ESSENTIAL REDUCTION
All my theology is reduced to this narrow compass: “Jesus Christ came into the world to save sinners.”

Good Friday Collection

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support Christians in the Holy Land. Through the Good Friday Collection, you stand in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land as a witness of peace. Your support means that our church will conduct parish ministry, provide Catholic education, feed the hungry, build houses for Christians, maintain shrines and operate refugee centers in the Holy Land. Like Simon of Cyrene, you can help carry the cross under very difficult circumstances in the Holy Land. Christians, along with all of the clergy and religious who serve in the Holy Land, will deeply appreciate your prayers and financial help!

PLEASE BE GENEROUS!

The Bus Driver’s Gift

There’s this story that I love and often used in my homilies...

One afternoon a bus driver was taking 30 children home from school. As the bus made its way down a steep grade, the brakes failed. The driver was unable to steer the bus to the left because of a high embankment or to the right because of a steep cliff.

As the bus hurtled down the hill, the driver recalled that there was a narrow gate at the bottom which led into a field, figuring that it would eventually come to a safe stop. He hoped that no cars or other obstacles would get in his way before he got to the gate.

When the bus reached the bottom of the hill, the driver saw the gate approaching fast. But to his horror, he noticed a small child sitting on the gate, waving at the bus.

It was too late to change plans now. If the driver tried to avoid the gate, 30 children would die. He cried out in anguish as the bus slammed directly into the gate. The innocent child died instantly in the collision, but the bus and all of its passengers were saved.

Emergency vehicles were the first to arrive on the scene, followed shortly by relieved parents and grandparents. Many of them wanted to show their appreciation and gratitude to the driver who had kept the bus under control long enough to save their children. But the driver was nowhere to be found. They asked a police officer where he had gone.

“They’ve taken him to the hospital,” the officer said. “He’s suffering from severe shock.”

“Well, that’s understandable,” they replied.

“No, you don’t understand,” said the officer. “You see, that little boy on the fence was his own son.”

Holy Week is here. The opportunity for us to reflect deeply on the love of God for us especially on giving us His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ. God’s decision to save us came at a great expense to himself. Jesus cried out in the garden, “My Father, if it is possible, may this cup be taken from me” (Matthew 26:39). But it was God’s love for us that sent Jesus to the cross. He gave his only Son so that we could live. “...That little boy on the fence was his own son.”

THE EUCARIST: HOLY COMMUNION

Now let us learn the application of Holy Communion to our daily life. . . .

APPLICATION TO OUR DAILY LIFE

There is a saying: Familiarly breeds contempt. We can get accustomed to something or someone that we lose the excitement and respect that was initially there. We are encouraged by the Church to receive the Sacrament of Holy Communion daily. However, the danger exists in becoming so used to receiving the Sacrament of Holy Communion that we lose perspective of what it really is and how special it should be. On the other hand, there are those who do not receive the Sacrament of Holy Communion often enough. Both of these problems must be addressed.

Let us look at the second problem first. In many non-Catholic churches, some form of communion is received on a regular basis. Some churches have a Communion Sunday once a month. Many of these churches wonder why the Catholics receive Holy Communion every Sunday. Yet in fact, the Catholic Church offers the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass daily and offers the Sacrament of Holy Communion daily.

There are still some Catholics who receive Communion rather seldom, once a year or perhaps even once a month. The haunting question arises, "How often do they feed their souls?" "Three times a day?" Some people can eat all day long. How often do they feed their souls? Their souls could be starving to death! Just as our bodies require daily nourishment, so also do our souls; and what better nourishment could there be than the one which Our Lord Himself provided - His own Flesh and Blood as real food and real drink. The image of bread is used deliberately by the Lord because He wants us to think of the Holy Eucharist as nourishment - the Bread of Life!

On the other hand, there are those who do receive the Sacrament of Holy Communion frequently, some even have made a practice of daily Communion. Yet we can become so complacent in our reception of the sacrament that we forget what it really is and even perhaps lose respect for it. So maybe it is good for us, from time to time, to think back to the day of our first Holy Communion.

Recall the excitement and the preparation of the day. How eager we were - the special clothes that we bought, how early we arrived at Church, how we were rehearsed and trained so carefully. It was a long-awaited moment in our lives, and when the time finally came for that first meeting with Our Eucharistic Lord, we felt something very special inside us. There was an eagerness after Mass for the next time when we would be able to receive Holy Communion.

Some of us could hardly wait for the next Sunday - it seemed like an eternity. Do we still have that same childlike appreciation for the Blessed Sacrament, that same simple childlike faith that the Holy Eucharist is really and truly the Body of Christ?

So many of us need to think back to that day and recall the wonder of it all. So then, starting this Easter Sunday whenever you receive Holy Communion:

- make believe it is your FIRST Holy Communion,
- make believe it is your LAST Holy Communion,
- make believe it is your ONLY Holy Communion.

Only the heart of a loving JESUS could have devised such a wonderful plan! Not only does Jesus remain with us but HE comes into our hearts and abides in our souls as long as we want. Thank you JESUS!
How God’s Love Affected Me

My name is Clay Marcus P. Cosue, a Candidate in the RCIA process preparing to receive my Confirmation and first Holy Communion.

I was baptized Catholic on May 13, 2000. I never remembered it, because I was only a year old at the time, but how my parents described my baptism it gave me a slight happiness in my heart. They told me that I was a very chubby baby and as the priest was holding me, they saw a distinct grin on his face throughout the whole day despite the fact that I was crying the whole time. The priest even said, “Ang cute naman ang baby ninyo.” Telling me how cute I was probably the reason for his smile. Afterwards, all my family members came home with us and I had my first birthday party. To this day, my parents would still tell me this story and they would still continue to smile. I look back at it today and I see how far I’ve gone in my faith journey but it wasn’t always like this...

I was a freshman in high school and I barely went to Church, but I didn’t mind at the time because all I was focusing on was school. My parents didn’t really care either because they had work on Sundays. I would work hard at school and when I came home, my house was like a screaming competition against my parents and my siblings. I would usually just lock myself in the bathroom and cry. It was not until the end of sophomore year when I felt like I had lost my faith with God and I thought to myself, “Why would God do this to my family.” This was about the same time as winter retreat for UTC. I never heard about UTC until I saw their ad’s on Instagram about the winter retreat but I never signed up because I was too focused on school. Afterwards, my closest friends were telling me how fun their winter retreat was, and how many friends and connections they made with other people. This was probably the best part of my life because it made me more interested in UTC and God as well.

During the summer, my friends told me that I should go to UTC because I could make more friends there. I went for the first time to Holy Family and I felt welcomed because of how many friendly people there were, so I started to go to their meeting and made so many bonds with other people. The only part I was embarrassed about was when they did their prayer because I did not know any of them. I asked one of the leaders in UTC and they told me that they were in Confirmation and I should join and they told me to go to RCIA and find my path there.

When I joined RCIA, I made it my main goal to be a Confirmed Catholic. At first, I thought I would just make me more friends but as the months went on, my interest in Jesus has grown tremendously and my goal was mainly for my wellbeing thus resuming my faith journey. Despite the fact that RCIA had created a new path for me, I still felt like it wasn’t enough. It was not until after my grandfather died where I felt God’s love for me because he didn’t need to suffer anymore. I realized that God does so much and he still cares for all of us but it was our job to accept his love for us. Ever since then I knew my grandfather would be proud of what I’m doing. So many good things have been happening in my life as a result of being closer to God. My home no longer has anger inside and it feels great to be at home instead of being scared. Now I’m on my way to get all my sacraments and I thank all the RCIA Team members especially Tito Rudy and Tita Mila for helping me in my faith journey. I thank my community for inspiring me to resume my faith journey and also my parent’s support and love for me. I can now tell others of my great journey and hopefully inspire others as well.
SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN - DID YOU KNOW?

Teach children touching safety and boundaries
Predators are a very real danger to children today, and parents should take every precaution to teach children about safe and appropriate touching, and what to do if these boundaries are violated. Teaching touching safety is critical for kids, because it focuses on empowering kids to resist predators. If a child learns about touching safety, they will be able to respond to boundary violations in the best way possible and to talk about these situations with a trusted adult. SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN - ¿SABÍAUSTED?

Eduque a los niños sobre seguridad y límites de las caricias
Los depredadores son un verdadero peligro para los niños de hoy en día, y los padres deben tomar toda precaución para enseñarles a los niños sobre las caricias seguras y apropiadas, y qué hacer si sus límites son violados. Enseñar la seguridad de las caricias es importante para los niños, porque se enfoca en darles poder para que puedan oponer resistencia a los depredadores. Si un niño o niña aprende sobre las caricias apropiadas y seguras, ellos serán capaces de responder a la violación de sus límites de la mejor manera posible, y a hablar sobre estas situaciones con un adulto en el cual confían. PASSION

The word “passion” connotes deep, focused engagement. It also relates to passivity, interestingly. The deeply passionate person in the Gospel narrative from Luke is Jesus. He appears passive, but he is not. He is wholly self-possessed and wholly present for the one day that begins on Thursday evening at his last meal with his apostles and ends with his burial before sunset the next day. Then follows the long Sabbath silence.

The narrative of the Passion is read whole and without pause on the Palm Sunday of the Passion. This story, found in each of the Gospels, is unchanging. We are the ones who change. Each year, we bring ourselves with another year’s history to hear and heed the story we so badly need. Life has its way with us, and we look again to the Passion narratives to learn to follow.

CONFESSIONS Wednesdays of Lent- 7:30-8:30pm

The Living Stations of the Cross

The presentation of the Living Stations of the Cross on Good Friday has become a long-standing tradition here at Holy Family Parish. We invite all to come and enjoy this very moving presentation on Good Friday in the Church at 8pm on March 25. You may call Crystal Flaviano-Binene for more information. 562 881 2468

A Daily Prayer For Lent
Lord God, you who breathed the spirit of life within me. Draw out of me the light and life you created. Help me to find my way back to you. Help me to use my life to reflect your glory.

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

This week takes us from somber reflection to glorious rejoicing. We begin the holiest of week of the year with blessed branches and processions. We recall the events that lead to another procession on Good Friday up the hill to Calvary. Because we know the rest of the story, we anticipate the glorious procession from the empty tomb to the announcement of the good news that Jesus had risen for the dead.

Did You Miss Me

I am the missing eyes that look up to you in admiration
I am the missing smile that lets you know I am grateful
I am the missing pitter patter on the floor
I am the missing chair on the dinner table.

I am the missing voice that calls you Mommy
I am the missing hug that greets you when we meet
I am the missing photo on the wall
I am the missing laughter to lighten your world

I am the missing hand to help with the chore
I am the missing cane when you get old
I am the missing call when lightning strikes
I am the missing baby that wants and loves you through life.

DIVINE MERCY NOVENA PRAYERS
Open each day with the Chaplet to the Divine Mercy then say the prayer for the day's intention:

First Day's Intention: Good Friday
Jesus said: "Today bring to Me all mankind, especially all sinners, and immerse them in the ocean of My mercy. In this way you will console me in the bitter grief into which the loss of souls plunges me."
Most merciful Jesus, whose very nature it is to have compassion on us to forgive us, do not look upon our sins, but upon our trust which we place in Your infinite goodness. Receive us all into the abode of Your Most Compassionate Heart, and never let us escape from it. We beg this of You by Your love which unites You to the Father and the Holy Spirit. Eternal Father, turn Your Merciful gaze upon all mankind and especially upon poor sinners, all enfolded in the Most Compassionate Heart of Jesus. For the sake of His Sorrowful Passion show us Your Mercy, that we may praise the infinite power of Your Mercy, forever and ever. Amen.

Second Day's Intention: Holy Saturday
Jesus said: "Today bring to Me the souls of Priests and Religious and immerse them in My unfathomable mercy. It was they who gave me strength to endure my bitter passion. Through them, as through channels, my mercy flows out upon mankind."
Most Merciful Jesus, from whom comes all that is good, increase Your grace in men and women consecrated to Your service that they perform worthy works of mercy, and that all who see them may glorify the Father of Mercy who is in Heaven. Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze upon the company of chosen ones in Your vineyard - upon the souls of Priests and Religious - and endow them with the strength of Your Blessing. For the Love of the Heart of Your Son in which they are enfolded, impart to them Your Power and Light, that they may be able to guide others in the way of salvation, and with one voice sing praise to Your boundless Mercy for ages without end. Amen.

Third Day's Intention: Easter Sunday
Jesus said: "Today bring to me all devout and faithful souls and immerse them in the ocean of my mercy. These souls brought me consolation on the Way of the Cross. They were that drop of consolation in the midst of an ocean of bitterness."
Most Merciful Jesus, from the treasury of Your Mercy, You impart Your graces in great abundance to each and all. Receive us into the abode of Your Most Compassionate Heart and never let us escape from it. We beg this grace of You by that most wondrous love for the heavenly Father with which Your Heart burns so fiercely. Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze upon faithful souls, as upon the inheritance of Your Son. For the sake of His Sorrowful Passion grant them Your blessing and surround them with Your constant protection. Thus may they never fail in love or lose the treasure of the Holy Faith, but rather, with all the hosts of Angels and Saints, may they glorify Your boundless Mercy for endless ages. Amen.
