   a) John Smith put horseshoes on the black stallion
   b) beckoning music awakened Will
   c) Will ate bread
   d) Will took a walk through the snowy countryside

2. Will woke early before his family on his birthday. He looked outside the window where he saw only ______________, not the assortment of roofs or lawns and fields that were his usual view.
   a) a forest of massive trees
   b) a thick, swirling fog
   c) a white, glaring light
   d) blackness

3. Which statement completes the diagram?
   a) Will ran get the doctor.
   b) Will went to the Dawsons’ Farm for help.
   c) Will went back to bed.
   d) Will went outside to explore.

4. As Will was leaving his home, he didn’t look back because _____.
   a) he wanted to catch the Walker before he disappeared
   b) he heard the music in front of him pulling him onward
   c) he did not want his brothers to stop him from going out into this unknown world
   d) he knew that when he looked, he would find that the house was gone

5. Read the following excerpt from Chapter 2.

   He was crystal-clear awake, in a Midwinter Day that had been waiting for him to wake into it since the day he had been born, and, he somehow knew, for centuries before that. Tomorrow will be beyond imagining. . . .

   Which sequencing technique is used in this passage?
   a) chronology order
   b) logical order
   c) flashback
   d) foreshadowing

6. Will walked through the forest until he heard a hammering sound. He followed the sound to ______________.
   a) a tinker pushing his cart of wares
   b) a smith putting horseshoes on a tall, black stallion
   c) a carpenter nailing boards over the window of a hut
   d) a village with people milling about

7. Read the following passage from Chapter 2.
Will crossed the road through the snow, his hands thrust deep into his pockets. He did not look at the tall cloaked figure facing him. Instead he stared resolutely at the other man, bent again now over the anvil, and realized that he knew him; it was one of the men from Dawsons’ Farm. John Smith, Old George’s son.

The word resolutely most probably means ________________ .
   a) hesitantly                     c) determinedly
   b) uncertainly                   d) shyly

RL.3  8. As the Black Rider tried to grab Will’s arm to swing him up onto the black stallion, ________________.
   a) Will turned and ran deep inside the forge
   b) Will stumbled backwards and fell
   c) Will leaped up behind the Black Rider agile as a cat
   d) the smith pulled Will out of the Black Rider’s reach RL.3  9. John Smith gave Will the following warning as he continued on his journey.

   a) Their power can work no harm on the road through Hunter’s Combe.
   b) The cross-quartered circle holds magical powers that will guide you to your destination.
   c) Find the Walker. He has valuable information that will help you with your quest.
   d) Stay away from the dark figures. Their powers will only bring you harm.

RL.3  10. As Will left the blacksmith, he noticed that ____________.
   a) all four of the white mare’s shoes were replicas of the cross-quartered circle that he wore on his own belt
   b) the forge seemed to be disappearing into a foggy mist
   c) the village returned to normal with people going about their normal routines
   d) Martha and Joe were whispering to each other in voices too quiet for Will to make out the words RL.2  11. Read the following passage from Chapter 2.

   At the mention of the rooks the old man had flinched closer to the hut, his eyes flickering nervously up at the treetops; but now he looked at Will in sharper suspicion than before. “You can’t be the one!” he said.

   Which sequencing technique is used in this passage?
   a) chronology order
   b) logical order
   c) foreshadowing
   d) flashback

RL.1  12. One can conclude that all of the following EXCEPT ____________ about the iron circle Will was given to wear on his belt.
   a) the iron turns intensely cold when the Black Rider comes near
   b) the Black Rider will try to take the iron circle away from Will
   c) the cross-quartered circle is a special design meant for Will
   d) there are other irons like Will’s that will protect him 13. Read the following passages from Chapter 2.

In the first shining moment he saw the whole strange-familiar world, glistening white; the roofs of the outbuildings mounded into square towers of snow, and beyond them all the fields and hedges buried, merged into one great flat expanse, unbroken white to the horizon’s brim. Will drew in a long, happy breath, silently rejoicing. Then, very faintly, he heard the music again, the same phrase. He swung round vainly searching for it in the air, as if he might see it somewhere like a flickering light. “Where are you?” It had gone again. And when he looked back through the window, he saw that his own world had gone with it.

To humour him, Will reached up and wound the fingers of both hands in the long coarse hair of the white horse’s mane, low on the neck. In the same instant, he felt giddy; his head hummed like a spinning-top, and behind the sound he heard quite plainly, but very far off, the haunting, bell-like phrase of music that he had heard before waking that morning. He cried out. His arms jerked strangely; the world spun; and the music was gone. His mind was still groping desperately to recover it when he realized that he was closer to the snow-thick branches of the trees than he had been before, sitting high on the white mare’s broad back.

Based on these passages one can conclude that when Will hears the music

- a) the Black Rider is calling Will
- b) Will is able to move more quickly than normal
- c) magic is taking place
- d) something evil is about to happen

14. Susan Cooper titles Chapter 2 Midwinter Day. Another title for this chapter could be

- a) A Ride Through Chiltern Hills
- b) The White Mare
- c) Escaping the Black Rider
- d) The Village of Huntercombe
List at least five events that happened in Chapter 2 in the order that they happened. Tell which event had the most impact on Will and explain why.
How does Cooper’s word choice make the reader feel about the Black Rider? Cite examples from The Dark is Rising to support your answer. Use the chart below to organize your thoughts before writing your response.
