Dear Parishioners, ...

As we gather for the 4th Sunday of Advent, our attention is drawn to our celebration of the Incarnation of Christmas. The word “incarnation” is just a fancy way of saying, God became flesh, or blood, tendons, fat, and muscle. God came down and dwelt among us as a human being, except He was free from the stain of sin. Divinity was wedded to humanity, therefore lifting up our fallen nature.

What a marvelous God! Our gratitude for the revelation of this great mystery is so great that we celebrate it for an octave, or 8 days. The octave starts on December 25 and concludes January 1.

I encourage you to celebrate the 8 days this year by coming to Mass each day for the 8 days, (if possible) or come to New Year’s Day Mass at 10:00 a.m.

Merry Christmas! May you have a blessed celebration of God’s love for you.

In Christ’s Peace,

Fr. Marc Howes, Pastor

Winter Giving

We encourage you to automate your regular donations. St. Joseph, Husband of Mary relies on the constant financial support of the parish, and electronic giving offers an easy way to give on a regular basis.

Simply visit:

www.stjosephpathom.org

and click on the donation link.

We thank you for your support.

---

St. Vincent de Paul

St. Vincent de Paul Society is a person-to-person ministry supported through the financial donations of our parishioners. We go out in pairs to the homes of our parishioners and to those who live within our parish boundaries offering spiritual aid and temporary financial assistance. Most people are reluctant to ask for help. If you know of parishioners who are experiencing a sudden loss of income due to illness, death, job-loss or any other life-changing event, please encourage them to call SVdP at 702.304.3034.

Two scheduled members make calls to people leaving messages Monday through Saturday at 8:30 AM and home visits are scheduled accordingly.

If you would like to become involved in this rewarding ministry please call 702.304.3034, leave your telephone number where you can be reached and we will schedule a time to discuss more about SVdP with you.

Dear Padre

December 20, 2015

Wearing liturgical colors can be a reminder of the season

My pastor encourages us to wear liturgical colors to Mass: violet during Advent and Lent, red on Pentecost, and so forth. I notice some parishioners take this to heart, but I’ve never heard of such a thing. Is this something we’re all supposed to do?

The color of the priests’ vestments are dictated by the feasts and seasons of the Church’s liturgical year: Advent, Christmas, Lent, Easter, and Ordinary Time. The colors are listed in the calendar published by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, and the colored squares in the calendar section of this bulletin indicate each day’s color(s). Today, for example, is the fourth Sunday of Advent, so the liturgical color is violet.

Paragraphs 345–347 of the General Instruction of the Roman Missal explain when and why each color is worn. This document is available from the USCCB’s website, usccb.org, but easier still is asking a member of your parish staff about the meanings and symbolism of each liturgical season and color.

Dressing to match the color of the feast or season is certainly not required by the Church, but it’s a common tradition in our culture—consider red Santa hats and green on St. Patrick’s Day. Sometimes the seasons of the Church are lost in the daily hustle and bustle. Wearing something violet as you shop for or wrap Christmas gifts would be a lovely personal reminder of the true meaning of the season.

SJHOM Outreach Ministry

What a beautiful time of the year! Everyone is so busy running here and there, and the children are so excited anticipating Christmas morning.

Let us not forget the true meaning of Christmas. The birth of our Lord Jesus Christ is the reason for the season. May the love of God’s spirit shine in all of us and may His grace and peace be our true Christmas blessing.

The Outreach Ministry here at St. Joseph, Husband of Mary, extend to you and yours our best wishes for a beautiful holiday season. May you share the love in your hearts with family and friends. We thank you for all you do for us all year. Merry Christmas!

Mass Intention Sign Up

Please see Norma in the front parish office Monday-Thursday from 2:00 PM-4:00 PM only, to sign up for Mass Intentions.

The Jesse Tree

As we continue to journey through this season of Advent, let us remind ourselves that we have hope, by acknowledging the stories of scripture that lead us to Christ’s birth. One can do this by looking up the passages in your Bible at home, or by checking out the Jesse Tree in the Narthex of the church each day until Christmas.

December 23: The Shell John the Baptist—John 1:18-28
December 24: The Hammer Joseph—Matthew 1:18—2:23
December 26: The Lily Mary—Luke 1:39-56
Our Book for January:
“Let Me Be Frank With You” by Richard Ford

We will meet at 10 AM on Saturday, January 16, 2016. Just read the book and come join in on the discussion. We usually meet in the Emmaus Room.

All are welcome!
