WORK PERMIT

Work Permits in respect of expatriate workers are issued by the Employment Division of the Ministry of Labour, Industrial Relations & Employment under the Non-Citizens (Employment Restriction) Act 1973.

1.1 Eligibility to apply for a Work Permit

- An employer based in Mauritius should apply for a work permit in respect of an expatriate who will be employed to do a specific job for the employer on a full time basis. The work permit is non-transferable.

- An overseas company cannot make an application for work permit unless it is incorporated in Mauritius as a foreign company, under the Company Laws of Mauritius.

- Recruitment Agencies are not authorized to apply for work permits on behalf of a company. All applications for work permit should emanate from the company concerned.

- Any employer applying for a work permit for the first time should submit the application together with the following documents:
  (a) a Certified copy of the Certificate of Incorporation of the company;
  (b) a duly filled in data sheet.

- Employers wishing to employ skilled workers should apply for and obtain a permission in principle to recruit expatriate skilled workers before submitting applications for work permit.

- Expatriates married to Mauritians do not require a work permit.

- Models and professional entertainers including theatre, motion, picture, radio or television artistes, and musicians are no longer required to apply for a work permit for the purpose of performing public shows, or public broadcast for an aggregate maximum of 90 days (continuously or not) in any one calendar year.

1.2 Application Forms and Application documents to be submitted

1.2.3 Additional documents in respect of Chinese Workers

Following an agreement between the People's Republic of China and the Government of Mauritius, the recruitment of Chinese workers in Mauritius should be done through recruiting companies authorised by the Chinese authorities.

All new applications for work permit should be accompanied with

(i) a letter from the employer communicating the name of its recruiting agent in China
(ii) documentary evidence from the recruiting company certifying that its services have been retained by the employer.

Where an employer chooses to recruit workers through a company which is not on the list, the employer should submit an application for the company to be listed; to the Ministry of Labour, Industrial Relations & Employment. The application would then be transmitted to the relevant Chinese authorities for consideration.

A list of authorised recruiting companies is at annex II.

1.3 Criteria For Applications

(i) The expatriate should possess the skills, qualifications and experience required for the job applied for;

(ii) Expatriates should normally be aged between 20 and 60 years. Departure from this policy is exceptionally made for investors and expatriates who are above 60 years and who possess specific expertise;

(iii) Visitors on tourists visa are not allowed to take up employment and applications for work permit on their behalf are not entertained;

(Note : Workers should not travel only on the strength of a work permit but they should be in possession of a valid residence permit or an entry permit issued by the Passport & Immigration Office )

(iv) Foreign skilled workers are normally granted work permits for a maximum period of four years. However this Ministry may consider applications for renewal of work permit granted to skilled workers employed in the EPZ Sector if their services are still required beyond four years. These workers may not be required to spend one year abroad after their fourth year of employment in Mauritius, before applying for another work permit. They would be required to swear an affidavit in the event they would stay in Mauritius for a period exceeding 5 years;

(v) Expatriates employed at managerial/supervisory/technical levels may be allowed to work for a period of five years or more, subject to full justifications being provided and upon their swearing of an affidavit to the effect that they will not apply for Mauritian citizenship. They will also be required to furnish an additional bank guarantee of Rs 20,000 to the Passport & Immigration Office as from their fifth year of employment;

(vi) In case of application for groups of workers, work permits are normally granted where a ratio of three local to one expatriate worker is satisfied;

(vii) For bulk recruitment of foreign skilled workers, the employer should provide, free of charge, decent accommodation (inclusive of water, electricity and gas) in line with sanitary and fire safety requirements. The exact address and plan of the dormitory should be submitted to this Ministry together with health & fire clearances. The Ministry should be informed of any change in address;

(viii) For workers drawing an annual salary of less than Rs 360,000 the employer should submit to the Ministry of Labour and Industrial Relations & Employment the contract of employment for vetting. A copy of the vetted contract should thereafter be made available at the time of application for work permit;

For renewal of work permits, the employer should indicate any amendment in the terms of the contract of employment. If any, the employer should have the amendments vetted by the Ministry of Labour and Industrial Relations & Employment prior to submission of the application;

(ix) For certain grades, employers may be required, within 3 months from the date of issue of work permit, to appoint a suitable Mauritian counterpart to be trained by the expatriate during his/her posting in Mauritius;

(x) The employer should provide the expatriate with an air ticket to return to his/her home country on the termination of the contract of employment or for any cause whatsoever.

1.4 Fees and Deposits

1.4.1 The employer has to pay a processing fee of Rs 500 in respect of each expatriate on submission of an application for work permit. Furthermore, on approval of the application he/she has to pay the prescribed work permit fees and the statutory deposit fees as specified at paragraphs 1.4.2 and 1.4.3 respectively, within a delay of 2 months, failing which the decision to grant a work permit will be rescinded.
immediately. The statutory deposit may be either in cash or in the form of a bank guarantee.

1.5 Conditions of Employment

(i) The pay and other conditions of employment of an expatriate should not be less favourable than those prescribed in the relevant labour legislations, for example, the Labour Act 1975, End of Year Gratuity Act, among others. All conditions of employment and benefits should be clearly stipulated in the contract of employment which should be duly signed by the expatriate and the employer.

(ii) The wages/salaries should be paid in Mauritius and in Mauritian currency only.

(iii) No deduction whatsoever should be made from the wages/salaries of the expatriates except as authorized by the relevant legislation, for example, in respect of pension and Income Tax.
(iv) The core provisions which should be stipulated in a contract of employment between the employer and the expatriate worker shall comprise:-

(a) Status of the expatriate;
(b) Conditions regarding days and hours of work;
(c) Conditions regarding wages, salary and overtime to be paid;
(d) Time allowance for meal and tea breaks;
(e) Provision for annual/sick/maternity leaves (Any other privilege for female workers viz nursing of unweaned child);
(f) Payment for work done on Sundays and public holidays;
(g) Provision for end of year bonus, as per existing legislation;
(h) Conditions regarding notice of termination of contract, and
(i) Additional provisions regarding accommodation and free return air ticket.

1.6 Bulk Recruitment of Expatriate Workers

Companies wishing to recruit expatriate workers in bulk should seek the permission in principle of the Ministry of Labour, Industrial Relations & Employment (Employment Division) in writing. Before the permission in principle is granted, the Employment Division takes the following steps:-

- An inspection is carried out to determine the justification to resort to foreign labour.
- The request made, together with the outcome of the inspection, are referred to the Work Permit Committee for recommendation. This Committee scrutinises the request and makes a recommendation which is submitted for approval. Before recommending the request for permission in principle, the Committee must be satisfied that the employer has made sufficient effort to recruit local employees but has been unsuccessful in doing so.
- Once approval is obtained, a letter of intent is issued to the company authorising it to import a specific number of expatriate workers subject to it complying with certain conditions pertaining, inter alia, to salary and decent accommodation. The letter of intent is valid for a period of 6 months as from date of issue.
- Consequently, the company undertakes its recruitment exercise and selects potential workers.
Once the selection exercise is completed, the company should submit individual applications in respect of each of its expatriate worker to the Employment Division for consideration.

1.7 Appeal

If an application has been turned down, the employer may submit only one appeal to the Ministry for consideration.

1.8 Online submission of Application for Work Permits

Applications for work permits may be submitted online on the following address:

The steps to follow are at Annex III.

NOTE:

As announced in the Budget Speech 2006 – 2007, the following categories of persons are eligible for an Occupation Permit (which incorporates both a Work Permit and a Residence Permit) and may apply for same through the Board of Investment:

I. Investors generating more than Rs 3 million of annual turnover;
II. Professionals offered employment paying more than Rs 30,000 a month (basic salary); and
III. Self employed generating an annual income of Rs 600,000.

2. RECRUITMENT LICENCE

The recruitment of workers is governed by the Recruitment of Workers Act 1993 and the regulations made thereunder.

Procedures

- An application for a Recruitment Licence should be made on the prescribed form which is available at the Employment Division.
- Where the applicant is a company, it should be registered with the Registrar of Companies and should have a legal representative.
- Once the application is received, an inspection is carried out by the Employment Service of the Ministry.
• Confirmation is sought from the Registrar of Companies as to whether the objects of the Company include recruitment activities.

• The clearance of the Prime Minister’s Office as far as security is concerned, is thereafter sought before a decision is taken regarding the issue of the Recruitment Licence.

• On receipt of clearances from the Prime Minister’s Office, authorisation of the Licensing Authority is sought prior to the issue of the Recruitment Licence.

• Inspections are carried out every six months by the officers of the Enforcement, Monitoring and Licensing Unit of the Ministry.

2.1 Bank Guarantee/Fee for Recruitment licence

The Recruitment Licence authorises a company/individual to recruit the following categories of workers:-

(i) Citizens of Mauritius for employment abroad; and/or

(ii) Citizens of Mauritius for employment in Mauritius.

Once all the clearances are obtained, the company/individual has to pay a fee of Rs 10,000 for the Recruitment Licence which is valid for a period of two years. Furthermore, a bank guarantee for the sum of Rs 200,000 has to be furnished to the Accountant-General by the applicant in the event that he proposes to recruit citizens of Mauritius for employment abroad.

2.2 Returns

A licencee must every four months, submit to the Employment Division of the Ministry of Labour, Industrial Relations & Employment, a return in relation to the recruitment of workers.
