SUNDAY WORSHIP SERVICE
September 18, 2016

WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS Marilyn Taylor. .......................... 9:55 am

PRELUDE: My Shepherd Will Supply Your Need

TOLLING OF THE BELL

CALL TO WORSHIP:
Liturgist: Come, let us celebrate God’s wonderful redeeming love!
People: For even while we were yet in sin God loved us and felt our pain.
Liturgist: God’s sorrows over our sins are real and the Lord sees the love we miss.
People: God has many blessings for all who repent, but sin must be judged.
Liturgist: Then let us repent and seek the Lord with praise and joyful worship.
All: Blessed be the name of the Lord!

HYMN #51 Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah CWM RHONDDA

CALL TO CONFESSION:
Prayer: Lord, like stubborn and willful children we have each one turned from You to seek our own way in life. As earthly parents we feel the agony in our hearts when children we love turn away and hurt us, but we are slow to realize that in our pride and self-determination we have also rejected You. Forgive us, O Lord, and call us again to be Your children. In Christ we pray. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon
The Apostle’s Creed
I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; And in Jesus Christ His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

THE PEACE:
Leader: May the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
People: And also with you.
(You may greet one another)

Gloria Patri: Glory be to the Father and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen.

OFFERTORY I’ll Walk with God Brodsky
Ann Royer
Doxology - Praise God from whom all blessings flow; Praise Him, all creatures here below; Praise Him above, ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Prayer of Dedication

TIME OF PRAYER:
Call to Prayer: Thou Wilt Keep Him in Perfect Peace
Silent, Pastoral and the Lord’s Prayer:
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil; for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever, Amen.

COFFEE FELLOWSHIP AFTER WORSHIP SERVICES
Hosted by Creative Fellowship
Nursery/childcare available in Fellowship Hall

(Please stand if able)
O Heavenly Father, of God Love, You gave us Your Son Jesus to be not only Physician of our souls but also Healer of our bodies and minds. Lord Jesus, I turn to You in this time of illness. Please come to me now, and lay your healing hands on me. Let the warmth, peace and healing power of Your Spirit fill me now with Your life and love. I receive You, Lord Jesus! Heal me according to Your Divine Will, Lord Jesus, and enable me to serve You with a healthy body, soul, and spirit. May Your Joy, O Lord, be my strength this day. Amen.

This month we will celebrate and follow the path of the Presbyterian Mission Agency’s “Season of Peace”, although we do not collect for the Peace & Global Witness Offering, we can still learn how our denomination follows Christ’s mission to be the bearer of peace and justice.

2016 Peace Cards for

Peacemaking begins with individuals and families, then quickly moves to our communities and the world. Peace Cards provide an opportunity for families to engage in practical and real conversations about peacemaking. Designed for a multigenerational time of sharing, Peace Cards encourage the whole family to share their perspectives, life experiences, and hopes about peace in their homes, community, and the world.

Keep the cards on the table where your family eats. At mealtime, draw a card and read the statement or question out loud. Give everyone an opportunity to share their experiences and ideas and let the conversation grow into actions. Peace Cards can be used anywhere and with anyone—at dinnertime or family gatherings, during fellowship meals at church, or as icebreakers for study groups or in-depth conversations on long bus rides with youth. Use one card per day during the Season of Peace and let the conversations become avenues for peacemaking.

PEACE IN THE WORLD

Question: Where do you see peace in your world today?

Action: Make a peace garden with rocks. Color or paint rocks writing words of hope, peace, and love. Create a little garden with the rocks. People can take a rock if they need it or add one if they have something positive to share.

Prayer: God of the World, sometimes all we see are the bad things in our world, but peace, hope, and love are all around us. Help us to make these things grow like a garden. Help us to nurture them so that they are a larger part of your world. Amen.

DANCE IT OUT

Question: Sometimes we don’t feel peaceful. What things make you feel frustrated or angry and get in the way of feeling at peace?

Action: Dance it out! Pick a song for your family to use to dance out frustrations or anger. Make a family pact that everyone will join in if a family member needs to dance it out.

Prayer: Lord of the Dance, you have created us to do amazing things, to express ourselves through our emotions, our words, our actions, our bodies. Sometimes we don’t like the feelings we are having. Help us to find constructive ways to deal with those feelings. Help us to find safe places to share and to dance them out so that nothing gets in the way of feeling loved by you. Amen.

MAKING A BETTER WORLD

Question: What things would you like to change to make our world better?

Action: Create a “Jar of Change.” Write “Jar of Change” on an old jar. This month, don’t spend any coins—place them in the jar and save them to help change the world. Decide as a family where your money will go. You might give it to someone in need or to support a mission of your church or an agency that works for change in your community.

Prayer: God of Change, we like things to stay as they are, comfortable and familiar. Don’t let us be satisfied with the way things are. We need to be agents of change and improvement. Please take these few coins and multiply their use as an offering to you. Amen.

HOSPITALITY AND PEACE

Question: Hospitality is a way to help people know they are welcomed. When company visits, you prepare to make them feel at home. As a church, how can we make all people feel more welcomed?

Action: If your church doesn’t have greeters on Sunday morning, offer to start that ministry so that people are welcomed as they enter the church. If we bring a new enthusiasm to our hospitality, people who wonder if the church will accept them may truly feel welcomed in God’s house.

Prayer: God who welcomes the stranger, help us open our doors and our arms to welcome those who don’t think they belong. Help us to be the people who wonder if the church will accept them may truly feel welcomed in God’s house. Help us to make you a priority, to find the quiet and stillness to confess our sins. As the words disappear, you are given a second chance to be a peace-filled family.

PEACE IN THE FAMILY

Question: Living in a family isn’t easy. We aren’t always considerate to each other. What are some things you do that get in the way of good relationships in your family?

Action: Have a family bonfire. Write down the things that we do that get in the way of our family relationships. Burn these words as a symbol of confessing our sins. As the words disappear, you are given a second chance to be a peace-filled family.

Prayer: God of Wind and Fire, we aren’t always at our best with those we love most. Help us change our ways. As the fire burns, remind us that you give us second chances. Help us feel your forgiving embrace, reminding us that we can do better. Amen.

PEACE AND THE PACE OF LIFE

Question: Sometimes we don’t feel peaceful. What things make you feel frustrated or angry and get in the way of feeling at peace?

Action: Do a time of sharing, Peace Cards encourage the whole family to share their perspectives, life experiences, and hopes about peace in their homes, community, and the world.

Prayer: God of Patience, we try to squeeze you into a few moments, but it’s difficult to find the time. Thank you for always being there for us. Help us to make you a priority, to find the quiet and stillness to be closer to you. Amen.
