Ext-Officer Avoids Prison for a Brooklyn Killing

By JAMES TAGGART
Former Officer Peter Liang will be the first police officer in 44 years to avoid a prison sentence for killing an unarmed black man in his own apartment.

In a case that involved several high-profile individuals from different parts of the city, the former officer was charged with second-degree manslaughter in the death of Akai Gurley, a 28-year-old man who was shot and killed by a police officer in the Brooklyn housing project
