Certain of the statements contained in this document are not historical facts but rather are statements of future expectations and other forward-looking statements that are based on management’s beliefs. These statements reflect such views and assumptions as of the date of the statements and involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties that could cause future results, performance or future events to differ materially from those expressed or implied in such statements.

When used in this document, words such as “anticipate”, “believe”, “estimate”, “expect”, “may”, “intend” and “plan” are intended to identify forward-looking statements which address our vision of expected future business and financial performance. Such forward-looking statements include, without limitation, projections for improvements in process and operations, revenues and operating margin growth, cash flow, performance, new products and services, current and future markets for products and services and other trend projections as well as new business opportunities.

These forward-looking statements are based upon a number of assumptions which are subject to uncertainty and trends that may differ materially from future results, depending on a variety of factors including without limitation:

- General economic and labour conditions, including in particular economic conditions in Europe and North America
- Legal, financial and governmental risks (including, without limitation, certain market risks) related to the businesses
- Certain risks related to the media industry (including, without limitation, technological risks)
- The cyclical nature of some of the businesses.

Please refer to the most recent Reference Document (Document de Référence) filed by Lagardère SCA with the French Autorité des marchés financiers for additional information in relation to such factors, risks and uncertainties.

Lagardère SCA disclaims any intention or obligation to update or review the forward-looking statements referred to above. Consequently Lagardère SCA is not responsible for any consequences that could result from the use of any of the above statements.

► OLIVIER GUIGUET
COO

Olivier Guiguet was appointed Deputy Chief Operating Officer of Lagardère Unlimited by Arnaud Lagardère in 2010. He created Lagardère Sports for Arnaud Lagardère through the acquisition of Sportfive, the European leader in football rights, of World Sport Group in Singapore, the football, cricket and golf leader in Asia, of IEC in Sports, Upsolut and PR Event. For Sportfive, he managed the signing of an agreement granting all African rights until 2016, signed a contract with the International Olympic Committee which grants the marketing of its European rights and the granting of the exclusive marketing rights of UEFA Euro 2012 in Asia.

► KEVIN O’CONNOR
COO LAGARDÈRE UNLIMITED Inc

With more than 20 years of sports industry experience, Kevin O’Connor comes to Lagardère Unlimited from Saddlebrook Sports where he negotiated training programs and retainer-based services for professional tennis players. Through the highest degree of professional attention and personal service, Kevin O’Connor expanded the Elite Athlete training business to incorporate team sports such as baseball and football and hockey. Kevin O’Connor’s expertise in recruiting and retaining clients has been the foundation of Saddlebrook’s growth, expanding during his tenure.

Before arriving at Saddlebrook, over 2001 to 2002 Kevin O’Connor served as the executive director of tennis for the Anschutz Entertainment Group (AEG).
Seamus O’Brien is founder, Chairman and CEO of World Sport Group (WSG), Asia’s leading sports marketing, media and event management company. Inspired by his passion for sport, Seamus O’Brien established World Sport Group (then known as Asia Sport Group), in Hong Kong in 1992 – a company born from a landmark partnership with the Asian Football Confederation (AFC), the region’s governing body for football.

As one of the earliest pioneers in the business, Seamus O’Brien is widely regarded as a key figure in the development of Asian sport and in particular the business of sport within the region. He has influenced and transformed the financial status and legacy of many of the region’s major sports and its athletes. In nearly 20 years, Seamus O’Brien has established World Sport Group as a market leader.

Laurent Carozzi has served as Group Financial Controller since 2008, after joining the Lagardère Group in 2004 as Investor Relations Director. From 2002 to 2004, he led HSBC’s London-based sell-side media research team. In 1999, he joined Crédit Agricole (Asset Management) as a pan-European buy-side media analyst. In 1995 he was head of the European markets research team and a sell-side analyst for Paribas. He was a consultant in the Industrial Research Department at Crédit Lyonnais from 1992 to 1995.

Methodology suggestions

- Sporting events calendar: to significantly offset its impact on sales growth numbers, compare odd years between themselves – same with even years.

- Buy-out sales vs commissions: to assess a sales growth performance free of the impact of the evolution of the mix buy-out sales vs commissions sales, use the calculation:

  \text{gross margin} = \text{sales} - \text{amortization of sports rights}
