Payment information - To avoid having additional interest and/or fees imposed on your outstanding balance, please pay the amount indicated by the date shown using the enclosed payment voucher. Additional interest accrues on the first business day of each month.

Notices being generated due to returned payments are not subject to additional appeal rights. Appeal rights were given on the original notice and/or filing of the return. If this notice is for a return check charge for a returned estimated tax payment, you can either replace the payment by submitting a new voucher and check to the address listed on the voucher, or adjust your records to reflect the absence of this payment.

If you cannot pay the full amount due by the pay by date, you may ask to make installment payments. It is to your advantage to pay the amount due in full rather than in installments to avoid the accumulation of additional interest and collection fees. In addition, installment agreements with the department are subject to a $20 installment agreement fee and will not prevent the filing of a tax lien. You may obtain the Installment Agreement Request Form (Form A-771) by visiting our web page at www.revenue.wi.gov, by calling us at (608) 266-1961, or by writing to Wisconsin Department of Revenue, PO Box 8901, Madison, WI 53708-8901.

If you do not appeal this notice or pay the amount due, you will be charged additional interest of 18% per year and a delinquent tax collection fee equal to the greater of $35 or 6 1/2% of the unpaid balance. We may also take additional collection action, which could include filing a tax lien.
APPEAL RIGHTS AND PROCEDURES

If you feel this adjustment is incorrect, you have the right to appeal certain items. Appealable and Non-appealable items are listed below:

Appealable
- Tax adjustments
- Estimated tax amount due
- Late filing fee
- Negligence Penalty
- Underpayment Interest

Non Appealable
- Interest
- Return Item Charge
- Refund Offsets

You must appeal within 60 days of your receipt of this notice. Your appeal must be in writing (preferably typed) and be signed. Your appeal should explain clearly and concisely why you think the department’s action is incorrect. Include any supporting documents with your letter of appeal. Faxed appeals are accepted.

If you wish to stop the accumulation of interest during the appeal period, deposit the entire amount of tax, interest, and penalty due with the department, and write “Deposit” on your payment. Any deposit amount later refunded will include interest at the rate of 9% per year from the date of deposit.

You may pay any portion of the amount due that you agree is correct. Such payment will be considered an admission of the correctness of that portion of the notice.

You may file your appeal online at https://tap.revenue.wi.gov or send your written appeal to Wisconsin Department of Revenue, PO Box 8906, Madison, WI 53708-8906. Include your tax account number and the tax period of this notice in all correspondence.

As an alternative to an immediate appeal, you may choose to pay the full amount due. If you later wish to contest some or all of the adjustment(s), you may file a claim for refund. The claim must state the items you feel are incorrect and why, and must be filed within the statute of limitation time constraints explained in Wisconsin Publication 505.
