2 Person Camp
Camp will be conducted by veteran HS and college officials of the Austin Basketball Officials Association (ABOA) for any official with less than 4 years of experience. Campers can expect to learn the fundamentals of 2-person mechanics before taking the step in their officiating career.

3 Person Camp
Camp will be conducted by NCAA level officials in the ABOA. The camp will focus on basic floor coverage and positioning for beginners to advanced methods for veterans.

Each camper will receive:
- Individual and Group Instruction
- Practical Application of Rules, Mechanics and Court Coverage
- Video Recording and Breakdown
- Evaluations from Veteran HS and NCAA officials
- Evaluations forwarded to your chapter assignors upon request

Contact Ken Patton for additional information @ kpatton85@austin.rr.com or 512-680-4086.
FOUNDATIONS CAMP ITINERARY

FRIDAY
Evening Court Class - 1.5 hours

Basic Mechanics
This required class is for all officials who are working to improve their 2-person or 3-person mechanics. It will provide you with a foundation from which you can build a successful officiating career. If you are a first time referee or first time on the 3-person court – this class is essential!

SATURDAY
Morning Court Session - 2 hours
Afternoon Court Session - 2 hours
Evening Classroom Session

Coach Speak
Coaches size up their officials even before they show up on the court. Wonder what they are looking for in a good referee? You would be surprised that it goes beyond just making good calls. A local coach will be present to fill you in and give you their perspective.
Rule Book pp. 63 & 64

SUNDAY
Morning Court Session - 2 hours
Afternoon Court Session - 2 hours
Afternoon Q&A Session

Staff Q&A
Our staff will handle any and all questions you have about officiating, including improving your schedule in your local chapter and moving into the college ranks.
Evening Classroom Session

Effect Use of Video
Many officials either don’t use video or do not utilize its full potential. Travis Motal is a Division 1 college official and will demonstrate how video can help make better calls and make you a better official.

The video we will be using will be actual film footage of campers from this year.
