I’m not just a nurse.

I’m serving those who have unselfishly served our country.

Arlette, VA RN

Become a VA nurse.

U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs
Veterans Health Administration
Why VA?

The best care starts with the best opportunities.

More than a century ago, President Lincoln made a promise to America’s servicemen and women, pledging the care and concern of a grateful Nation for the sacrifices they made to preserve freedom. Since 1930, the mission of the Department of Veteran’s Affairs (VA) has been to keep that promise.

Today, VA has more than 1,400 medical centers and outpatient clinics across all 50 states, the District of Columbia and U.S. territories, and is the largest, most technologically advanced health care system in the U.S. Our employees work at 153 medical centers, 909 ambulatory and community-based outpatient clinics, 135 nursing homes, and many other facilities, such as domiciliaries and readjustment counseling centers. Whether you’re newly minted or an experienced nurse looking for a change, we invite you to explore the many opportunities and benefits VA affords, including a higher level of nursing practice that is patient-centered.
When you work for VA, you expand your options as a nurse. Our nurses are part of the interdisciplinary care team that includes physicians, therapists, and other health care specialists, who decide the best course of care in both inpatient and outpatient settings. From staff and clinical careers to management, education and research positions, VA offers our nurses a wider range of employment settings and advancement opportunities, as well as the chance to work with the largest employer of nurses in the U.S.

In return for your commitment to quality nursing care for our Nation’s Veterans, VA offers competitive salaries, first-rate employment benefits, a wide range of practice settings, and ample paid leave. Simply put, a nursing career within the VA health care system will allow you to make the most of your training and experience.
As the Nation’s largest employer of nurses, VA offers the best range of practice settings and opportunities. Whether you choose a position in a VA hospital, clinic, nursing home, or other facility, you will be a vital member of our interdisciplinary patient care team framework. And, you will have the ability to change nursing roles and pursue advancement opportunities throughout your career, which is simply unmatched in the private sector.

NURSES AS PROVIDERS
From the bedside to case management, our nurses are responsible for ensuring that our patients receive the best treatment possible. The work is challenging, as Veterans often require complex care. Today’s Veterans include a whole new population of patients who are facing polytraumatic injuries that will require care for the rest of their lives.
NURSES AS LEADERS
At the forefront of the Clinical Nurse Leader (CNL) movement, VA employs CNLs who serve as the point person on patient care teams. VA supports nurses pursuing advanced degrees in this specialty by offering scholarship opportunities. VA nurses can also further their careers as nurse executives, nurse educators, or in other leadership roles through a variety of nursing leadership programs, including the Nurse Manager Core Curriculum, Nurse Executive Rotation, and the Nurse Executive Leadership Program.

NURSES AS INNOVATORS
VA nurses are encouraged to pursue their ideas for improving patient care and patient safety. A VA nurse suggested VA’s most rapidly adopted technology, the Bar Code Medication Administration (BCMA) system. Additionally, VA nurses have received awards and recognition from the VA Office of Nursing Services, the Joint Commission and National Quality Forum, the American Nurses Association, and the American Nurses Credentialing Center for their innovations in chronic pain management, spinal cord injuries, wheelchair safety, and reducing falls.

NURSES AS RESEARCHERS
As one of the largest research organizations in the U.S., VA offers funded research opportunities to nurses. This research aims to improve patient safety, evaluate care delivery models and nursing systems of care, and determine how best to use these delivery models to implement evidence-based practices.

Testimonial

“I was active duty military throughout nursing school, and I knew I wanted to work at VA after I graduated. My assignment to the cardiac step-down unit was intimidating at first, but my orientation was so great, I felt ready for the challenge. But my favorite thing about VA is the Veterans. I don’t have to read about history, I hear it firsthand!”

— Lawrence, VA RN
VA is committed to offering education opportunities throughout a nurse’s career, beginning when he or she is in school. These opportunities are designed to enhance participating nurses’ knowledge and enable them to deliver better patient care.

In addition to clinical rotations for students and extensive orientation programs for all newly hired nurses, VA offers in-service education courses, leadership courses, and National Employee Education Services courses. VA also leads the industry in providing educational assistance and incentive programs that help nurses repay their loans and obtain advanced degrees. (All programs are subject to the availability of funding.)

VA LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES RESIDENCY (VALOR)

The VALOR program allows outstanding students who have completed the final semester or quarter of their junior year in an accredited baccalaureate-nursing program to participate in a paid work experience with a preceptor at an approved VA health care facility.

NATIONAL NURSING EDUCATION INITIATIVE (NNEI)

The NNEI scholarship is awarded to permanent full- and part-time registered nurses who have worked for VA for at least one year to cover tuition costs and related educational expenses for courses in which they are currently enrolled.

EDUCATION DEBT REDUCTION PROGRAM (EDRP)

UPWARD MOBILITY TRAINING PROGRAMS
These programs offer, on a competitive basis, opportunities to advance to higher-level positions.

- There are 10 paid annual Federal holidays.

Only one active, unrestricted state license is required to practice in a VA facility in any of the above locations.

RETIREMENT
VA nurses are covered by the Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS). FERS is a three-tier retirement plan composed of Social Security benefits, FERS basic benefits, and the Thrift Savings Plan (TSP). Similar to the 401(k) savings plans widely available in the private sector, the TSP allows employees to tax defer up to a fixed dollar amount of their income each year, subject to the requirements of the Internal Revenue Service. The Federal Government also provides a basic contribution and matching, depending on the amount of the employee contribution. For retired military personnel, these benefits are in addition to full monthly retirement pay or pension. Retirement health care insurance is also available.
LIABILITY PROTECTION
As Federal employees, VA nurses are protected by the Federal Government in instances of alleged malpractice or negligence resulting from the performance of their duties in or for the Veterans Health Administration of the Department of Veterans Affairs. The United States Government accepts responsibility and liability for its employees’ negligent or wrongful acts or omissions during the exercise of their official duties. This applies when employees’ actions are in accord with the policies of the institution in which they are practicing.

AWARDS AND HONORS
VA bestows both monetary and honorary recognition for superior performance, along with awards for special or unique achievements. Annual VA nursing award programs include the Secretary’s Award for Excellence in Nursing, the Secretary’s Award for Advancement of Nursing Programs, the Office of Nursing Services Innovation Awards, and National Nursing Awards.
