Explanatory note

This chapter sets out the continuous disclosure requirements that an entity must satisfy. Information for release to the market must be given to ASX’s *market announcements office.

Entities should note chapter 4, which deals with periodic disclosure, and chapter 5, which deals with additional reporting requirements for *mining entities, *oil and gas entities and others. Chapter 15 sets out where the draft and final documents must be lodged.

ASX has issued Guidance Note 8 – Continuous Disclosure: Listing Rule 3.1.

Amended 01/05/13, 01/12/13

Immediate notice of material information

General rule

3.1 Once an entity is or becomes *aware of any *information concerning it that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of the entity’s *securities, the entity must immediately tell ASX that information.

Introduced 01/07/96  Origin: Listing Rule 3A(1)  Amended 01/07/00, 01/01/03, 01/05/13

Note: Section 677 of the Corporations Act defines material effect on price or value. As at 1 May 2013 it said for the purpose of sections 674 and 675 a reasonable person would be taken to expect information to have a material effect on the price or value of securities if the information would, or would be likely to, influence persons who commonly invest in securities in deciding whether or not to subscribe for, or buy or sell, the first mentioned securities.

* See chapter 19 for defined terms

14 April 2014
“Information” may include information necessary to prevent or correct a false market, see Listing Rule 3.1B. It may also include matters of supposition and other matters that are insufficiently definite to warrant disclosure to the market, and matters relating to the intentions, or likely intentions, of a person (see Listing Rule 19.12).

A confidentiality agreement cannot prevent an entity from complying with its obligations under the Listing Rules and, in particular, its obligation to give ASX information for release to the market where required by the Listing Rules.

Examples: The following are non-exhaustive examples of the type of information that, depending on the circumstances, could require disclosure by an entity under this rule:

- a transaction that will lead to a significant change in the nature or scale of the entity’s activities (see also Listing Rule 11.1 and Guidance Note 12 Significant Changes to Activities);
- a material mineral or hydro-carbon discovery;
- a material acquisition or disposal;
- the granting or withdrawal of a material licence;
- the entry into, variation or termination of a material agreement;
- becoming a plaintiff or defendant in a material law suit;
- the fact that the entity’s earnings will be materially different from market expectations;
- the appointment of a liquidator, administrator or receiver;
- the commission of an event of default under, or other event entitling a financier to terminate, a material financing facility;
- under subscriptions or over subscriptions to an issue of securities (a proposed issue of securities is separately notifiable to ASX under listing rule 3.10.3);
- giving or receiving a notice of intention to make a takeover; and
- any rating applied by a rating agency to an entity or its securities and any change to such a rating.

Exception to rule 3.1

3.1A Listing rule 3.1 does not apply to particular “information while each of the following is satisfied in relation to the information:

3.1A.1 One or more of the following 5 situations applies:

- It would be a breach of a law to disclose the information;
- The information concerns an incomplete proposal or negotiation;
- The information comprises matters of supposition or is insufficiently definite to warrant disclosure;
- The information is generated for the internal management purposes of the entity; or
- The information is a trade secret; and

3.1A.2 The information is confidential and ASX has not formed the view that the information has ceased to be confidential; and

3.1A.3 A reasonable person would not expect the information to be disclosed.

Introduced 01/01/03  Amended 01/05/13

Documents sent to or received from security holders

3.17 An entity must immediately give ASX:

3.17.1 A copy of a document it sends to holders of *securities generally or in a *class.

Example: A company must give ASX a copy of a letter sent to shareholders. A trust must give ASX a copy of a document sent to holders of interests in the trust under section 1017D of the Corporations Act so far as that document relates to the circumstances of holders of interests generally, and not to the individual circumstances of a holder.

Note: In some cases, an entity must give ASX a draft document (eg, a notice of meeting) in advance of it being sent out to holders of securities. See chapter 15.

Note: Where an entity sends a letter or other communication to holders of securities generally or in a class that encloses or attaches another document that has already be given to ASX (eg, a letter to security holders enclosing an annual report that the entity has already given to ASX under Listing Rule 4.7), it is sufficient compliance with this rule that it give to ASX a copy of the letter or other communication and that it state in a covering letter to ASX that the document attached to the letter or other communication has already been given to ASX and the state the date on which it was so given.

Cross reference: Chapter 14 deals with the requirements for meetings. Chapter 4 deals with accounts and related disclosure.

3.17.2 If the entity is established in Australia, a copy of a document it receives about a substantial holding of *securities under Part 6C.2 of the Corporations Act that reveals materially different information to the most current information (if any) it has received about that substantial holding under Part 6C.1 of the Corporations Act.

Information that:

• a substantial holding differs (upwards or downwards) from a previously disclosed substantial holding by less than 1%; or

• the list of related entities that have a substantial holding has changed because of the creation, acquisition, dissolution or disposal of related entities, is not considered materially different for the purposes of this rule.

3.17.3 If the entity is not established in Australia, a copy of a document it receives about a substantial holding of *securities under any overseas law or provisions in the entity's constitution equivalent to Part 6C.1 of the Corporations Act.

Note: Where an entity is established in Australia, a person who gives a substantial holding notice to the entity under Part 6C.1 of the Corporations Act is required to give a copy of that notice to ASX (section 671B(1)) and therefore it is not necessary for the entity to give a copy of that notice to ASX.

3.17.4 If the entity is not established in Australia, a copy of a document it receives about a substantial holding of *securities under any overseas law or provisions in the entity’s constitution equivalent to Part 6C.2 of the Corporations Act that reveals materially different information to the most current information it has received (if any) about that substantial holding under the overseas law or provisions in the entity's constitution referred to in rule 3.17.3.

Again, information that:

• a substantial holding differs (upwards or downwards) from a previously disclosed substantial holding by less than 1%; or

• the list of related entities that have a substantial holding has changed because of the creation, acquisition, dissolution or disposal of related entities, is not considered materially different for the purposes of this rule.

Requisitions from security holders

3.17A An entity must give ASX within two business days of receipt:
3.17A.1 Information about the material terms of any notice it receives under section 249D, 249F, 249N, 252B, 252D or 252L of the Corporations Act or under any equivalent overseas law or equivalent provisions in the entity’s constitution from a holder or holders of “securities calling, or requesting the calling of, or proposing to move a resolution at, a general meeting; and

Introduced 01/05/13

Note: The entity may satisfy this obligation by giving a copy of the notice to ASX or an announcement summarising its material terms. If the entity gives a copy of the notice, it may redact any defamatory material that it would not otherwise be required to circulate to security holders under the Corporations Act or any equivalent overseas law or equivalent provisions in its constitution. If the entity gives an announcement summarising the material terms of the notice, it may exclude from the summary any such defamatory material.

An entity is not required to give information to ASX about such a notice if the notice is withdrawn by the relevant holder or holders of securities within two business days of it having been received by the entity.

It should be noted that if a reasonable person would expect information about such a notice to have a material effect on the price or value of the entity’s securities, the information must be given to ASX immediately under Listing Rule 3.1 and not within two business days of receipt.

3.17A.2 Information that a notice previously notified to ASX under rule 3.17A.1 has been withdrawn by the holder or holders who gave it.

Financial documents given to an overseas stock exchange

3.17B If an entity admitted to the “official list is also listed on an overseas stock exchange, it must immediately give ASX a copy of any document it gives to the overseas stock exchange that meets the following requirements:

3.17B.1 the document is given to the overseas stock exchange by the entity in its capacity as an entity listed on that exchange; and

Introduced 01/05/13

3.17B.2 the document is, or will be, made public by the overseas stock exchange; and

Introduced 01/05/13

3.17B.3 the document includes “accounts or other similar financial information; and

Introduced 01/05/13

3.17B.4 the document is not materially the same as another document that the entity has already given to ASX.

Introduced 01/05/13

Note: If the document is not in English, it must be accompanied by an English translation (see Listing Rule 15.2A).

A document that does not include accounts or other similar financial information given by an entity listed on an overseas exchange to that exchange may also need to be given to ASX under Listing Rule 3.1 if a reasonable person would expect the information it contains to have a material effect on the price or value of the entity’s securities.

For the avoidance of doubt, where two entities form part of a dual-listed entity structure (ie where one entity is listed and has its home exchange on ASX and the other is listed and has its home exchange on an overseas stock exchange), this rule only applies to the entity listed on ASX and then only if the entity listed on ASX is also listed on an overseas stock exchange. It does not require documents that the other entity may give to its overseas home stock exchange or to any other overseas stock exchange where it may be listed to be given to ASX.

Entities established overseas

3.17C If an entity that is not established in Australia becomes aware of a change to the law of its home jurisdiction that materially affects the rights or obligations of security holders, it must immediately give ASX details of that change.

+ See chapter 19 for defined terms
Additional disclosure if loans are an asset

3.18 If ASX asks, an entity with loans included in its assets must tell ASX the following information.

- The amount of each loan.
- The identity of the borrower, and any direct or indirect interest which a director of the entity (in the case of a trust, the responsible entity or a director of the responsible entity) has in the borrower.
- The security held.
- The interest rate.
- The maturity date.
- Any other information in relation to the loan that ASX asks for.

Ownership limits

3.19 If an entity’s constitution with ASX’s agreement, or a law (except the Corporations Act or the Foreign Acquisitions and Takeovers Act), restricts the ownership or control of securities or control of votes to a specified percentage, and the entity becomes aware that the percentage held by a class of persons restricted to owning or controlling that percentage has come within 5 percentage points of the restriction, or equals or exceeds it, the following rules apply.

3.19.1 If the entity becomes aware of any changes of more than 1 percentage point in the capital (in the case of a trust, interests) or votes held by persons in the class the entity must immediately tell ASX of the change. It must do so for each change it becomes aware of until rule 3.19.3 applies.

3.19.2 Each time the entity tells ASX of any change, it must state what action it will take to divest the securities, or to remove or change the voting or other rights attaching to them, if it receives a transfer document for securities whose transfer would result in the restriction being exceeded.

3.19.3 If the entity becomes aware that the percentage of capital (interests) or votes held by the class of persons referred to in rule 3.19.1 has ceased to be within 5 percentage points of the restriction, or to equal or exceed it, the entity must immediately tell ASX.

Disclosure of directors’ interests

3.19A An entity must tell ASX the following.

3.19A.1 The notifiable interests of a director of the entity (or in the case of a trust, a director of the responsible entity of the trust) at the following times.

- On the date that the entity is admitted to the official list.
- On the date that a director is appointed.

+ See chapter 19 for defined terms
The entity must complete Appendix 3X and give it to ASX no more than 5 business days after the entity’s admission or a director’s appointment.

Introduced 30/09/01 Amended 24/10/05

Note: An entity is not required to give information to ASX under this rule that, notwithstanding that it has complied with listing rule 3.19B, it does not have.

If a director has no interests at the time when the entity is required to complete an Appendix 3X, the entity must lodge an Appendix 3X that discloses that the director has no interests.

3.19A.2 A change to a “notifiable interest of a director of the entity (or in the case of a trust, a director of the responsible entity of the trust) including whether the change occurred during a ‘closed period where prior written clearance was required and, if so, whether prior written clearance was provided. The entity must complete Appendix 3Y and give it to ASX no more than 5 business days after the change occurs.

Introduced 30/09/01 Amended 01/01/11

Note: An entity is not required to give information to ASX under this rule that a director has not given to it under the arrangements mentioned in listing rule 3.19B and of which it is otherwise not aware. In such a case, the director is personally obliged to give that information to ASX and may breach section 205G of the Corporations Act if they fail to do so.

If a director has no interests at the time when the entity is required to complete an Appendix 3X under listing rule 3.19A.1, the entity must lodge an Appendix 3Y when the director first acquires an interest.

Examples: The event giving rise to the requirement to give ASX an Appendix 3Y is an on market purchase or sale of shares on the ASX market or Chi-X market. The entity has five business days after the date the relevant market trade was effected to give ASX the Appendix.

The event giving rise to the requirement to give ASX an Appendix 3Y is the exercise of options. The entity has five business days after the date the options were exercised to give ASX the Appendix.

3.19A.3 The “notifiable interests of a director of the entity (or in the case of a trust, a director of the responsible entity of the trust) at the date that the director ceases to be a director.

The entity must complete Appendix 3Z and give it to ASX no more than 5 business days after the director ceases to be a director.

Introduced 30/09/01 Amended 11/03/02

Note: An entity is not required to give information to ASX under this rule that, notwithstanding that it has complied with listing rule 3.19B, it does not have.

3.19B An entity must make such arrangements as are necessary with a director of the entity (or in the case of a trust, a director of the responsible entity of the trust) to ensure that the director discloses to the entity all the information required by the entity to give ASX completed Appendices 3X, 3Y and 3Z within the time period allowed by listing rule 3.19.A. The entity must enforce the arrangements with the director.

Introduced 30/09/01

Record Date, compliance with timetable and information requirements

3.20.1 An entity must tell ASX immediately it decides a proposed “record date or any change to a proposed “record date.

3.20.2 An entity must give ASX not less than four “business days’ notice of a proposed record date or any change to a proposed “record date and must comply with Appendix 3A unless a specific timetable applies.

Introduced 01/07/96 Origin: Listing Rule 3A(5)(a) Amended 30/09/01, 24/10/05, 14/04/14, 07/03/16

Note: If an entity fails to tell ASX of a change to a proposed record date, ASX may require the entity to adhere to the record date originally advised to ASX.
Note: An entity is required to give notice to ASX under this rule when a record date is reasonably certain. E.g. ASX would not require notification where an entity has determined a time period in which a record date may occur for internal management purposes.

An entity should take into account a number of factors when determining when it is appropriate to tell ASX of a proposed record date, including whether ETOs are issued in respect of any of the entity’s securities.

Cross reference: Timetables are in Appendix 6A and Appendix 7A. For the record date in relation to interest on quoted debt securities and convertible debt securities, see Appendix 6A(2). See also listing rules 7.13, 7.14 and 7.15.

3.20.3 An entity must notify ASX by 10.00am one business day prior to the proposed commencement of any trading halt that it intends to request in connection with an accelerated pro rata issue of equity securities to which listing rule 7.2 applies, if the first day of the proposed trading halt will be the expiry date for any exchange traded options quoted over that entity’s securities, unless ASX is satisfied that it is necessary for the trading halt to commence sooner in order for the entity to manage its continuous disclosure obligations.

Introduced 14/04/14

Note: A notification under this rule must include details of the issue of equity securities. ASX will not release this information publicly.

Expiry dates for exchange traded options are published on www.asx.com.au and are subject to change.

A fee will apply where an entity fails to provide the required period of notice in accordance with Listing Rule 3.20.3.

Cross reference: Timetables are in Appendix 7A. For the fee where an entity fails to provide the required period of notice in accordance with Listing Rule 3.20.3, see Listing Rule 16.7 and Guidance Note 15A.

3.20.4 Unless ASX agrees otherwise, an entity must provide the information in the numbered parts to Appendix 3A within the timeframes specified therein.

Introduced 22/09/14

Note: For the requirements to submit numbered parts to Appendix 3A as online forms see listing rule 15.3(b)
