Continuing Education and Professional Development
SPRING 2016

THE CITY UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK
College of Staten Island
WELCOME FROM THE PRESIDENT

I am delighted to welcome you to the College of Staten Island, a senior college of The City University of New York.

Here on our beautiful 204-acre campus, you will join other students who are pursuing associate’s degrees in selective areas, a comprehensive range of bachelor’s and master’s degrees, and doctoral degrees offered at the College or in cooperation with The Graduate Center, CUNY.

CSI is an exciting place, and our faculty, staff, and students are committed to contributing to the Staten Island community, New York City, and to our national and global society. Our Office of Continuing Education and Professional Development is one of several vital links between the College and our community, administering for-credit, non-credit, and certificate programs that focus on lifelong learning and the development of career-related skills through a variety of high-quality courses, all of which reflect CSI’s mission of excellence in teaching and learning.

I invite you to explore the many personal and professional development opportunities available to you here at CSI, and I encourage you to visit the Office of Continuing Education and Professional Development at our new Merrill Avenue campus.

I look forward to your great success at the College.

Sincerely,

Dr. William J. Fritz, PhD
President
I am very pleased to share our Spring 2016 Catalog with the Staten Island community and our students. This fall, we have a diverse and expansive offering of courses and programs that can enrich and transform the lives of students, their families, and the many communities of Staten Island and New York City.

For those seeking to enter the workforce or change careers, we have programs that will prepare students for new occupations in growing fields, particularly in the expanding healthcare sector. For professionals, we offer courses that will assist you in achieving or maintaining various licensure requirements. Additionally, we are able to provide Staten Island employers with a credentialed workforce through our certificate programs, as well as professional development opportunities for their staff. We can customize offerings to meet the needs of the many organizations and businesses that contribute to the vitality of Staten Island and New York City.

We are also very pleased to facilitate college preparation and developmental education programs such as the CUNY Start Program, which provides incoming first-year students with the academic and college readiness skills they need to be successful in their undergraduate studies. The CUNY Language Immersion Program (CLIP) assists non-native English speakers preparing for college and employment. We are also proud of our Adult Learning Center, which provides programs for high school equivalency completion as well as college and employment preparedness.

We are dedicated to Staten Island residents throughout their lives. We are delighted to offer our OPTIONS program for Staten Islanders over the age of 55, as well as educational programs for young people over the summer and throughout the calendar year. In addition, we are committed to our programs that support Staten Islanders and New York City residents with disabilities.

I invite you to learn with us this fall, and to reach out to us with any questions or suggestions that you may have. We are committed to help you reach your goals as an individual or on behalf of your organization.

I look forward to seeing you on our campus and in the community this spring.

CUNY LANGUAGE IMMERSION PROGRAM (CLIP)
The CUNY Language Immersion Program (CLIP) offers you the opportunity to study English for an intensive period of time before you enroll (or re-enroll) in formal college courses. You will learn reading, writing, and communication skills that will help you to be a successful college student at CUNY.

When do classes meet?
Classes meet for 25 hours per week. Day and evening sessions are available.

Who may attend program?
Only students who have been admitted to a CUNY college may attend CLIP, including students who wish to learn more English before beginning college coursework or those referred to CLIP by a college advisor.

How long can I stay in CLIP?
You may enroll in CLIP for up to one year.

Will I have to use my financial aid to pay for CLIP?
No. During your time in CLIP, you will not use your financial aid.
Will it be easy for me to return to the CUNY college to which I was accepted to after I leave CLIP?
Yes. A place at the CUNY college to which you were accepted is reserved for you. You will receive assistance to make this transition when you are ready to return.

How can I enroll?

COMPUTER PROGRAMS

THE ADULT LEARNING CENTER
The Adult Learning Center at the College of Staten Island offers a number of different options to people who want to get a high school degree, learn English as a second language, improve their career readiness, explore their educational opportunities, or even apply to college. Our classes are free to members of the entire Staten Island community. Below is a list of the programs we offer. Not sure which program is for you? Call 718.313.0851 to make an appointment with our Assessment Coordinator. Together, you can find out which program is the best fit for you and your goals.

The Adult Learning Center offers the following classes:

Adult Basic Education
These classes provide instruction that enables students to improve their reading, writing, and math skills.

Adult Secondary Education
These classes, also called High School Equivalency (HSE), provide instruction in reading, writing, science, social studies, and math, in order for students to pass the TASCTM Test and earn a HSE diploma in New York State. These classes are offered in both English and Spanish.

College Transition
These classes provide instruction to students who have already passed or are close to passing the GED or TASCTM tests and want to prepare to take the CUNY Assessment Tests to enroll in a CUNY college.

English for Speakers of Other Languages
These classes provide English language instruction to students seeking to improve their abilities to speak, understand, read, and write the English language. Classes are offered to students at all levels; however the upper-level classes focus on preparing for college-level work. Join our Facebook page at ESL Program at the College of Staten Island.

MATURE LEARNERS

OPTIONS PROGRAM FOR MATURE LEARNERS
A program specifically designed for individuals over age 55

“Learning is a lifetime journey… growing older merely adds experience to knowledge of man, and wisdom to curiosity.”
—C. E. Lawrence (author)

The College of Staten Island OPTIONS program offers opportunities for learning, creativity, socialization, and fun…keeping students active, involved, and thriving! Courses range from Shakespeare to technology, politics to painting, and history to religion. There’s something for everyone. All courses are non-credit with no tests or grades and are open to anyone 55 and older. A one-time semester fee of $75 allows students to take a variety of courses designed with their interests and needs in mind. An end-of-semester luncheon and a club that meets every Thursday afternoon help to create an engaging experience of learning and socialization. For more information, please call 718.982.2182.

PROGRAMS FOR PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

AHRC MELISSA RIGGIO HIGHER EDUCATION PROGRAM
AHRC New York City’s Melissa Riggio Higher Education Program at the College of Staten Island (CSI) is a fully inclusive college-based program designed to prepare people with intellectual and developmental disabilities for adult life through higher education coursework, career exploration and preparation, self-awareness and personal improvement, community engagement, and the development of self-advocacy skills. This is a non-credit, non-degree program that provides individualized academic, vocational, community, and social experiences for young adults in a highly supportive, yet challenging environment. These students have the same opportunities for social and personal growth as other young adults at the college level. Each student has an individualized weekly schedule. Students are encouraged to think critically, as well as to develop an academic and life plan. Students take classes that are reflective of areas of interest and strength, as well as the core courses required of all students. Melissa Riggio Higher Education Programs students are pursuing internships, both on and off campus, in a variety of areas. The social conscience and personal dedication of the College’s administration and faculty and AHRC New York City administrators and program staff enable us to collectively struggle, grow, persist, and share with others, creating new enduring models for education for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities. For more information, call the Melissa Riggio Program at 718.982.2083.

CREATIVE EXCHANGE PROGRAM
The Creative Exchange Program has been serving developmentally disabled adults in a non-degree program for more than 30 years. Creative Exchange consistently offers a wide range of classes that include, but are not limited to, English language arts, poetry, world history, and geography. Students enrolled must be at least 21 years of age. Classes are run in the evenings, from Tuesday through Friday, in the community and on campus, from mid-September until mid-May, from 6:30pm to 8:30pm.

The Creative Exchange Program also offers a more demanding program called Life Skills. This program also serves developmentally disabled adults, aged 21 and older, in a non-degree program. Classes offered include math, reading, social studies, social skills, and group interaction. Students are also encouraged to work independently on a number of assignments. Classes are held on Mondays and Thursdays, 6:30pm to 8:30pm, and follow the College calendar. Applying to both programs is achieved by completing the registration form and sending it with the required attachments.

Registration forms can be obtained by emailing michael.green@csi.cuny.edu.

HC4 Program

The HC4 Program can help you. Health Careers College Core Curriculum (HC4)

The 1199SEIU Training and Employment Fund’s Health Careers College Core Curriculum (HC4) is a credited college program offered through The City University of New York (CUNY). The program gives 1199SEIU members the opportunity to earn college credits in prerequisite classes designed specifically for working health professionals as a step toward matriculation into a degree program. Courses offered through the College of Staten Island are off campus at 1199 sites in Staten Island, Manhattan, and Brooklyn (except for biology).

Members are enrolled in cohort (group) classes that are supported by skilled case managers and counselors who provide:

- Counseling on campus and at the Fund
- Assistance with course selection, matriculation into appropriate majors, and referral to support services
- Support services including tutoring and workshops to assist with college-level work.
- Members benefit from no out-of-pocket expenses for tuition.

Returning to college has never made more sense. For more information, call 718.982.2180.

“I wouldn’t have made it through college without the HC4 program. They really support the students.”

The English Language Institute (ELI)

The English Language Institute of the Center for International Service offers: small class sizes with excellent opportunities to use English through intensive English language instruction and cultural orientation, and all aspects of spoken and written English (listening, speaking, reading, and writing).

ELI students in F or J status participate in CSI campus events and activities, which fosters English language practice and integration into campus life (optional for students with other status).

Classes range from beginner to advanced levels of proficiency.
Workshops are available for formal test preparation, such as the TOEFL, CAT-W, and ACT exams.
Semester sessions typically begin in late January and late August.
Two Intensive Summer Sessions are offered with 22 hours of instruction per week.
All classes are fee based.
Tutoring sessions are now available on request.

ELI offers international events: lectures and workshops that help students understand U.S. culture and institutions, culture day, coffee hours. Students receive a certificate after completion of each session. Students applying to ELI must complete an application, provide proof of financial support (for non-immigrants in F or J status), and pay a $100 application fee and a document processing fee, if issuing an I-20.

ELI works with the CSI Admissions staff in providing assistance to students interested in applying to CSI for an undergraduate or graduate degree.
For questions, call 718.982.2100, email elistudy@csi.cuny.edu or check ELI’s Website at www.csi.cuny.edu/international and click on “Welcome to the Center for International Service.”
Find us on Facebook: www.facebook.com/englishinnewyork.

Increase your English proficiency and broaden your academic and professional opportunities!
ELI is a member of AAIEP.

“Thanks to the great teachers and classmates, I don’t fear speaking English anymore. I will recommend the ELI to my friends.”

All veterans interested in obtaining information from the VA regarding their eligibility for funding need to have a copy of their DD-214 form.

Launch Your Creativity
Summer at CSI
July 11-August 11

The magic in every camper comes to life as never before when they are empowered to be as creative as they were all born to be! Our instructors have more than a decade of experience designing camps in the S.T.E.M. and Digital Arts fields. Every program is powered by the camper’s innate imagination and designed to bring their ideas to life in a fun, hands-on, learning environment. From concept to creation, students will demonstrate their masterpiece to the world at the end of each week!

All programs mirror real-life experiences and the collaborative nature of the design process. Students will work in pairs or teams for most of the program.

Minecraft™ Designers and Animators

If you love the game Minecraft, but always wanted to design your own characters and buildings for your games, this class is for you! Learn the basics of creating 3D models using a new software to design your very own objects, create skins for characters, and import them into your favorite Minecraft games. Bring your favorite Minecraft™ characters to life in an animated short film! Learn how studios like Pixar and Disney make movies like Inside Out and Frozen using techniques like keyframing, tweening, texturing, and animating rigged 3D models! Discover the basics of modding and the foundations of programming, and learn scripting and logic statements as you create your first mod! Introductory coding is also taught through a simulated environment inspired by Minecraft™.

You do not need to own a Minecraft account to use the software.

Students work in teams for most of the program.

New! 3D Video Game and Maker Lab Creations

Develop a game concept that goes well beyond the limitations of traditional 2D game design classes. Learn the physics behind 3D games, explore beginner event scripting, level design, controlling flow of game play, and storytelling. Design your first action figure, fashion custom jewelry, or a new creation! Using professional-level modeling software, sculpt, texture, and learn to render your own 3D creation. If you can dream it, you can make it!

No previous experience is necessary.
Students work in pairs or teams for most of the program.
3D printing is not included, but can be purchased separately through a third-party company.
Student-created games will be available on a password-protected Black Rocket Website to share with friends and family on the last program day and beyond.

Code Breakers and App Designers

Calling all future coders, programmers, and designers! Learn the basics of coding languages like HTML5, JavaScript, and CSS through a series of Web projects and design challenges each day, and take the first step toward becoming the next tech star! Also, enter into the world of mobile app design and customize your own game app! Using a specialized game development tool, students will explore the world of phone-based and tablet applications. In addition to learning the basics of mobile app design and game development, you will also see firsthand how the world of app publishing functions.

Parents may choose to publish apps if certain criteria are met; final decisions are at the sole discretion of Apple or Google.

Student-created apps will be accessible on a private site and can be played on any mobile device or computer.

Students do not need to own a smartphone or tablet to enroll in this program.

No previous experience is necessary. Returning students can take previous projects to a new level!

Video Game Creators & Animators

If you love playing video games, this is the camp for you! Make your first video game in this one-of-a-kind class that shows you the keys to designing your first 2D platformer game. Conceptualization, play experience, challenge levels, graphics, sounds, and simple coding are just some of the concepts that we’ll explore. Then take your game design to the next level by creating and animating your own character sprites, objects, and backgrounds. Develop the character’s personality, signature moves, special powers, and a story line. Finish with a fully animated character to be used in your games. No prior experience necessary, just a desire to have fun.

Student-created apps will be accessible on a private site and can be played on any mobile device or computer. Games are only compatible on PC computers, Mac versions can be created after the program for a $15 conversion fee. Students will work in pairs or teams for most of the program.
