Welcome to Trinity Church
Please add your voice and heart to the worship: sing the hymns and pray the prayers.
Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

Communion and Prayers for Healing
Come forward for Communion at the direction of the ushers. Hold your hands in front of you to receive the bread, and help guide the chalice to your lips. Gluten-free bread is available by asking a priest at the communion time.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially for any need in your life, go through the archway at the front right-hand side of the church to the Chapel, and someone will meet you there before or after you receive Communion.

Ad te levavi oculos meos
Giovanni Pierluigi de Palestrina (1525-1594)

To thee I lift mine eyes and regard thee, who dwellest high in heaven. For behold just as the eyes of servants regard the hand of their lords and their masters, even as the eyes of maidens regard well the hand of their mistress: likewise lift we our eyes thus our Lord and our God regarding, he shall have mercy on us.

The Word of God

Oh, that today you would hearken to his voice! For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand. * and his hands have molded the dry land. The sea is his, for he made it, * and the heights of the hills are his also. In his hand are the caverns of the earth, * and a great King above all gods. For the LORD is a great God, * and raise a loud shout to him with psalms. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving * let us shout for joy to the Rock of our salvation. Come, let us sing to the LORD; * Psalm 95

The Holy Gospel

John 4:5-42

Sermon

The Rev. Daniel Simons

Nicene Creed Sung by all on a monotone, standing.

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We believe in the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.
