Programme Type

INTEC offers three types of programmes, namely National Qualifications, Provider Programmes, and Agent Programmes:

National Qualifications are credit bearing qualifications registered on the NQF and accredited by a Quality Assurance Body.

Provider Programmes are unique to INTEC and are designed to increase and enhance your skills and knowledge within your chosen field.

Agent Programmes are programmes and qualifications for which INTEC offers tuition, but where INTEC does not issue the final certificate (the agent body issues the final certificate).

For more information about the types of programmes that INTEC offers, please see the INTEC General Brochure.
Career Structure
1. Your fundamental subjects form the foundation of your course and are compulsory.
2. Your core subjects constitute the 2nd level and are compulsory.
3. Your electives contain subjects that are either optional or compulsory on various levels. Instructions are outlined with regard to which levels are applicable for you to select subjects.

Career Opportunities
Safety and Security is the fastest growing sector in the South African economy. This multi-faceted industry offers a range of employment opportunities. The Criminal Justice courses will give you the skills to develop your career right from the start.

About the Credit System
Upon completion of these courses, students may qualify for Credits towards either UNISA degrees or BTech Degrees from TUT.

Accreditation
• SECUDAC
• UNISA (Department of Criminology)
• The South African Legal Institute
• Tshwane University of Technology (TUT)
