First Presbytery from non-A.R. Presbyterian communions, shall be required to pass an objective test administered by the Candidates and Examinations Committee which shall include Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church History, Polity, Systematic Theology, Bible, and Worship and Sacraments.

4. Candidates for the ministry under the care of First Presbytery for ordination must be graduates from a seminary approved by the American Association of Theological Schools.

5. Candidates coming from another judicatory (whether from within or outside of our denomination) will follow these guidelines if they become candidates for the ministry under our care.

6. Candidates shall be required to attend one stated meeting of Presbytery each year unless providentially hindered.

7. The candidate will preach twice before Presbytery. The committee on Candidates and Examinations shall work with the student, his Minister-Sponsor, faculty advisor or homiletics professor on selecting a text for each of these sermons, with one being from an Old Testament passage and one from a New Testament passage, and shall require the student to submit to the Committee the manuscript of his sermon at least 4 weeks before the meeting of presbytery at which he is to preach. The first sermon will give evidence of his developing gifts. The second sermon will be delivered at a stated meeting and will be considered by the Presbytery as part of the trial for licensure. After the sermon, the student’s minister sponsor will lead the considerations (suggestions and criticisms) of the Presbytery. If the trials for licensure are sustained, the moderator shall lead the service of licensure (FOG X C 8-9).

8. Candidates in their final year of seminary shall prepare a statement of their faith which shall be sent to the Committee at least one month before they preach before Presbytery.

9. Candidates shall inform Presbytery, in writing, through the Stated Clerk, of their desire for Licensure and/or ordination at least one month prior to the time for such services to be held.

13. A Candidate that has been licensed has fulfilled all the requirements for ordination except having a call to a congregation or approved ministerial labor. The time of his probation (i.e., after being licensed) is especially designed for him to exhort and lead in ministry so that the church may see his gifts in action to the end that he be called to a particular ministry (FOG XC 8-11).

APPENDIX 6 POLICY CONCERNING THE ETHICAL RELATIONSHIPS
OF A MINISTER TO HIS FORMER FIELD OF LABOR

1. When Presbytery dissolves the pastoral relationship, that pastoral relationship is dissolved. Only the person duly installed by Presbytery is authorized to perform pastoral services among a particular congregation.

2. For a Pastor or Associate Pastor to return to a former parish to perform pastoral services for the people, when they have another person as their pastor, is for him to show lack of taste and disregard for the minister who is there. The same is true for continued attendance at congregational functions, continued visiting among the congregation, or in the hospitals.

3. If he does return to assist in pastoral services, such as weddings, baptisms or funerals, it should be at the invitation of the pastor who is on the field, or the Session if a pastor is not on the field.

4. In this connection, the people are urged to give consideration to the pastor on the field, whom they have called; and to give him due respect by calling upon him to perform these services.

5. When a minister is released from his pastoral charge by First Presbytery, the Stated Clerk of First Presbytery shall send a copy of these relationships both to him and to the Clerk of the Session of the local church from which the pastoral relationship was dissolved in order that we may all be reminded to give respect to those who succeed us.

That the balance of the fund be maintained at a minimum of $100,000.00, and that 75% of the previous year’s annual earnings be utilized for fund requests as needed each year and 25% be preserved towards the growth of the fund.

2. That each individual receiving assistance from the fund be endorsed by his local church session and approved as a candidate for the ministry by First Presbytery.

4. The candidate, after completing studies at Erskine Seminary, is to serve a pastorate or other ministry in the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church and prosecute it fully and zealously for five years; in that event he will not be required to repay any of the scholarship funds or interest thereon. If the full five years are not given in service to the A.R. Presbyterian Church, the Presbytery may require that the individual repay with interest the amount pertaining to those years, or portions of years, not served.

Addendum: It should be understood that interest derived from the First Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church of Charlotte, North Carolina Educational Fund is to be used for the purpose of providing tuition and/or educational support for seminary students at Erskine Theological Seminary who are candidates for the Master of Divinity degree. If unused funds are available, such funds may be used, in order of priority, to: (a) provide tuition and/or educational support for Erskine Seminary students enrolled in other post-graduate professional academic degrees offered by Erskine Theological Seminary; (b) provide tuition (only) for Doctor of Ministry degree candidates at Erskine Seminary; and, (c) provide financial assistance to facilitate Continuing Education programs conducted by Erskine Theological Seminary within the bounds of First Presbytery.

Eligibility for financial assistance for any other post-graduate professional academic degree offered by Erskine Theological Seminary requires that a person shall have been an active member of an Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church of First Presbytery or a member in good standing of First Presbytery for one year. Said recipient for tuition or financial assistance must have the endorsement of the candidate's session or governing board under which the candidate is serving and the endorsement of First Presbytery’s Committee on the Minister and His Work.

Once the committee has approved release of the funds, the chairman shall send a written notice forthwith to the treasurer of presbytery authorizing payment of funds. The candidate and the Seminary Financial Aid Office also shall be sent written notice of the amount of funding approved by the committee for the candidate.

III. SCHOLARSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

3. At maturity, subject to paragraph 5 below, the note shall be renewed, at option of the candidate, and a new note executed for principal of the matured note, interest on the matured note, and any additional loan which may be authorized, under conditions of paragraphs 1 and 2.
4. At maturity, the second note shall be subject to renewal under terms set forth in paragraph 3. Funding shall not be provided for repeated courses nor in the event that the candidate fails to complete the prescribed courses within the normal time allotted as deemed appropriate by Erskine Theological Seminary or First Presbytery’s Committee on Candidates & Examinations.
5. No note shall be renewed if the candidate ceases to be a student or discontinues studies at Erskine Theological Seminary. Any amount due at the time the candidate ceases to be a student or discontinues studies shall become payable in full at the date of maturity. In the event such note is not paid when due, the student may negotiate with representatives of the endowment for a term note, at Bank of America prime rate, providing for payment in full in not more than three years, with annual equal payments from date of note to maturity. Should the candidate re-enter the Seminary, the note may be re-negotiated, and any interest paid adjusted to rates set forth in paragraph 2.
6. At maturity of the note (immediately following the graduation of student) a term note shall be executed payable in five equal installments, with interest at rates set forth in paragraph 2.
7. Presbyterian denomination or is employed by the A.R. Presbyterian General Synod, one of its presbyteries, or one of its agencies, including Erskine College and Erskine Theological Seminary. No interest shall accrue on any installment waived under provisions of this paragraph. If the individual should cease to be employed as described herein, and become employed in other work, the existing balance of this term note at that time shall become due and payable. A new note may be executed, under conditions and terms as provided in paragraph 5 and shall be prorated on the basis of full months served.
8. Any notes issued under the terms of this instrument shall be signed by the candidate, and, if married, by the candidate's spouse. If the student is a minor, the note shall be co-signed by one parent of the candidate.
9. If a candidate for the Doctor of Ministry degree or any other degree is removed from the membership roll of First Presbytery, that candidate shall cease to receive funds upon the completion of the semester in which the candidate was removed from the roll of First Presbytery.
10. Any scholarship assistance given to Erskine D.Min. candidates shall be for tuition costs only and may provide up to one hundred percent (100%) of tuition costs, based upon available funding, as determined by the Committee on Candidates & Examinations.
11. The provisions of these administrative procedures shall be retroactive to September 1, 2000.

Policy Statement and Overview

The Presbytery recommends to the sessions of its churches that Ministers of the Word and Sacrament be granted a compensated sabbatical of at least three (3) months after four (4) to seven (7) years of service to an individual church. A sabbatical is intended for the mutual benefit and growth of both the minister and the congregation. The timing for the sabbatical is an important consideration and should be determined in the light of and be compatible with, the congregation's present needs and programming. Therefore, the exact timing, its funding, and pastoral care for the congregation during the sabbatical is to be approved by the session in consultation with the minister and the Presbytery’s Minister & His Work Committee. The guidelines of this policy include the following key points:

1. This policy is for full-time ministers; but it may be used at the discretion of churches as a guide for other educators, workers & employees.
2. Eligibility for a sabbatical begins after the fourth year in a particular ministry.
3. Sabbaticals should be granted before the eighth year in a particular ministry.
4. Sabbaticals are to be three consecutive months in duration and are to be in addition to vacation, continuing education and speaking engagement provisions of the call.
5. Sabbaticals are to be taken only after a plan prepared by the minister in consultation with the session has been submitted to the session and a copy provided to the Minister & His Work Committee of the Presbytery.
6. Pulpit supply and pastoral care during the sabbatical is to be approved by the Presbytery. Funding for the interim care is the responsibility of the local church.
7. Ministers returning from a sabbatical are to make a report of the sabbatical to the session, congregation, and the Minister & His Work Committee of the Presbytery.
8. Churches are to provide payment of salary and all benefits to the minister for the duration of the sabbatical.

Rationale

The purpose of a sabbatical (derived from the word “Sabbath”) is to enable a minister to be renewed through an extended time away spent in spiritual formation and rest, the vital pursuit of continuing education, and/or receiving fresh mentoring by respected teachers. A sabbatical enables a minister to return to the responsibilities of the ministry with new energy, spiritual vision, and effectiveness. Sabbaticals give congregations an opportunity to minister to their minister, an opportunity to develop greater congregational involvement in the ministry of the church and an opportunity to assess the current strengths and weaknesses of their congregational labors. Sabbaticals also have the potential benefit of guarding against unnecessary ministerial changes which often occur when a pastor and/or a congregation believe that such a change is the only way to achieve a “fresh start.”

Responsibilities

Minister & His Work Committee

1. Review the sabbatical timetable and usage plan as submitted by the minister.
2. Serve as mediator in any concerns of session or minister relative to the sabbatical.
3. Appoint a moderator of the session for the length of the sabbatical after consultation with the session and report the appointment to the Presbytery.
4. Counsel with the session about stated supplies. Stated supplies are to be approved by the Presbytery.
5. Encourage retired ministers and those ministers laboring outside the bounds of the Presbytery to receive special training in interim pastoral care and to be available to serve in such capacities in churches whose ministers are away on sabbatical.

Minister

1. Bring the sabbatical proposal before the session a minimum of six months before the intended commencement of the sabbatical.

2. Secure the approval of the session for the sabbatical proposal and work with the session on a plan for the necessary coverage of pastoral and pulpit responsibilities.

3. Bring up to date all pending responsibilities as determined in consultation with the session before departing on a sabbatical.

4. Submit to the Minister & His Work Committee in writing the sabbatical timetable and outline of plans.

5. Upon return, present an overview of the sabbatical experience to the session, congregation, and the Minister & His Work Committee.

Session Responsibilities

1. Receive “for approval” the minister’s proposal for a sabbatical, at least six (6) months in advance of the intended commencement of the sabbatical.

2. Grant approval of the finalized plan no later than three (3) months in advance of the intended commencement of the sabbatical.

3. Consult with the Minister & His Work Committee about a temporary moderator of session and about stated supplies.

4. Continue terms of call commitments to the minister during sabbatical leave.

5. Communicate to the congregation the importance and values to the church of a sabbatical.

6. Request a written overview of the sabbatical from the minister upon return.
APPENDIX 13  POLICY STATEMENT ON SEXUAL HARASSMENT FOR FIRST PRESBYTERY

Christians in general, and especially the ordained ministers of the church of Jesus Christ, are called to the highest standards of behavior. To the church at Ephesus, Paul wrote, “Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs.” (Eph. 4:29 NIV). Paul also wrote that his protégé in ministry Timothy was to “set an example for the believers in speech, in life, in love, in faith, and in purity” (I Tim. 4:14). Moreover, in its treatment of the Seventh Commandment, the Westminster Shorter Catechism (A. 72) declares, “The seventh commandment forbiddeth all unchaste thoughts, words, and actions.”

First Presbytery of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church is committed to upholding these biblical standards in our life together. It is a violation of biblical mandate, our confessional standards, and Presbytery policy for any ordained minister or student of theology in the Presbytery to engage in sexual harassment. First Presbytery will investigate all complaints, either formal or informal, verbal or written, and take appropriate action or discipline against those found to have violated this policy. Moreover, any overt or covert act of reprisal, interference, coercion, intimidation, or harassment directed against an individual who exercises his or her right under this policy will be subject to appropriate and prompt disciplinary action.

Definition of Sexual Harassment

United States courts have defined “sexual harassment” in the following terms: “Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors (explicitly stated or implied), and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassments, when submission to or rejection of this conduct explicitly or implicitly affects another individual by creating an intimidating, hostile, or fearful or offensive environment.”

Sexual harassment may include a range of subtle or not-so-subtle behaviors and may involve individuals of the same or different gender. Depending on the circumstances, these behaviors may include, but are not limited to: sexual advances or requests for sexual favors, sexual jokes or innuendo; verbal abuse of a sexual nature; commentary about an individual’s body; inappropriate touching; and other unwelcome physical, verbal or visual conduct of a sexual nature. Instances of sexual harassment must not be excused on the grounds that the perpetrator was “joking” or “meant no harm.”

Legal Liability

The Supreme Court has ruled that “to defend themselves employers would have to show that they exercise reasonable care to prevent or promptly correct any sexually harassing behavior.” This “failure to prevent doctrine” places an unusual burden on any responsible organization on whose premises an incident of sexual harassment may have occurred or have been perceived to have occurred. Thus liability is incurred not only by the perpetrator but also those whom the perpetrator represents and/or those for whom he or she works. Both the perpetrator and the organization are liable to investigation, and potentially to prosecution and the imposition of civil damages.

“Reasonable care” is interpreted to include: (1) taking prompt action to deal promptly with reported incidents through the proper and established channels, and (2) acting to prevent incidents of sexual harassment by the proper instruction of individuals and the creating of an awareness of dire consequence within the organization.

Businesses and other secular organizations view sexual harassment seriously even in its milder forms. As the church of Jesus Christ, we must be at least as vigilant and protective as are our secular counterparts, and view sexual harassment as seriously as they do, if not more so. We are the Body of Christ. Our standards must be the highest, if they are to meet the standard of holiness of the Lord of the Church.

Reporting and Investigation
First Presbytery encourages persons who believe that they have experienced or witnessed sexual harassment by a minister who is a member of, or a student of theology who is under the care of, First Presbytery to seek assistance in accordance with this policy as well as the Scriptural guidelines of Matthew 18:15-27 for conflict resolution. Such individuals are encouraged to advise the offender that his behavior is unwelcome and request that it be discontinued. Often this action alone will resolve the problem.

Whenever a person is unable to address the offender directly, or if such action does not bring an end to the offensive conduct, the individual should notify a member of the Session of his or her church. They may also notify the Chairman (or another member) of the Minister and His Work Committee of First Presbytery.

Upon receipt of a report or complaint alleging sexual harassment, the Minister and His Work Committee shall promptly undertake or authorize an investigation. The alleged incident will be evaluated by considering the totality of the particular circumstances, including the nature frequency, intensity, location, context, and duration of the questioned behavior. Even a single incident of sexual harassment may be grounds for corrective or disciplinary action. To protect both the complainant and the accused, complaints of sexual harassment shall be treated with the maximum degree of confidentiality under the circumstances, consistent with the Presbytery’s legal obligations.

Conclusion

This policy has been developed and implemented to ensure that the ministries of the churches of First Presbytery take place in an atmosphere free from sexual harassment and retaliation. Any ordained officer or church member who has questions about this policy should contact the Chairman of the Minister and His Work Committee of First Presbytery.

APPENDIX 16 COMITY AGREEMENT OF NAPARC MEMBER CHURCHES
(ADOPTED BY MEMBER DENOMINATIONS, 1986)

THE “GOLDEN RULE” COMITY AGREEMENT FOR CHURCHES IN THE NORTH AMERICAN PRESBYTERIAN AND REFORMED COUNCIL (NAPARC)

Comity has meant different things to different people. We representatives of the home missions agencies and committees or boards of our denominations resist territorial statements on comity in light of the social and cultural complexity of North America society and the great spiritual need of our many countrymen who are apart from Jesus Christ. Out of a concern to build the Church of Jesus Christ, rather than our own denominations, and to avoid the appearance of competition, we affirm the following courteous code of behavior to guide our church planting ministries in North America:

1. We will be sensitive to the presence of existing churches and missions ministries of other NAPARC churches and will refrain from enlisting members and take great care in receiving members of those existing ministries.

2. We will communicate with the equivalent or appropriate agency (denominational missions committee or board, presbytery missions or church extension committee, or session) before initiating church planting activities in a community where NAPARC churches or missions ministries exist.

3. We will provide information on at least an annual basis describing progress in our ministries and future plans.

4. We will encourage our regional home missions leadership to develop good working relationships.
