Coming off the team’s fifth season under head coach Tim Whittle, the Scots are poised for a large leap of progress and building a lasting tradition of basketball at Macalester College. Whittle came to Macalester from his alma mater, Washington University in St. Louis, and helped lead the Bears to three straight Division III Final Fours (2007-2009) and back-to-back National Championships (2008 & 2009). He coached and recruited the 2008 Division III National Player-of-the Year, six Division III All-Americans and three Academic All-Americans in his five years as an assistant with the Bears.

With the $45 million Leonard Center Athletic Complex, Macalester has a commitment to athletics being an extension of the classroom and a balance between strong academics and strong athletics. Macalester basketball players come from all over the world and US, currently 8 states. Former players are successful investment bankers, doctors, lawyers, teachers, coaches, and college professors. The Scots play in the highly competitive Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. The MIAC was founded in 1920 and offers championships in 22 varsity sports.

Tuition: Tuition for the camp includes 5 days of camp and a Macalester Basketball t-shirt. The cost is $150 for the week. A deposit of $100 is required with the application and the balance is due by June 16, 2014. There will be no refunds of the $100 deposit after June 1st. Prior to June 1st, a $35 handling fee will be forfeited for any cancellations.

Arrival/Departure Times: Registration will be from 8:30-9:00 am on the first day of camp. Registration will take place in the lobby of the Leonard Center Athletic Complex. The gym will open daily at 8:30am and close promptly at 5:00pm.

What to Bring: Athletic/basketball gear—shirts, shorts, socks and shoes.

Medical: A certified athletic trainer is on duty during all activity periods. Access to a medical doctor and an emergency medical facility will also be available. The athletic trainer will determine when emergency medical treatment is needed.

Insurance: Each camper will be covered by their own medical insurance for emergency medical care. Please check with your primary health care provider to make sure your child is covered for this activity. Insurance information as well as the parental consent signature necessary for emergency medical treatment must be completed on the application.

Discipline: Each camper is expected to follow the rules and regulations of the camp. These rules will be explained to the camper during the orientation program upon arrival at camp. The rules are designed to provide the best and safest possible learning environment for each camper. Failure to adhere to these rules could result in discipline or even expulsion from camp.
