“Freedom Fifty-Five” (John 12:23-26)

There is an investment firm that calls their financial retirement plan “Freedom Fifty-Five.” In their TV ads, they show people resting beside a beautiful lake or traveling to exotic locations. This all based on the premise that if you prepare for retirement you will enjoy a life of leisure, a life of freedom from financial worries. And we spend a lot of time as we near retirement age worrying about that time. Will we have enough money coming in so that we can do some of those things we have put off? Will we stay sufficiently healthy, so that we might enjoy our retirement years? Yes, many of us worry about our retirement, but what about our future life? Once in a while we should think about our preparation for death. And, in particular, the life to come after our deaths? Jesus in the Gospel uses an agricultural analogy to make his point. He talks about a grain of wheat falling to the earth where it dies, but when it dies it sprouts and produces a stalk of wheat with a much fruit.

Jesus tells us that if we love this life too much, we may lose it, but if we hate this life we will gain eternal life. This statement was a predictor of his own suffering and death. His body was tortured, and killed, and planted in the ground, but then God raised him up. His resurrection resulted in the salvation of the world. His death bore much fruit indeed. This puts a whole new complexion on dying, and on our own preparation for death. What Jesus is saying is that we need to die to this world, to die to those non-spiritual things which distract us from our true destiny which is eternal life with him in heaven. So instead of worrying about retirement, we should be thinking about our progress in our preparation for our own death. And the best way to prepare is to stop worrying about tomorrow, and to act today in accordance with Christ’s commandments to love God and neighbour. We prepare for the next life by caring for others. Our God is gracious and merciful. It is his love that compels us to treat others with mercy and kindness. Let’s get ready for the next life, an eternal life of joy and happiness with Jesus, by treating others with mercy and love just as Christ has treated us. Once we are truly ready for our next life “Freedom Fifty-Five” will seem to be a trivial goal indeed.

Deacon Paul Coderre

Your Weekly Smile
A couple of volunteers from the St. Vincent de Paul Society were delivering holiday goodies to some neighbours during a terrible blizzard. When they arrived at the home of two sisters who were well into their nineties, they were surprised to see the sisters pulling their car out of the garage. When they asked the sisters where they were going in such a storm, they smiled and replied, “We’re going to visit the elderly.”
“Parish Facts”

Enactment of the Passion of Christ

Once again this year we will enact the Passion of Christ in full costume. The enactment will take place in the Church on Wednesday evening March 23rd immediately following the normal Wednesday evening Mass. There will be rehearsals on the following Tuesday evenings commencing at 7:00 p.m. March 15th and 22nd. Watch for the sign-up sheet in the Vestibule or let Deacon Paul know if you are interested in taking part in this moving enactment.

Fun Facts

Religion and football require obedience to particular rules, whether it’s the Ten Commandments or a requirement to dislike the opposing team! LOL

Both require disciplining of body and mind!

The faithful don’t get angry if God doesn’t deliver a miracle every week!

Football fans DO get very annoyed if their team does not perform as expected and miracles are often demanded!

The greatest similarity between religion and football is in FAITH and learning how to work hard and to NEVER GIVE UP!
