Thank You, Susan!

Susan Lettis has served as our newsletter editor over the fall and winter months. Her work load has increased to the point where she is no longer able to devote time to it. And, she will be leaving Cooperstown in August to enter law school in Vermont. Please share your appreciate with her. Wish her best of luck and find out what her favorite cookies are so we can keep her well fed. God go with you!

Welcome to Rev. Dr. Miriam Hathaway

Rev. Hathaway is no stranger to us, having filled our pulpit about once a month beginning last fall. The Session is delighted to announce that the way has been made clear for her for be with us more frequently as our Temporary Part-Time Supply Pastor for pastoral care and worship leadership. She will be moving into the Manse during the last week of June and commence her time with us on July 1. She was approved by our Presbytery’s Committee on Ministry and welcomed into the Presbytery of Utica at the last Presbytery Meeting. This enables her to also moderate our Session and congregational meetings.

She is excited about coming to be with us. The duration of her time in Cooperstown depends entirely upon the work of the Pastor Nominating Committee. She will fill our needs until a new pastor is called. And, she’ll be here just in time for the Ice Cream Social. Welcome!

Pam Gnagy is Candidate for Ordination

Congratulations to Pamela Gnagy for completing her seminary course work. She presented a statement of faith and was examined before the Presbytery in May. She was officially moved into the Candidate for Ordination status. We will be privileged to have her lead us in worship on June 28 and July 19 before she returns to Atlanta to study for ordination exams. Pam is under care of this congregation. Come wish her well at coffee hour on July 19.

Mid-Summer Mission Meetings 2009

Please join us for informal discussions after Sunday worship and coffee hour in the Chapel. 11:00 AM to Noon.

Musings from the Peripatetic Poo-bah

There’s a Lot Going On Around Here!

Summer is not a quiet time in Cooperstown, or in the life of this congregation. The PNC has been meeting two or three times a week for several weeks now. They are reviewing over seventy Pastor Information Forms, some from our PCUSA computer match and others that are “self referrals.” They’ve been emailing, listening to sermon tapes, watching service video tapes, sequestering themselves around a speaker phone and, no doubt, praying a lot. It is rumored that some of them also maintain full time jobs. Your congregation thanks you!

The long awaited Ice Cream Social kicks off our official Summer on July 3. I hear there is a shift from hot dogs and mac salads to hamburgers and potato salad. The outrageous cakes and ice cream remain the same, however. Come, help out, enjoy the food and fellowship and sell tickets to friends and neighbors. The SAM (Social Action Mission) Team has a rich menu of Mid Summer Mission Meetings planned for four Sunday mornings after worship. (Carol and I promise to edit our slides down from the 2,000 that we have our Turkey and Greece Pilgrimage.) There are notable birthdays to celebrate—John Calvin and Esther Brooks. (Not from the same centuries or month, of course.) And, we have a wonderful cello and piano recital planned to raise funds for our Sanctuary roof repair. For the younger folks, Vacation Bible School is planned for August at Christ Episcopal Church. Don’t miss that fun.

Industrious folks have been scurrying around behind the scenes while the “warm” weather is with us. A team of Presbyterian Decent and Good Order Cleaners took on the Manse in mid June to prepare a clean home for Miriam Hathaway. New outdoor carpet will be installed on the back deck of the Manse. The sewing and soup ladies provided a professional rug shampoo for the Manse and first floor of the Church House. Looks mighty spiffy in there. Al Berden is taking on outdoor tidying in the cemetery and around the grounds. Lighting adjustments are being made to our new front sign. Betty Baxter keeps us tidy inside and informed with bulletins and posters and phone messages and a host of other communications.

CR Jones has been dealing with repairs or replacements to phones, our computer network, a fax machine and our Sanctuary and Chapel sound systems in the wake of the dramatic lightening strike in April. Many thanks to the Cooperstown Volunteer Fire Department and Kevin Preston, our electrician, who turned out so quickly and inspected our steeple and church facilities so thoroughly that night and the next day. Thanks, also, to the members of PNC who phoned in the call after they were blown out of their seats in the Church House. (They are still not revealing the name of the pastoral candidate being discussed at that moment.)

And, I suppose that I should mention that Elder Edward Ratazzi passed the Moderator’s Cross on to me at the Utica Presbytery meeting in May. I am delighted and a bit apprehensive. But, I’ll have the pleasure of welcoming the Presbytery here in November as Moderator, in addition to tending to a host of other tasks throughout this year.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL COME ONE! COME ALL!
5:00-8:00 PM
FRIDAY JULY 3, 2009

We need cakes, baked goods, macaroni salads/potato salads and willing hands to work at cutting, scooping, serving and helping in the kitchen.

White Elephant/Flea Market- we need clean items in good condition which will sell!
Plants- house or garden plants. Make sure that transplants are well rooted. Identify plants with labels.
Baked Goods- sign up to bake for the Bake Sale Booth.
Fair Trade Table- Sue Jones will again have a Free Trade Table this year!

Please see sign up sheets in the Chapel!!
Any Questions? Please call Sylvia @ 547-5315

Dick and Shirley Reese – Grandparents Again!
Members of the Reese family were long time members of First Presbyterian, Cooperstown. Dick worked as a physician at MIBH. Shirley taught at Cooperstown Elementary. Their son Matt, a CCS grad, and his wife, Kendra, had a baby boy on June 11, 2009. Arriving at 9 lbs. 8 oz, young Miles made his parents, grandparents, and aunt and big brother Elliott very happy. Dick and Shirley now live near Portland, Maine.

Deacons’ Notes

At Cooperstown Presbyterian each deacon is responsible for a group of members whom they reach out to, try to keep in touch with, and uphold in their prayers, especially in times of need. Because our church is without a pastor right now, the deacons, in their individual ways, have been trying to be especially vigilant about keeping up with the members of their groups.

For several years these groupings have been called “Koinonia Groups.” Recently, some of our church members and friends have asked what they are all about and what Koinonia means. It is a Greek word that refers to a community, society, communion, or a caring group. However, our deacons’ groups do not gather together, and the individual members are not aware of who else is under the same deacon. The deacons decided at our last meeting that because the groups are not a “community” that meets or bonds together, this might be a good time to change the name. We decided to call them Deacons’ Care Groups.

Each deacon will continue to have several people in his or her Care Group, and some inactive deacons may also have a few people under their care. Every member of the church belongs to a Care Group assigned to a deacon, and you all should feel free to contact “your deacon” when you have a special concern or prayer need.

Session News

Many thanks to the PNC for their hard work. Our Church Information Form was well received by the Presbytery Committee on Ministry, and seems to be catching the eye of candidates for our clergy position.
Session has reviewed and adopted the PCUSA Guidelines for Presbyterians during Times of Disagreement. Session will refer to this as guidelines for our standard of behavior and communication. Other FPC committees and teams are also encouraged to do so.
Session is developing a policy regarding removal of inactive members from the church rolls. This policy will be made available to the congregation when it is approved by session, prior to its implementation.
Session thanks Marsha Thayer of New Hartford Presbyterian for moderating our Session since last Spring. She is stepping down as Rev. Hathaway joins us as Temporary Supply Pastor.
Session is coordinating the updating of our policies for weddings in our facilities by non-members and our facility use guidelines. A benefit classical music recital to raise funds for the Sanctuary roof repair was approved.

News from the Pews

Need a ride?
We now have a transportation connector!!!
Mildred (Mimi) Lehman has agreed to keep track of who rides and who has offered to drive people to church services, activities or events, or even to doctor’s appointments. Leave your name and phone number with Mimi if you can be a driver.

If you need a ride, call Mimi to find out who is on the list of drivers. She will give you the names and numbers so that you can make your arrangements directly with the driver. Mimi’s phone number is 547-8365.

Thank You to All Participants
On March 14th a Christian Peace Witness for Iraq and Afghanistan was held in the chapel, six years after the beginning of the Iraq war. The prayer service included reading the names of soldiers killed this past year, as well as remembering thousands of Iraqi and Afghani deaths and asking God’s tender care for grieving families. After a candlelight walk on Main Street and back there was the opportunity to write letters of sympathy to relatives of Michael Main and Alfred Jex. Thank you for keeping these people in your prayers.

All Are Welcome at The Lord’s Table
Thanks to all the loyal church members who have faithfully served at The Lord’s Table in Oneonta.
We have forged a connection with those we serve.

Please join us and add this worthy service to your life of giving. Our church is responsible for serving the meals on the 4th Wednesday of each month.

Wedding Bells for Tim Dunlap and Hannah
Dustin
Congratulations, Tim and Hannah will be married on June 27 in Plattsburgh, NY. They plan to reside in Phoenix, AZ.

New Pictorial Directory Is Planned
The Session has approved the creation of a new pictorial church directory. As in the past, we will be working with Olan Mills to facilitate this. Olan Mills will give one free directory and one 8x10 photo of your “directory photo” to each family unit. We believe that the new directory will be a wonderful aid to a newly installed pastor when that time arrives, helping the new Pastor to get to know the congregation.

Congregation members and friends will be hearing more about this endeavor over the summer. The pictures will be taken between 3 and 9:30 PM on September 23, 2009. Please mark this date on your calendars.

Since many members use the directory with great frequency, having a current one with updated information will be a real help. We are looking for someone who would like to head up this project and for people willing to work with on it. If you would like to help or take a on a leadership role, please contact Karen Mi-han. (547-5815).

Happy Birthday, Esther!
Esther Brooks is having a big birthday this summer.
Please join her in celebrating with light lunch and good fellowship on Sunday, August 2 after worship in the Chapel. All welcome.

Fr. Sam Abbott Retires from Christ Church
Join our neighbors at Christ Episcopal Church in honoring Fr. Sam Abbott’s retirement at the end of June.
A Community Concert with talent from Christ Church and our Cooperstown community will take place in the Sanctuary at 5 pm on Sunday, June 28. A reception will follow in the Parish Hall. All are welcome. Fr.
Sam and his wife will be moving to Massachusetts.
The new rector and his family will arrive in August.
Confirmation 2009
Congratulations John Monk, Sarah Jane Morosko, Park Summers!

Vacation Bible School
Our kitchen apprentices look like good candidates for Vacation Bible School. VBS will be offered during the first week of August at Christ Episcopal Church. Contact Nancy Morris for more information. 547-6077. Or, attend a planning meeting on June 24, 7 PM at Christ Church, Benefit Concert for Sanctuary Roof

Victoria is the wife of Zachary Swartzman, grandson of Bobbie Mook. Both are musicians with the Glimmerglass Opera. Peter and Katie enjoy overhearing their practice sessions on our church pianos throughout the summer. Their gracious sharing of their talents for the Sanctuary roof project is greatly appreciated.

Bring your neighbors and friends for this enjoyable and memorable afternoon. A free will offering will be taken and all proceeds go toward repair of the Sanctuary roof. Suggested donation is $8.00 for adults, $6.00 for youth. Children under twelve are free. A light reception will follow in the Chapel.

Celebrate John Calvin’s 500th Birthday
It’s a Presbyterian Block Party! Join us in the Chapel on Wednesday, July 8 starting at 6:15 PM for a period potluck. Tom Heitz will present a talk on John Calvin and our Presbyterian heritage after the meal.

The SAM (Social Action Mission) Team invites us to bring our most favorite dishes that John Calvin might have eaten from 16th century France and Switzerland. Such dishes might include seasonal berries and vegetables common to Europe; milk products from sheep, goats or cows; meat of beef, swine, deer or poultry; fresh water fish; and delectables dried, salted, smoked or pickled. Honey, whole grain bread, cheeses and eggs were common. (Tomatoes, bananas, pasta, corn and rice, black tea, coffee and chocolate were exotic foods and, in some cases, considered not palatable by John and his neighbors.)

The SAM Team has provided some suggested recipes and a sign up sheet in the back of the Sanctuary. And, if you’re not up to the 1500’s foodways challenge, come anyway. There will be plenty to share, and most will be familiar. Friends, neighbors and the curious are also welcome.

Is it Tom Heitz or John Calvin? Find out in July.
